The Kingdom of Promise and Prophecy Robertson L. Whiteside, 2025-08-23 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Heirs of Promise P. Chase

Sears, 2015-11-20 How did the Apostle Paul view the Church And where does Israel fit in How are the promises to Israel fulfilled In Heirs of Promise P Chase Sears discusses this relationship between the Church and Israel and he explains how that affects our understanding of the Old Testament Using a biblical theological approach to the book of Romans Sears argues that Paul understood the church not as a replacement of Israel but as the new Israel the continuation of Israel reconstituted in Christ And Jesus as the Son of God is the true Israel who fulfills all of God's purposes for Israel and creation Sears shows how the Old Testament promises to Israel are being fulfilled in the Church The Theme of Promise in the

Epistle to the Hebrews Daniel Stevens, 2025-04-24 Daniel Stevens analyses the use of the language of divine commitment in the Epistle to the Hebrews arguing that the author distinguishes promise from the cultic language of covenant to sketch a unique mixture of continuity and discontinuity among the people of God across time Stevens stresses through an exegesis of relevant passages that rest is not the primary content of promise nor is it the primary lens through which the other instances of promise language should be understood suggesting instead that the promise is most closely associated with the benefits promised to Abraham and then mediated through the various subsequent covenants He further explores how the divine promise relates to both the Old and New Covenants arguing that Hebrews develops a view of salvation history in which covenants are founded upon promises and then bring those promises to fruition By demonstrating the ways in which this understanding of promise sheds light on the author's hermeneutic and on his method of achieving his hortatory purposes for the epistle Stevens concludes in a reassertion of the consistency of the author's thought regarding promise Thoughts on the kingdom of God William Niven, 1862 Kingdom Prologue Meredith G. Kline, 2006-02-01 As intimated by the subtitle Genesis Foundations for a Covenantal Worldview the immediate literary focus of this study is the book of Genesis and its account of the formative ages in the eschatological movement of the kingdom of God from creation to consummation As also indicated by the subtitle our biblical theological commentary on Genesis is designed to uncover the foundations of God's covenantally administered kingdom with its major historical developments and its institutional structures and functions In this way Kingdom Prologue seeks to provide an introductory sketch of the overall shape of the biblical worldview and the character of biblical religion Thoughts on the Kingdom of God William NIVEN (B.D.), 1862 The Keys of the

Kingdom, Or, The Unfailing Promise James Joseph Moriarty, 1885 Where Is the Promise of His Coming? David L. Mathewson, 2018-10-26 The New Testament contains numerous statements by Jesus and New Testament authors that seem to suggest that Jesus was coming back soon in their lifetime But two thousand years later here we still are How do we handle

this apparent failed prophecy Did Jesus and his followers get it wrong Did they miscalculate the timing of Jesus return Or were Jesus and the authors of the New Testament anticipating something else The purpose of this book is to examine this issue by looking in detail at the New Testament texts that seem to promise that Christ is coming back right away It will provide a possible answer to these questions in light of the tension between the promised imminent return of Christ and its delay

Thoughts on the Kingdom of God William Niven (Clergyman),1862 The Kingdom of the Heavens Francis John Bodfield Hooper,1876 Progressive Dispensationalism Craig A. Blaising,Darrell L. Bock,2000-09-01 Thoughtful and accessible An up to date comprehensive overview of the most important issues in dispensationalism underpinned with accurate scholarship and summarized with clarity

The Covenantal Kingdom Ralph Smith,1996 God's Kingdom through His Priest-King J. Alexander Rutherford,2019-05-24 Though many studies have probed the significance of the Davidic Covenant 2 Sam 7 1 17 within the biblical canon few have endeavoured to explore its significance within the narrative of Samuel This thesis argues that by weaving references to God s promises made to David collectively known as the Davidic Covenant throughout his narrative that author of Samuel reveals God s will to strip away all human pretension by bringing His promises to fulfillment through the lowly David whose ascension to kingship and endurance therein is owing all to God In this way the author fulfills his purpose to demonstrate God s sovereign working in history to establish His kingdom on earth through His chosen priest king a descendant of David in fulfillment of the promises He made beforehand Engaging in a literary close reading of the text of Samuel the author shows how the narrative of Samuel is shaped towards this end

The Promise of the Father Marianne Meye Thompson,2000-01-01 Marianne Thompson surveys the portrayal of God as Father in the Old Testament and Second Temple Judaism in the ministry of Jesus in the Synoptic Gospels and in the writings of Paul and John Thompson argues that rather than rooting the image of God in a debate about gender Father terminology really identifies an ancestor who grants inheritance

Kingdom through Covenant (Second Edition) Peter J. Gentry,Stephen J. Wellum,2018-09-20 Kingdom through Covenant is a careful exposition of how the biblical covenants unfold and relate to one another a widely debated topic critical for understanding the narrative plot structure of the whole Bible By incorporating the latest available research from the ancient Near East and examining implications of their work for Christology ecclesiology eschatology and hermeneutics scholars Peter J Gentry and Stephen J Wellum present a thoughtful and viable alternative to both covenant theology and dispensationalism This second edition features updated and revised content clarifying key material and integrating the latest findings into the discussion

... Report on Strikes and Lock-outs in the United Kingdom ... and on Conciliation and Arbitration Boards ... ,1890 "Thy Kingdom Come" T. M. Schryver,2015-05-22 Surely I come quickly Revelation 22 20 When Christ was with His disciples prior to the beginning of the Church at Pentecost He taught them the great doctrines that they should know and pass on after His death and resurrection Among those important teachings were the fact that every man and woman are sinners all need the Savior to be their own Redeemer and that He Jesus Christ will come to earth a second time to set up and rule over His earthly Kingdom For three centuries these were the main teachings of the Church Then around 300 A D some men opposed many of Christs teachings especially concerning His promise about the coming Kingdom on the earth and caused this great doctrine to be removed from the Church The coming Millennial Kingdom is the leading subject of the preaching of John the Baptist Jesus Christ and the Apostles Its teaching embraces a larger portion of Scripture revelation than all other subjects combined If youre a Christian you need to be looking for Christs call to you heavenward Hes even at the door Hopefully this book will help to get you ready to meet Christ when He calls and it will be sooner than you think      Covenant Theology Jeong Koo Jeon,2004-11-03 In

Covenant Theology author Jeong Koo Jeon makes a much needed contribution to 21st century biblical and systematic theology He explores the debate between John Murray and Meredith G Kline placing their ideas in the larger context of Biblical studies that have had a direct influence on Reformed theology and evangelicalism Although the theologies of Murray and Kline contain significant differences they both maintain a distinction between a covenant of creation and a covenant of grace In addition they both advocate a fundamental antithesis between law and gospel giving a priority to law over gospel in the temporal and logical order of divine works Jeon sees these distinctions as hermeneutic tools that are essential for better understanding of biblical revelation as well as faith grace and atonement      Leaning into the Future Poul F

Gutesen,2011-05-26 Leaning into the Future seeks to explore what it may mean to believe in the Kingship of God and wait for his Kingdom by considering the fundamental role the Kingdom of God plays in the theology of Jurgen Moltmann and in the book of Revelation Part one is devoted to how Moltmann understands The Kingdom of God as the fundamental symbol of hope for humanity and how he sees the presence of God s reign and kingdom in history as hidden and paradoxical Part two turns to the way the Book of Revelation uses royal and other political language in its portrait of the future and God s presence in history In this second part the book also seeks to explore how Moltmann and the Apocalypse may mutually inform each other how Moltmann may help us read this biblical book today and how it in turn may overcome some of the weaknesses in Moltmann s proposal      The Promise of Heaven Alexander Bless,2005-07 Most Christians are familiar with only a few selected verses of the Bible that are repeated endlessly without much understanding The Promise of Heaven points out the lesser known dark and morbid aspects of the Bible that congregations never hear from religious leaders Alexander Bless asks controversial questions for believers as well as non believers to consider What was God doing before creation If God created everything out of nothing Gen 1 1 did he exist in the middle of nothing Was He the only something in nothing In the flood story God destroyed humans as punishment for their sins Why did He also destroy animals Why did God create humans with all their human failings and then punish them for it Why do you have to fear God How can you love God if you fear Him Curiosity is a natural instinct of mankind that drives it to learn and to progress Paul says in I Corin 13 11 DRB When I was a child I spoke as a child I understood as a child I thought as a child But when I became a man I put away the things of a child
