Sustainable Increase of Marine Harvesting: Fundamental Mechanisms and New Concepts Olav Vadstein, Yngvar Olsen, 2013-06-29 How can we increase the production and harvest of living marine resources in the new millennium Bridging potentials and environmental constraints This was the theme of the 1st Maricult Conference arranged in Trondheim Norway in June 2000 in connection with termination of the Norwegian research programme Maricult 1996 2000 www.maricult.org The intention for the conference was not only to present a state of the art overview of the research conducted as part of the programme but also to describe other experiences and to discuss the ideas and the scientific status of the programme with the international scientific community A total of 50 oral communications and 8 posters were presented at the conference Sixteen of them are included in the present volume They deal with such topics as strategies for improving marine harvest underlying mechanisms for marine productivity new concepts of mariculture with emphasize on mussels and nutrient supply and environmental impact New Perspectives on Type Identity Simone Gozzano, Christopher S. Hill, 2012-03-08 The type identity theory according to which types of mental state are identical to types of physical state fell out of favour for some years but is now being considered with renewed interest Many philosophers are critically re examining the arguments which were marshalled against it finding in the type identity theory both resources to strengthen a comprehensive physicalistic metaphysics and a useful tool in understanding the relationship between developments in psychology and new results in neuroscience This volume brings together leading philosophers of mind whose essays challenge in new ways the standard objections to type identity theory such as the multiple realizability objection and the modal argument Other essays show how cognitive science and neuroscience are lending new support to type identity theory and still others provide extend and improve traditional arguments concerning the theory's explanatory power

Understanding Accountability: New Perspectives on a Fractured World Matthew Flinders, Gergana Dimova, Chris Monaghan, 2025-07-31 This book brings clarity and understanding to the concept of accountability through the lens of conceptual political analysis As the structure of the modern state has become more complex the architecture of accountability has itself needed to evolve and re-orientate in an attempt to keep pace This has led to an increased emphasis not on accountability per se but on different kinds or types of accountability As such it is argued here that accountability has emerged to become a concept with adjectives and there is a real need to properly understand accountability in an increasingly fractured world The theoretical and analytical glue that binds all of the chapters in this collection is a commitment to working within the contours of the work of the philosopher Giovanni Sartori This is an approach that has been used to tease apart and interrogate a range of concepts including terrorism governance coups gender equality deliberation warfare clientelism hybrid regimes democracy right through to art love rape and violence It is also an approach that facilitates the cultivation of complex debates concerning the limits of conceptual flexibility The volume consists of twelve chapters grouped into three main parts The introductory part provides the foundations for the collection Part I on Power explores the normative dimensions of accountability as a means to control and regulate power Part II on Politics focuses inter alia on accountability following a period of crisis and the emergence of new technology such as algorithms The final part Part III on Particularities looks at concepts such as social accountability and what is meant by supplementary accountability This broad ranging collection increases the conceptual toolkit that social and political scientists and lawyers can use to interrogate change at a number of levels and in a range of sectors Whether through a focus on moral individual or gendered accountability or through a shift towards clashing stakeholder or social accountability there is a clear flow and coherence through the chapters The volume will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the areas of Legal and Political Theory Legal and Political Philosophy and Accountability Studies New Perspectives on Early Cinema History Mario Slugan, Daniël Biltereyst, 2022-06-02 In this book editors Mario Slugan and Daniël Biltereyst present a theoretical reconceptualization of early cinema To do so they highlight the latest methods and tools for analysis and cast new light on the experience of early cinema through the application of these concepts and methods The international host of contributors evaluate examples of early cinema across the globe including The May Irwin Kiss 1896 Un homme de t tes 1900 The Terrible Turkish Executioner 1904 and Tom Tom the Piper's Son 1905 In doing so they address the periodization of the era emphasizing the recent boon in the availability of primary materials the rise of digital technologies the developments in new cinema history and the persistence of some conceptualizations as key incentives for rethinking early cinema in theoretical and methodological terms They go on to highlight cutting edge approaches to the study of early cinema including the use of the Mediathread Platform the formation of new datasets with the help of digital technologies and exploring the early era in non western cultures Finally the contributors revisit early cinema audiences and exhibition contexts by investigating some of the earliest screenings in Denmark and the US exploring the details of black cinema going in Harlem and examining exhibition practices in Germany
