Pacific Romanticism Tahiti And The European Imagination:

Pacific Romanticism Alexander H. Bolyanatz, 2004-10-30 Europeans romanticist imaginings of people from the South Pacific have been around since the Enlightenment and have been significantly informed by the accounts of voyages to Tahiti by people such as Louis Bougainville This book shows that the overtly promiscuous behavior that the French perceived as hospitality on the part of the Tahitians in 1768 was actually a defensive ploy and that our contemporary image of sex and sexuality in Pacific Island societies is influenced by a fantasy based on this French misperception This volume takes a very detailed look at traditional Tahitian culture and society and provides a realistic description of what happened on Tahiti when Europeans encountered the people who lived there Bolyanatz provides a very readable history of South Pacific exploration and Enlightenment thinking Anyone interested in the development of Enlightenment thought and the way it has developed since the 18th century will enjoy this book

Changing Contexts, Shifting Meanings Elfriede Hermann, 2011-09-30 This book sheds new light on processes of cultural transformation at work in Oceania and analyzes them as products of interrelationships between culturally created meanings and specific contexts In a series of inspiring essays noted scholars of the region examine these interrelationships for insight into how cultural traditions are shaped on an ongoing basis The collection marks a turning point in the debate on the conceptualization of tradition Following a critique of how tradition has been viewed in terms of dichotomies like authenticity vs inauthenticity contributors stake out a novel perspective in which tradition figures as context bound articulation This makes it possible to view cultural traditions as resulting from interactions between people their ideas actions and objects and the ambient contexts Such interactions are analyzed from the past down to the Oceanian present with indigenous agency being highlighted The work focuses first on early encounters initially between Pacific Islanders themselves and later with the European navigators of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries to clarify how meaningful actions and contexts interrelated in the past The present day memories of Pacific Islanders are examined to ask how such memories represent encounters that occurred long ago and how they influenced the social political economic and religious changes that ensued Next contributors address ongoing social and structural interactions that social actors enlist to shape their traditions within the context of globalization and then the repercussions that these intersections and intercultural exchanges of discourses and practices are having on active identity formation as practiced by Pacific Islanders Finally two authorities on Oceania who themselves move in the intersecting space between anthropology and history discuss the essays and add their own valuable reflections With its wealth of illuminating analyses and illustrations Changing Contexts Shifting Meanings will appeal to students and scholars in the fields of cultural and social anthropology history art history museology Pacific studies gender studies cultural studies and literary criticism Contributors Aletta Biersack Fran oise Douaire Marsaudon Bronwen Douglas David Hanlon Brigitta Hauser Sch ublin Peter Hempenstall Margaret Jolly Miriam Kahn Martha Kaplan John D Kelly Wolfgang Kempf Gundolf Kr ger Jacquelyn Lewis Harris Lamont Lindstrom Karen Nero Ton Otto Anne Salmond Serge Tcherk zoff Paul van der Grijp Toon van Meijl Tribal Fantasies J. Mackay,D. Stirrup,2012-12-28 This transnational collection discusses the use of Native American imagery in twentieth and twenty first century European culture With examples ranging from Irish oral myth through the pop image of Indians promulgated in pornography to the philosophical appropriations of Ernst Bloch or the European far right contributors illustrate the legend of the Indian Drawing on American Indian literary nationalism postcolonialism and transnational theories essays demonstrate a complex nexus of power relations that seemingly allows European culture to build its own Native images and ask what effect this has on the current treatment of indigenous peoples Plays Well in Groups Katherine Frank,2013-06-27 From tribal religious rituals to the Playboy mansion and from ancient Rome to Burning Man Plays Well in Groups explores the phenomenon of group sex Author Katherine Frank draws on surveys ethnographic research participant interviews and more to provide explanations for both participation in group sex and our complex reactions to it from fascination to fear This book looks at group sex across cultures who has it and why Group sex is almost always taboo and often criminalized and yet it persists across cultures throughout history Plays Well in Groups looks at the symbolism of orgies as well as contemporary manifestations of group sex in bathhouses and public sex venues at BDSM and swinging parties on Craigslist and in political scandals Tantra classes reality television and more Frank explores the many reasons people participate in group sex from arousal to spiritual transcendence in this bold study of subversive sexuality Religions of the World J. Gordon Melton,Martin

Baumann, 2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world's smaller religious outposts. Religions of the World: Second Edition: A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe. The encyclopedia's six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works. Entries include profiles on religion in the world's smallest countries, the Vatican and San Marino; profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries, Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh; as well as profiles on religion in some of the world's most remote places, Antarctica and Easter Island. Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground, tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world, its major geographical sites and its major celebrations. Unlike other works, the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism, humanism and other traditions.
