 Meyer,2023 An interdisciplinary and trans historical investigation of the representation of ethics in Arthurian Literature From its earliest days the Arthurian legend has been preoccupied with questions of good kingship the behaviours of a ruling class and their effects on communities societies and nations both locally and in imperial and colonizing contexts Ethical considerations inform and are informed by local anxieties tied to questions of power and identity especially where leadership service and governance are concerned they provide a framework for understanding how the texts operate as didactic and critical tools of these subjects This book brings together chapters drawing on English Welsh German Dutch French and Norse iterations of the Arthurian legend and bridging premodern and modern temporalities to investigate the representation of ethics in Arthurian literature across interdisciplinary and transhistorical lines They engage a variety of methodologies including gender critical race theory philology literature and the law translation theory game studies comparative critical and close reading and modern editorial and authorial practices Texts interrogated range from Culhwch and Olwen to Parzival Roman van Walewein Tristrams Saga Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and Malory s Morte Darthur As a whole the approaches and findings in this volume attest to the continued value and importance of the Arthurian legend and its scholarship as a vibrant field through which to locate and understand the many ways in which medieval literature continues to inform modern sensibilities and institutions particularly where the matter of ethics is concerned
