Robin Horton,1997-07-13 Robin Horton s critical and creative writings on African religious thought have influenced anthropologists philosophers and all those interested in the comparative study of religion and thought This selection of some of his classic papers with a new introduction and postscript by the author traces Horton s theoretical ideas over thirty years In attempting to understand African religious thought he also tackles broader issues in the history and sociology of thought such as secularisation and modernisation Part I is a critical assessment of two established interpretive approaches the Symbolist and the Theological Part II proposes an alternative Intellectualist approach that emphasises the structural and processual similarities between religious and scientific thinking The postscript appraises the Intellectualist approach in the light of theorising about religion and world views Job's Illness: Loss, Grief and Integration Jack Kahn,2014-05-18 Job s Illness Loss Grief and Integration explores the Book of Job and examines the psychiatric interpretation of Job s illness This book presents the story of Job to help the readers to discover the links between depression obsessional states and paranoia Organized into nine chapters this book begins with an overview of the various medical references in which Job s illness is described in terms of categories of diseases in physical medicine This text then describes Job s insistence on what has been called his perfection is a trait seen in obsessional personalities Other chapters consider Job s own communications about his experiences and feelings This book discusses as well the various ways of looking upon what happens to Job in terms of therapy The final chapter deals with the transformation of Job with qualities different from the old one and restored to health This book is a valuable resource for clinicians psychologists and psychotherapists West African Religion ,1963

Biblical Revelation and African Beliefs Kwesi Dickson,Paul Ellingworth,2024-07-25 In this reprinted edition of Biblical Revelation and African Beliefs the contents of traditional African religions and their relevance to Christian ideas are explored Through presenting the principal papers of a consultation of African theologians Dickson and Ellingworth offer an extensive exploration of how these traditional religions and their ideas can enrich and enlighten Christianity in Africa Rejecting a Eurocentric vision of Christianity in Africa Biblical Revelation and African Beliefs explores ideas such as the knowledge of God the notion of power time and man as well as examining the ethical content of African traditional religion and when it can be reconciled to Christian ethics This group of esteemed African theologians offers a framework for a synthesis between the Christian gospel and African theology which is illuminating for historians and Christian theologians alike

Sociology and the World's Religions M. Hamilton, 1998-08-09 Sociological and related studies of systems of religion tend to be fragmented This book brings together and assesses a diverse range of substantive sociological anthropological and social psychological scholarship dealing with the broad spectrum of religious belief experience and behaviour from the work of anthropologists on the religions of tribal and pre industrial peoples to explorations of the origins development and impact of the great world religions The book will have particular appeal not only in the fields of sociology social anthropology but also religious studies Reclaiming the Human Sciences and Humanities Through African Perspectives Helen Lauer, Kofi Anyidoho, 2012 This compilation was inspired by an international symposium held on the Legon campus in September 2003 Hosted by the CODESRIA African Humanities Institute Programme the symposium had the theme Canonical Works and Continuing Innovation in African Arts Humanities

Colonialism and Change Lucy Mair, Maxwell Owusu, 1975 No detailed description available for Colonialism and Change The Church in Africa, 1450-1950 Adrian Hastings, 1995-01-05 I can merely admire his courage in tackling so complex and difficult a subject he should succeed in stimulating a fresh generation of research this well written intelligent and lively study will greatly stimulate anyone fortunate enough to read it Christianity provided the constitutive identity of historic Ethiopia From the sixteenth century and increasingly from the nineteenth it entered decisively into the life and culture of an increasing number of other African peoples In the course of the twentieth century African Christians have become a major part of the world Church and arguably modern African history as a whole is not intelligible without its powerful Christian element Yet despite the great advance in African historiography over the last forty years this is the first major volume to consider the historical development and character of the Christian Church in Africa as a whole linking together Ehtiopia Orthodoxy Roman Catholicism Protestantism and the numerous Independent churches of modern times The book focuses throughout on the role of conversion the shaping of Church life and its relationship to traditional values and the impact of political power Professor Hastings also compares the relation of Christian history to the comprable development of Islam in Africa Must God Remain Greek? Robert Earl Hood, Must God Remain Greek brings together in a fascinating and readable way the cultural and religious thought and activities of African peoples Caribbeans and Afro Americans to bear upon Christian theology As a scholar Dr Hood is at home in the three regions as well as in the Western Christian tradition He raises fundamental questions for theology which have tremendous consequences in the present day of Christian expansion and ecumenical movement It is refreshing to see an old problem recast in cultural areas where Christianity is throbbing and thriving John S Mbiti The Red Fez Fritz Kramer,1993 This text explores the ways in which colonial Europeans have been represented in African ritual art and drama Christian ethics in an African background Edmund Christopher Onyedum Ilogu,2024-04-02 Ancestors William H. Bibliography of Nigeria Nduntuei O. Ita,2019-05-23 First published in 1971 this major bibliography devoted to Africa s most populous country Nigeria is therefore a timely contribution which must be welcomed by all The Bibliography of Nigeria contains over 5 400 entries in archaeology all branches of anthropology linguistic and relevant historical and sociological studies Many of the entries carry indicative or informative annotations which have greatly enhanced the usefulness of the work The history and culture of Africa constitutes a rich area of study and research which is attracting an ever increasing number of scholars the world over The new impetus which African studies is receiving in the major centre of learning today has added urgency to the long neglected problem of bibliographical control of the vast literature The dearth of bibliographies in the field of African studies has been a main source of frustration to all those working in this area The book is divided into two parts part one deals with Nigeria as a whole and lists general works or those concerned with several regions or several ethnic groups Part two is devoted to the various ethnic groups An analytical table of contents a comprehensive ethnic index an author index and an index of Islamic studies together with generous cross referencing ensure ready and easy location of individual entries Interpreting al-Tha'labi's Tales of the Prophets Marianna Klar,2009-09-10 Al Tha labi was a renowned Qur anic scholar of the fifth eleventh century and his Ara is al majalis is arguably the finest and most widely consulted example of the Islamic qisas al anbiya genre Drawing on primary Arabic sources Klar applies modern critical methods in order to explore the nature of al Tha labi s Ara is al majalis within its historical and literary context and thereby produces a compelling examination of the stories of Noah Job Saul and David as portrayed in the key historiographical and folkloric texts of the medieval Islamic period Via a close analysis of the relevant narratives the book considers a number of universal aspects of the human condition as they are displayed in these tales from first a religious then a familial and finally a social perspective Touching upon the benefits and limitations of the application of biblical studies and literary motifs to Islamic materials the book investigates the possibilities of interpretation raised by a primarily psychoanalytical reading of the tales of the four individuals in question As such this text will be of great interest to scholars of the biblical prophets Qur anic studies Islamic historiography folklore and literary criticism Job's Body and the Dramatised Comedy of Moralising Katherine E. Southwood,2020-09-02 This book focuses on the expressions used to describe Job s body in pain and on the reactions of his friends to explore the moral and social world reflected in the language and the values that their speeches betray A key contribution of this monograph is to highlight how the perspective of illness as retribution is powerfully refuted in Job s speeches and in particular to show how this is achieved through comedy Comedy in Job is a powerful weapon used to expose and ridicule the idea of retribution Rejecting the approach of retrospective diagnosis this monograph carefully analyses the expression of pain in Job focusing specifically on somatic language used in the deity attack metaphors in the deity surveillance metaphors and in the language connected to the body and social status These metaphors are analysed in a comparative way using research from medical anthropology and sociology which focuses on illness narratives and expressions of pain Job s Body and the Dramatised Comedy of Moralising will be of interest to anyone working on the Book of Job as well as those with an interest in suffering and pain in the Hebrew Bible more broadly
