When the Center Is on Fire Diane Harriford, Becky Thompson, 2008-06-01 In this lively and provocative book two feminist public sociologists turn to classical social thinkers W E B Du Bois Max Weber Karl Marx and mile Durkheim to understand a series of twenty first century social traumas including the massacre at Columbine High School the 9 11 attacks the torture at Abu Ghraib prison and Hurricane Katrina Each event was overwhelming in its own right while the relentless pace at which they occurred made it nearly impossible to absorb and interpret them in any but the most superficial ways Yet each uncovered social problems that cry out for our understanding and remediation In When the Center Is on Fire Becky Thompson and Diane Harriford assert that classical social theorists grappled with the human condition in ways that remain profoundly relevant They show for example that the loss of double consciousness that Du Bois identified in African Americans enabled political elites to turn a blind eye to the poverty and vulnerability of many of New Orleans's citizens The authors compelling sometimes irreverent often searing interpretations make this book essential reading for students activists generations X Y and Z and everybody bored by the 6 o'clock news
