Political Lives Of Dead Bodies Reburial And Postsocialist Change:

The Political Lives of Dead Bodies Katherine Verdery, 1999 Since 1989 scores of bodies across Eastern Europe have been exhumed and brought to rest in new gravesites Verdery investigates why certain corpses have taken on political life in the turbulent times following the end of Communist Party rule

The Politics of Haunting and Memory in International Relations Jessica Auchter, 2014-03-21 International Relations has traditionally focused on conflict and war but the effects of violence including dead bodies and memorialization practices have largely been considered beyond the purview of the field Drawing on Jacques Derrida's notion of hauntology to consider the politics of life and death Auchter traces the story of how life and death and a clear division between the two is summoned in the project of statecraft She argues that by letting ourselves be haunted or looking for ghosts it is possible to trace how statecraft relies on the construction of such a dichotomy Three empirical cases offer fertile ground for complicating the picture often painted of memorialization Rwandan genocide memorials the underexplored case of undocumented immigrants who die crossing the US Mexico border and the body ruins nexus in 9 11 memorialization Focusing on the role of dead bodies and the construction of particular spaces as the appropriate sites for memory to be situated it offers an alternative take on the new materialisms movement in international relations by asking after the questions that arise from an ethnographic approach to the subject viewing things from the perspective of dead bodies who occupy the shadowy world of post conflict international politics This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of critical international relations security studies statecraft and memory studies

The Oxford Handbook of Political Leadership R. A. W. Rhodes, Paul 't Hart, 2014-05-29 Political leadership has made a comeback It was studied intensively not only by political scientists but also by political sociologists and psychologists Sovietologists political anthropologists and by scholars in comparative and development studies from the 1940s to the 1970s Thereafter the field lost its way with the rise of structuralism neo institutionalism and rational choice approaches to the study of politics government and governance Recently however students of politics have returned to studying the role of individual leaders and the exercise of leadership to explain political outcomes The list of topics is nigh endless elections conflict management public policy government popularity development governance networks and regional integration In the media age leaders are presented and stage managed spun DDAs as the solution to almost every social problem Through the mass media and the Internet citizens and professional observers follow the rise impact and fall of senior political officeholders at closer quarters than ever before This Handbook encapsulates the resurgence by asking where are we today It orders the multidisciplinary field by identifying the distinct and distinctive contributions of the disciplines It meets the urgent need to take stock It brings together scholars from around the world encouraging a comparative perspective to provide a comprehensive coverage of all the major disciplines methods and regions It showcases both the normative and empirical traditions in political leadership studies and juxtaposes behavioural institutional and interpretive approaches It covers formal office based as well as informal emergent political leadership and in both democratic and undemocratic polities The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Death and Burial Sarah Tarlow, Liv Nilsson Stutz, 2013-06-06 This Handbook reviews the state of mortuary archaeology and its practice with forty four chapters focusing on the history of the discipline and its current scientific techniques and methods Written by leading scholars in the field it derives its examples and case studies from a wide range of time periods and geographical areas Transitional Justice and the 'Disappeared' of Northern Ireland Lauren Dempster, 2019-06-11 This book employs a transitional justice lens to address the disappearances that occurred during the Northern Ireland conflict or Troubles and the post conflict response to these disappearances Despite an extensive literature around dealing with the past in Northern Ireland as well as a substantial body of scholarship on disappearances in other national contexts there has been little scholarly scrutiny of disappearances in post conflict Northern Ireland Although the Good Friday Agreement brought relative peace to Northern Ireland no provision was made for the establishment of some form of overarching truth and reconciliation commission aimed at comprehensively addressing the legacy of violence Nevertheless a mechanism to recover the remains of the disappeared the Independent Commission for the Location of Victims Remains ICLVR was established and has in fact proven to be quite effective As a result the reactions of key constituencies to the disappearances can be used as a prism through which to comprehensively explore issues of relevance to transitional justice scholars and practitioners Pursuing an interdisciplinary approach and based on extensive empirical research this book provides a multifaceted exploration of the responses of these constituencies to the practice of disappearing It engages with transitional justice themes including silence memory truth acknowledgement and apology Key issues examined include the mobilisation efforts of families of the disappeared efforts by a former non state armed group to address its legacy of violence the utility of a limited immunity mechanism to incentivise information provision and the interplay between silence and memory in the shaping of a collective societal understanding of the disappeared

Parallel Realities in Russian and Ukrainian Contemporary Cinema Tetyana Shlikhar, 2025-09-30 This book examines Russian and Ukrainian feature films to trace the roots and consequences of the Russian invasion of Ukraine It argues that the cultural war stems from a colonial past where Russia viewed Ukraine as an inferior little brother By examining cinematic representations of the countries shared history this book reveals how Russia has used cinema to promote a strong unified state and patriotic narratives while Ukrainian cinema seeks to overcome colonial trauma and build a distinct national identity It also investigates how cultural memories of Kyivan Rus the Cossacks World War II the Soviet past and the Russian war in Ukraine are depicted differently in Russian and Ukrainian cinema Imre Nagy, Martyr of the Nation Karl P. Benziger, 2008-01-01 Imre Nagy is a compelling figure both in life and in death_ one whose actions stimulated consequences in Hungary that continue into the present Providing a summary review of Hungarian Cold War history Benziger examines the ways in which the memory of the martyred prime minister and the story of the 1956 Revolution influenced political socialization in Hungary The book begins with Nagy's 1989 funeral and the role memorialization played in the politics of transition continuing with a review of the important personages and events that informed Nagy's life and afterlife and it concludes in the tumultuous politics following the establishment of the Republic in 1989 Readers interested in Central and Eastern Europe will find this book useful as it expands the literature on history and memory and transition politics in the region

The Political Cult of the Dead in Ukraine Guido Hausmann, Iryna Sklokina, 2021-12-06 The Ukrainian Euromaidan in 2013-14 and the ongoing Russian-Ukrainian war in the Eastern part of the country have posed new questions to historians The volume investigates the relevance of the cults of the fallen soldiers to Ukraine's national history and state It places the dead of the Euromaidan and the forms and functions of the emerging new cult of the dead in the context of older cults from pre-Soviet Soviet and post-Soviet times from various Ukrainian regions until the end of the presidency of Petro Poroshenko in 2019 The contributions emphasize the importance of the grassroots level of local and regional actors or memory entrepreneurs myths of state origin and national defense demanding unity and the dynamics of commemorative practices in the last thirty years in relation to pluralist and fragmented processes of nation and state building They contribute to new conceptualizations of the political cult of the dead

Ethnic Struggle, Coexistence, and Democratization in Eastern Europe Sherrill Stroschein, 2012-05-28 In societies divided on ethnic and religious lines problems of democracy are magnified particularly where groups are mobilized into parties With the principle of majority rule minorities should be less willing to endorse democratic institutions where their parties persistently lose elections While such problems should also hamper transitions to democracy several diverse Eastern European states have formed democracies even under these conditions In this book Sherrill Stroschein argues that sustained protest and contention by ethnic Hungarians in Romania and Slovakia brought concessions on policies that they could not achieve through the ballot box in contrast to Transcarpathia Ukraine In Romania and Slovakia contention during the 1990s made each group accustomed to each other's claims and aware of the degree to which each could push its own Ethnic contention became a de facto deliberative process that fostered a moderation of group stances allowing democratic consolidation to slowly and organically take root

Curious Visions of Modernity David L. Martin, 2011 Haunted by a secret knowledge and a repressed enchantment Western rationality is not what it seems

Structures of Memory Jennifer A. Jordan, 2006 Structures of Memory turns to the landscape of contemporary Berlin particularly places marked by the presence of the Nazi regime in order to understand how some places of great cruelty or great heroism are forgotten by all but eyewitnesses while others become the site of public ceremonies museums or commemorative monuments

Everyday Post-Socialism Jeremy Morris, 2016-09-01 This book offers a rich ethnographic account of blue collar workers' everyday life in a central Russian industrial town coping with simultaneous decline and the arrival of transnational corporations Everyday Post-Socialism demonstrates how people manage to remain satisfied despite the crisis and relative poverty they faced after the fall of socialist projects and the social trends associated with neoliberal transformation Morris shows the other life in today's Russia which is not present in mainstream academic discourse or even in the media in Russia itself This book offers co presence and a direct understanding of how the local community lives a life which is not only bearable but also preferable and attractive when framed in the categories of habitability commitment and engagement and seen in the light of alternative ideas of worth and specific values Topics covered include working class identity informal economy gender relations and transnational corporations Socialist Laments Martha Sprigge, 2021 The Ruin The Socialists Cemetery The Church Concentration Camp Memorials The Artists Cemetery Constructing Capitalisms Roderick Martin, 2013-03-28 The balance of economic power in Europe is shifting eastwards Poland the Czech Republic Hungary and Romania have all seen increases in their contributions to international trade and in the rate of GDP growth whilst other countries have seen declines and firms in these Central and Eastern European economies are becoming increasingly influential participants in international production systems centred largely on Germany This book presents an up to date theoretically informed analysis of how these four countries have developed distinctive business systems since the political revolutions that transformed this region in 1989 combining the structures of liberal market capitalism established in the 1990s with practices established earlier Influenced by the socialist inheritance of communism and increasingly diverse sources of capital different forms of capitalism developed less responsive to shareholder interests and more responsive to managerial and national strategic interests This book concentrates on changing patterns of ownership and control means of capital accumulation the relations among multinationals regional enterprises and governments and the role of the state Whilst recognizing the role of multinationals in generating export led growth the book emphasizes the central role of government at national and international level The forms of capitalism under construction differ from expectations common in the 1990s combining elements from both US UK and continental European models of capitalism Seeking Meaning, Seeking Justice in a Post-Cold War World Judith Keene, Elizabeth Rechniewski, 2018-03-27 The challenge for historians as for individuals and nations has been to make sense of the Cold War past without recourse to the obsolete frameworks of a dichotomous world The editors of Seeking Meaning Seeking Justice in the Post Cold War World Judith Keene and Elizabeth Rechniewski have brought together contributions that address the diverse modes by which the Cold War is being assessed with a major focus on countries on the periphery of the Cold War confrontation These approaches include developments in historiography as new intellectual and cultural frame are applied to old debates Authors also consider the universal principles and moral discourses including that of human rights on which judgements have been based and judicial processes instigated and the forms of memorialisation that have sought to come to terms and perhaps achieve reconciliation with a Cold War past Contributors are Ann Curthoys Philip Deery Katherine Hite Michael Humphrey Su kyong Hwang Perry Johansson Judith Keene Betty O'Neill Peter Read Elizabeth Rechniewski Estela Valverde Adrian Vickers and Marivic Wyndham Handbook of Political Anthropology Harald Wydra, Bjørn

Thomassen,2018-11-30 This Handbook engages the reader in the major debates approaches methodologies and explanatory frames within political anthropology Examining the shifting borders of a moving field of enquiry it illustrates disciplinary paradigm shifts the role of humans in political structures ethnographies of the political and global processes Reflecting the variety of directions that surround political anthropology today this volume will be essential reading to understanding the interactions of humans within political frames in a globalising world Freedom Rights Danielle L. McGuire,John

Dittmer,2011-11-26 In his seminal article Freedom Then Freedom Now renowned civil rights historian Steven F Lawson described his vision for the future study of the civil rights movement Lawson called for a deeper examination of the social economic and political factors that influenced the movement s development and growth He urged his fellow scholars to connect the local with the national the political with the social and to investigate the ideological origins of the civil rights movement its internal dynamics the role of women and the significance of gender and sexuality In Freedom Rights New Perspectives on the Civil Rights Movement editors Danielle L McGuire and John Dittmer follow Lawson s example bringing together the best new scholarship on the modern civil rights movement The work expands our understanding of the movement by engaging issues of local and national politics gender and race relations family community and sexuality The volume addresses cultural legal and social developments and also investigates the roots of the movement Each essay highlights important moments in the history of the struggle from the impact of the Young Women s Christian Association on integration to the use of the arts as a form of activism Freedom Rights not only answers Lawson s call for a more dynamic interactive history of the civil rights movement but it also helps redefine the field Death, Mourning, and Burial Antonius

C. G. M. Robben,2009-02-04 In Death Mourning and Burial an indispensable introduction to the anthropology of death readers will find a rich selection of some of the finest ethnographic work on this fascinating topic Comprised of six sections that mirror the social trajectory of death conceptualizations of death death and dying uncommon death grief and mourning mortuary rituals and remembrance and regeneration Includes canonical readings as well as recent studies on topics such as organ donation and cannibalism Designed for anyone concerned with issues of death and dying as well as violence terrorism war state terror organ theft and mortuary rituals Serves as a text for anthropology classes as well as providing a genuinely cross cultural perspective to all those studying death and dying Magyars and Political Discourses in the New Millennium

Melinda Kovács,2014-11-20 In this book Melinda Kovács analyzes various areas of Hungarian political discourse newspapers party websites informational books on the EU and government produced brochures sent to all households in Hungary The inquiry is supported by an understanding of politics as achieving and negotiating change in discourse which is not to be equated with simple language use In addition to language discourse also encompasses the meanings shared by members of a political community along with the conventions of what is possible or plausible in politics In the case of Hungary at the start of the twenty first century it is quite plausible to promote ethno nationalism and it is quite possible to understand Hungarian political community in terms of historical references different from or devoid of communism and post communism An exploration of discourses generated between 1999 and 2013 reveals that while political developments in recent years have been a cause for legitimate concern Hungarian political discourse has been making these developments plausible
