Projects And Monuments In The Period Of The Roman Baroque:

Projects and Monuments in the Period of the Roman Baroque Hellmut Hager, Susan C. Scott, 1984 Includes lectures held concurrently with an exhibition shown at the Museum of Art Pennsylvania State University Between the Real and the

Ideal Susan M. Dixon, 2006 This book examines the Accademia degli Arcadi in its heyday a little known phenomenon in Italian history in the first part of the eighteenth century The Roman academy aimed for a peninsula wide cultural renewal induced by literary reform Operating within a papal court society it eschewed extant patronage systems and social hierarchies and introduced enlightened ideas to its members By about 1730 the Arcadi was on the wane the reform largely unmet It was an easy target for critics both its proponents and opponents in part because of the visible role it assigned to women By attending to the institution s policies this book provides a rich understanding of the Arcadi s goals It locates the organization s interest in theater including the physical environment of the theatrical drama as central to its operations It is argued that like a stage set the Bosco Parrasio the garden that the Arcadi built for its literary presentations is a visual manifestation of Arcadian goals Sculpture and Enlightenment Erika Naginski, 2009 This volume explores the ways in which the aesthetics of public art were affected by the social political and cultural changes of the Enlightenment Art and Architecture in Italy, 1600-1750 Rudolf Wittkower, Joseph Connors, Jennifer Montagu, 1999-01-01 This classic survey of Italian Baroque art and architecture focuses on the arts in every center between Venice and Sicily in the early high and late Baroque periods The heart of the study however lies in the architecture and sculpture of the exhilarating years of Roman High Baroque when Bernini Borromini and Cortona were all at work under a series of enlightened popes Wittkower s text is now accompanied by a critical introduction and substantial new bibliography This edition now published in three volumes will also include color illustrations for the first time Urban Emotions and the Making of the City Katie Barclay, Jade

Riddle, 2021-04-06 This book brings together a vibrant interdisciplinary mix of scholars from anthropology architecture art history film studies fine art history literature linguistics and urban studies to explore the role of emotions in the making and remaking of the city By asking how urban boundaries are produced through and with emotion how emotional communities form and define themselves through urban space and how the emotional imaginings of urban spaces impact on histories identities and communities the volume advances our understanding of urban emotions into discussions of materiality power and embodiment across time and space Making Space Public in Early Modern Europe Angela Vanhaelen, Joseph P. Ward, 2013-04-26 Broadening the conversation begun in Making Publics in Early Modern Europe 2009 this book examines how the spatial dynamics of public making changed the shape of early modern society The publics visited in this volume are voluntary groupings of diverse individuals that could coalesce through the performative uptake of shared cultural forms and practices The contributors argue that such forms of association were social productions of space as well as collective identities Chapters explore a range of cultural activities such as theatre performances travel and migration practices of persuasion the embodied experiences of lived space and the central importance of media and material things in the creation of publics and the production of spaces They assess a multiplicity of publics that produced and occupied a multiplicity of social spaces where collective identity and voice could be created discovered asserted and exercised Cultural producers and consumers thus challenged dominant ideas about just who could enter the public arena greatly expanding both the real and imaginary spaces of public life to include hitherto excluded groups of private people The consequences of this historical reconfiguration of public space remain relevant especially for contemporary efforts to meaningfully include the views of ordinary people in public life

A Transitory Star Claudia Lehmann, Karen J. Lloyd, 2015-07-24 Examining Bernini's works from 1665 on from Paris and Rome this book demonstrates the wealth of material still to be drawn from close visual and material examination archival research and comparative textual analysis On the whole this collection deals with Bernini's position as the leading creator of portraits in oils marble monumental architecture and metaphor of some of the most powerful political players of his day These studies speak to the growing distance of Gallic absolutism from the fading dreams of papal hegemony over Europe and to the complexities of Bernini's role as mouthpiece obstacle and flatterer of the Princes of the Papal States

Palaces of Reason Robin L. Thomas, 2023-11-09 Palaces of Reason traces the fascinating history of three royal residences built outside of Naples in the eighteenth century at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta Commissioned by King Charles of Bourbon and Queen Maria Amalia of Saxony who reigned over the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies these buildings were far more than residences for the monarchs They were designed to help reshape the economic and cultural fortunes of the realm The palaces at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta are among the most complex architectural commissions of the eighteenth century Considering the architecture and decoration of these complexes within their political cultural and economic contexts Robin L Thomas argues that Enlightenment ideas spurred their construction and influenced their decoration These modes of thinking saw the palaces as more than just centers of royal pleasure or muscular assertions of the crown's power Indeed writers and royal ministers viewed them as active agents in improving the cultural political social and economic health of the kingdom By casting the palaces within this narrative Thomas counters the assumption that they were imitations of Versailles and the swan songs of absolutism while expanding our understanding of the eighteenth century European palace more broadly Original and convincing Thomas's book will be of interest to historians of art and architectural history and eighteenth century studies

Benedict XIV and the Enlightenment Rebecca Messbarger, Christopher M. S. Johns, Philip Gavitt, 2017-01-11 Benedict XIV and the Enlightenment offers a comprehensive assessment of Benedict's engagement with Enlightenment art science spirituality and culture

Visible Spirit Irving Lavin, 2006-12-31 As early as the 1950s Professor Irving Lavin was recognized as a major voice in American art history His sustained production of seminal scholarly contributions have left their mark on an astonishingly wide range of subjects and fields Bringing these far reaching publications together will not only provide a valuable resource to scholars and students but will also underscore fundamental themes in the history of art historicism the art of commemoration the relationship between style and meaning the intelligence of artists themes that define the role of the visual arts in human communication Irving Lavin is best known for his array of fundamental publications on the Baroque artist Gian Lorenzo Bernini 1598 1680 These include new discoveries and studies on the master's prodigious childhood his architecture and portraiture his invention of caricature his depictions of religious faith and political leadership his work in the theatre his attitude toward death and the role of the artist in the creation of a modern sense of social responsibility All of Professor Lavin's papers on Bernini are here brought together in three volumes The studies have been reset and in many cases up dated and there is a comprehensive index

Proceedings of the ACSA Annual Meeting Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture, 1993

The French Academy June Ellen Hargrove, 1990 The essays in this volume grew out of a symposium at the University of Maryland's Center for Renaissance and Baroque Studies and the Walters Art Gallery in Baltimore

The Palazzo Pamphilj in Piazza Navona Stephanie C. Leone, 2008 In this first ever comprehensive book on the architecture of the Palazzo Pamphilj Stephanie Leone identifies the construction of this palace built for Pope Innocent X Pamphilj 1644 55 and his sister inlaw Donna Olimpia Maidalchini as the catalyst for the renovation of Piazza Navona Previously misconceptions had hindered an accurate understanding of the palace's history architecture patronage and urbanism and of its place in architectural history Based on extensive archival research an analysis of the architectural drawings and an examination of the building fabric Leone presents a fundamentally revised building history that hinges on architectural collaboration between the patrons architects and architectural adviser She explores the relationship between residential architecture and social identity to show that Innocent X sought to insert the Pamphilj physically and metaphorically into the heart of the city as a means of communicating his family's preeminent position in the competitive world of papal Rome In analyzing the Pamphilj's residence in Piazza Navona over the course of two centuries Leone argues that the Palazzo Pamphilj and its owners were both protagonists and products of their environs As retold in this book the story of the Palazzo Pamphilj in Piazza Navona rests at the core of architecture and urbanism in mid seventeenth century Rome
