Ceramics and the Museum Laura Breen, 2019-08-22 Ceramics and the Museum interrogates the relationship between art oriented ceramic practice and museum practice in Britain since 1970 Laura Breen examines the identity of ceramics as an art form drawing on examples of work by artist makers such as Edmund de Waal and Grayson Perry addresses the impact of policy making on ceramic practice traces the shift from object to project in ceramic practice and in the evolution of ceramic sculpture explores how museums facilitated multisensory engagement with ceramic material and process and analyses the exhibition as a text in itself Proposing the notion that gestures of showing such as exhibitions and installation art can be read as statements she examines what they tell us about the identity of ceramics at particular moments in time Highlighting the ways in which these gestures have constructed ceramics as a category of artistic practice Breen argues that they reveal gaps between narrative and practice which in turn can be used to deconstruct the art

Art and the Home Imogen Racz, 2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts

British Art of the Long 1980s Imogen Racz, 2020-11-26 The sculptural history of the long 1980s has been dominated by New British Sculpture and Young British Artists Arguing for a more expansive history of British sculpture and its supporting infrastructures these twenty three vivid and enthralling interviews with artists curators dealers and facilitators working then demonstrate the interconnected networks diversity of ideas and practices energy imagination and determination that transformed British art from being marginal to internationally celebrated With a substantial introduction this timely volume provides valuable new insights into the education work careers studios infrastructures and exhibitions of the artists and facilitators substantially enlarging our understanding of the era

What Is Contemporary Art? Terry Smith, 2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today s multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is

Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going

Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art Ann Lee Morgan, 2016-12-05 The Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art illuminates important artists styles and movements of the past 70 years Beginning with the immediate post World War II period it encompasses earlier 20th century masters including Pablo Picasso Henri Matisse Henry Moore Alberto Giacometti Joan Mir Jean Dubuffet Stuart Davis Georgia O Keeffe and other well known figures who remained creatively productive while also inspiring younger generations The book covers subsequent developments including abstract expressionism happenings pop art minimalism conceptual art arte povera feminist art photorealism neo expressionism and postmodernism as well as the contributions of such artists as Jackson Pollock Willem de Kooning Mark Rothko Helen Frankenthaler Joan Mitchell Robert Rauschenberg David Hockney Ellsworth Kelly Francis Bacon Louise Bourgeois Lucio Fontana Andy Warhol Richard Serra Donald Judd Joseph Beuys Christo Anselm Kiefer Judy Chicago Ai Weiwei and Jeff Koons Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography including more than 900 cross referenced entries on important artists styles terms and movements This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about contemporary art

Art, Borders and Belonging Maria Photiou, Marsha Meskimmon, 2021-04-22 Art Borders and Belonging On Home and Migration investigates how three associated concepts house home and homeland are represented in contemporary global art The volume brings together essays which explore the conditions of global migration as a process that is always both about departures and homecomings indeed home makings through which the construction of migratory narratives are made possible Although centrally concerned with how recent and contemporary works of art can materialize the migratory experience of movement and re settlement the contributions to this book also explore how curating and exhibition practices at both local and global levels can extend and challenge conventional narratives of art borders and belonging A growing number of artists migrate some for better job opportunities and for the experience of different cultures others not by choice but as a consequence of forced displacement caused economic or environmental collapse or by political religious or military destabilization In recent years the theme of migration has emerged as a dominant subject in art and curatorial practices Art Borders and Belonging thus seeks to explore how the migratory experience is generated and displayed through the lens of contemporary art In considering the extent to which the visual arts are intertwined with real life events this text acts as a vehicle of knowledge transfer of cultural perspectives and enhances the importance of understanding artistic interventions in relation to home migration and belonging

Money, Speculation and Finance in Contemporary British Fiction Nicky Marsh, 2007-11-22 Fiction has become increasingly concerned with the political and imaginative significance of finance speculation and the money markets from Ian Fleming's Goldfinger to Jonathan Coe's What a Carve Up and Martin Amis Money This book argues that recent British fiction demystifies the weightless economy of contemporary money and critiques the popular sense of money as being everywhere but nowhere The monograph provides a comprehensive survey of a large body of fictional texts that have striven to represent and understand the formative significance of finance capital on contemporary culture In these novels the implications of finance capitalism for political identity for class politics for the sovereignty of the nation state and a new global order are all explored dramatised and critiqued Authors covered include Margaret Drabble Ian McEwan Jonathan Coe Alan Hollinghurst Martin Amis and Malcolm Bradbury

In Fading Light James Leggott, 2020-04-09 For over five decades the Newcastle based Amber Film and Photography Collective has been a critical if often unheralded force within British documentary filmmaking producing a variety of innovative works focused on working class society Situating their acclaimed output within wider social political and historical contexts In Fading Light provides an accessible introduction to Amber's output from both national and transnational perspectives including experimental low budget documentaries in the 1970s more prominent feature films in the 1980s studies of post industrial life in the 1990s and the distinctive perils and opportunities posed by the digital era

Tribune for Victory and Socialism, 2003

The New English Kenneth McConkey, 2006-11 In this incisive study author Kenneth McConkey discusses for the first time the important position that the NEAC has held within the development of British art He charts the ebb and flow of a society that to this day celebrates the richness of life in all its manifestations This colourful book is a milestone in the study of British Art
