Economic Woman Frances Raday, 2019-05-14 The author introduces the concept of economic woman and makes her visible in duality with and opposition to the exclusive model of economic man Economic man has epitomized neo liberal capitalism which embraces competition and maximization of profit resulting in a steep increase in economic inequality The book demonstrates that women's inequality is a crucial factor in economic inequality which cannot be fully understood without relating to women's situation and that economic woman cannot thrive in the conditions of economic inequality created under global neo liberalism. Emphasising the international human rights guarantees of women's right to equality in all fields of life, the author documents women's increased participation in political, public, financial and corporate institutions, employment and entrepreneurship, with some women reaching high profile positions. Nevertheless, using global data, she reveals that economic woman lags behind with a severe economic power deficit, an unfulfilled promise of equal employment opportunity, a gendered impact of poverty and barriers to gender equality in the family. The book analyses the trap of women's increased burden of breadwinning in the context of discriminatory laws and practices, infrastructural failures and policy gaps which preempt achievement of gender equality in economic life. The book is intended for the general reader, academics, students, policy makers and NGOs. It shows economic woman at a global crossroads between a universal paradigm of gender equality and pervasive barriers to equal economic opportunity. The author demonstrates that tackling gender inequality, restoring welfare priorities and reducing economic inequality are inextricably linked. Human rights and governments have a vital role to play in addressing them all to create a sustainable economic infrastructure for the lives of women and men.

Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) in Retrospect Nathan Andrews, Nene Ernest Khalema, N'Dri T.

Assié-Lumumba, 2015-06-10 This volume examines the impact of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) on Africa's development post 2015. It assesses the current state of the MDGs in Africa by outlining the successes, gaps and failures of the state goals, including lessons learned. A unique feature of the book is the exposition on post MDG's agenda for Africa's development. Chapters on poverty, south-south partnership, aid, gender empowerment, health as well as governance and development explore what feasible alternative lies ahead for Africa beyond the expiry date of the MDGs. SADC Gender

Protocol 2015 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Dube, Sifiso, 2016-02-22 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development. This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance. The SADC Gender Protocol is the only sub-regional instrument that brings together existing global and continental commitments to gender equality and enhances these through time-bound targets. Aligned to Millennium Development Goal Three, the original 28 targets of the Protocol targets expire in 2015. Now that 2015 is here, we need to step back, assess and reposition. In June 2014 SADC Gender Ministers agreed to review the targets of the Gender Protocol in line with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). In May this year, ministers added that they want the Protocol to be accompanied by a Monitoring, Evaluation and Results Framework. The 2015 Barometer shows that implementation is now the biggest missing gap in the quest for gender equality. Now is the time to strengthen, resolve, reconsider, reposition and re-strategise for 2030. SADC GENDER PROTOCOL BAROMETER 2015 2015 is here. The Future of Humanity Pavlina Radia, Sarah Fiona Winters, Laurie Kruk, 2019-08-12 What is the future of humanity What does it mean to be human in the posthuman age What responsibility does humankind have towards others and their environments How are the stories that humans tell themselves implicated in the very power asymmetries and eco political challenges that they bemoan Taking a cross disciplinary approach to the posthuman age the essays in this collection speak to the multifaceted geographies and counter geographies of humanity probing into the possible futures we face as planetary species Some of these include ecological issues generated by centuries of neglecting our environment s power asymmetries stemming from economic and cultural globalization violence and its affective politics informed by cultural ethnic and racial genocides religious disputes social inequities produced by consumerism gender normativity and the increasing impact of digital and AI artificial intelligence technology on the human body as well as historical socio political not to mention ethical relations

Women, Poverty, Equality Meghan Campbell, 2018-02-08 The stark reality is that throughout the world women disproportionately live in poverty This indicates that gender can both cause and perpetuate poverty but this is a complex and cross cutting relationship The full enjoyment of human rights is routinely denied to women who live in poverty How can human rights respond and alleviate gender based poverty This monograph closely examines the potential of equality and non discrimination at international law to redress gender based poverty It offers a sophisticated assessment of how the international human rights treaties specifically the Convention on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women CEDAW which contains no obligations on poverty can be interpreted and used to address gender based poverty An interpretation of CEDAW that incorporates the harms of gender based poverty can spark a global dialogue The book makes an important contribution to that dialogue arguing that the CEDAW should serve as an authoritative international standard setting exercise that can activate international accountability mechanisms and inform the domestic interpretation of human rights

Postcoloniality Margaret A. Majumdar, 2007 Postcolonial theory is one of the key issues of scholarly debates worldwide debates so the author argues which are rather sterile and characterized by a repetitive reworking of old hackneyed issues focussing on cultural questions of language and identity in particular She explores the divergent responses to the debates on globalization

Trends in Gender Equality and Women's Advancement Ms. Janet Gale Stotsky, Sakina

Shibuya, Ms. Lisa Kolovich, Suhaib Kebhaj, 2016-02-10 This paper examines trends in indicators of gender equality and women's development using evidence derived from individual indicators and gender equality indices We extend both the United Nations Development Program's Gender Development Index and Gender Inequality Index to examine time trends In recent decades the world has moved closer to gender equality and narrowed gaps in education health and economic and political opportunity however substantial differences remain especially in South Asia the Middle East and sub Saharan Africa The results suggest countries can make meaningful improvements in gender equality even while significant income differences between countries remain
