Of Memory And Desire Stories:

Of Memory and Desire Gladys Swan, 1989-08 These eleven compelling stories reveal the interplay and varying hues of two basic elements of human experience memory and desire Gladys Swan's characters are frequently forced to shed their illusions as they struggle to shape their lives The title story like many of the others in the collection has as its backdrop the beautiful but sometimes harsh landscape of the American Southwest There a reclusive farmer known as Goat Man takes in a young Mexican boy as his companion When the greed of a tax collector and the complicity of a community destroy Goat Man the boy vanishes into the night but returns in the form of a legend a reminder to the residents of the valley of their changing crueler world In another story a traveling carnival breaks down when a sandstorm does final damage to the dreams of the company and a tired almost defeated woman attempts to regroup and continue what has been so hopefully called Carnival for the Gods An older couple carrying their Jewish past to a Land of Promise Discovers instead an alien territory and must struggle from day to day one leaning to the past the other inclining toward an unattainable vision of the future In The Ink Feather a small lonely girl witness to endless quarrels between her mother and her much older brother draws comfort from the world of her dolls and the prospect of adventure outside the mist covered windows of her house In Getting an Education a diffident young woman trying to be a student and to discover what she ought to be learning finds insight in the details of the lives around her especially the secretive eccentric existence of one of her professors A widowed grandmother in Black Hole is impregnated during a chance encounter with a nameless stranger and shocks her family when she determines to give birth to and raise her child Like that grandmother all of the characters in these fictions whether from the comfortable middle class or the fringes of society are at odds with themselves and their world It is Gladys Swan's special gift that she can so seamlessly depict the particular terrors and wonders of their lives This is a mesmerizing collection My Heart After

Esther: A Mystic's Philosophy of Love Collins I. Aki, 2017-01-24 My Heart After Esther could be considered a philosophy of love in the skin of a romance novel or a romance novel in the skin of a philosophy of love but it is ultimately a story about love and philosophy in a way that romances the two In this work of literary meta fiction two stories are interwoven into one The first story is about the translator of the second story Gustav Z Itohahn and his love for the author and his work he is translating the mysterious pseudo philosopher Jorge Manuel Belmarez In the second story we read Itohahn's presentation of Belmarez's story of love which dares to challenge every idea of love and marriage from the vow till death do we part to the old courtly love edict that marriage is no proper defense against love This new take on philosophical fiction may somehow find itself in the memory of its readers as more than an experiment in story telling but truly an experiment in challenging our deepest ideas and beliefs The Short Story Charles May, 2013-10-14 The short story is one of the most difficult types of prose to write and one of the most pleasurable to read From Boccaccio's Decameron to The Collected Stories of Reynolds Price Charles May gives us an understanding of the history and structure of this demanding form of fiction Beginning with a

Relating Narratives Adriana Cavarero, 2014-02-25 Relating Narratives is a major new work by the philosopher and feminist thinker Adriana Cavarero First published in Italian to widespread acclaim Relating Narratives is a fascinating and challenging new account of the relationship between selfhood and narration Drawing a diverse array of thinkers from both the philosophical and the literary tradition from Sophocles and Homer to Hannah Arendt Karen Blixen Walter Benjamin and Borges Adriana Cavarero's theory of the narratable self shows how narrative models in philosophy and literature can open new ways of thinking about formation of human identities By showing how each human being has a unique story that can be told about them Adriana Cavarero inaugurates an important shift in thinking about subjectivity and identity which relies not upon categorical or discursive norms but rather seeks to account for who each one of us uniquely is
