however Abigail Johnson offers a structured process for engaging in theological reflection by looking at a situation or event through a series of questions These questions are designed to help individuals and small groups think through situations with the eyes of faith Johnson provides detailed instructions for group facilitators making this book a valuable resource for any theological reflection leader She demonstrates how theological reflection will enrich the faith life of the individual and increase group members sense of belonging to God and to the whole people of God She also shows how small groups engaging in theological reflection affects the ongoing life of a congregation particularly in the community s worship and the members practice of spiritual disciplines

Call No One on Earth Your Father Josephine E. Armour, 2019-03-29 This book brings a critique to the theology of the ordained ministry in contemporary Catholicism a theology that fosters clericalism It challenges a theology that views the ordained as set apart for a particular work over and against the laity This book brings critique to current practices including lifelong commitment to the ordained ministry the requirement of celibacy for the ordained and the exclusion of women from the ordained ministry The author examines history reclaiming elements that have been distorted or forgotten and asks What is retrievable in the tradition that is freeing and redeeming for a renewed theology The critique of the traditional theology and current practices in the ordained ministry and the retrieval of relevant elements of the tradition is a springboard for reconstructing a theology of the ordained ministry The model of the Trinity is suggested as an image for the ordained ministry itself and through its relational nature the ministry of the whole church The model of the Trinity sets the ordained ministry in its rightful context of the Christian community where all of the gifts of the baptized are valued and where ministry is collaborative non hierarchical and mutually enriching for the people of God
