Promised Land Peasant Rebellion In Chalatenango El Salvador:

Promised Land Jenny Pearce,1986 Promised Land Jenny Pearce,1986-01-01 New Latin American Cinema Michael T. Martin,1997 This volume comprises essays on the development of the New Latin American Cinema as a comparative national project The Emergence of Insurgency in El Salvador Yvon Grenier,2016-07-27 Grenier offers a better understanding of the causes of revolution in El Salvador through an analysis of the central role of ideas and ideologies The insurgency was not merely the charismatic embodiment of structurally determined processes as it is commonly suggested it was the expression of a distinct and forceful political will The focus is placed on the period of emergence of insurgency roughly the 1970s and early 1980s a period too often confounded and not only in the Salvadoran case with subsequent periods of the revolutionary cycle Fifty Years of Peasant Wars in Latin America Leigh Binford,Lesley Gill,Steve Striffler,2020-01-10 Informed by Eric Wolf's Peasant Wars of the Twentieth Century published in 1969 this book examines selected peasant struggles in seven Latin American countries during the last fifty years and suggests the continuing relevance of Wolf's approach The seven case studies are preceded by an Introduction in which the editors assess the continuing relevance of Wolf's political economy The book concludes with Gavin Smith's reflection on reading Eric Wolf as a public intellectual today The Commander's Dilemma Amelia Hoover Green,2018-10-15 Why do some military and rebel groups commit many types of violence creating an impression of senseless chaos whereas others carefully control violence against civilians A classic catch 22 faces the leaders of armed groups and provides the title for Amelia Hoover Green's book Leaders need large groups of people willing to kill and maim but to do so only under strict control How can commanders control violence when fighters who are not under direct supervision experience extraordinary stress fear and anger The Commander's Dilemma argues that discipline is not enough in wartime Restraint occurs when fighters know why they are fighting and believe in the cause that is when commanders invest in political education Drawing on extraordinary evidence about state and nonstate groups in El Salvador and extending her argument to the Mano River wars in Liberia and Sierra Leone Amelia Hoover Green shows that investments in political education can improve human rights outcomes even where rational incentives for restraint are weak and that groups whose fighters lack a sense of purpose may engage in massive violence even where incentives for restraint are strong Hoover Green concludes that high levels of violence against civilians should be considered a default setting not an aberration No Other Way Out Jeff Goodwin,2001-06-04 No Other Way Out provides a powerful explanation for the emergence of popular revolutionary movements and the occurrence of actual revolutions during the Cold War era This sweeping study ranges from Southeast Asia in the 1940s and 1950s to Central America in the 1970s and 1980s and Eastern Europe in 1989 Following in the state centered tradition of Theda Skocpol's States and Social Revolutions and Jack Goldstone's Revolutions and Rebellion in the Early Modern World Goodwin demonstrates how the actions of specific types of authoritarian regimes unwittingly channeled popular resistance into radical and often violent directions Revolution became the only way out to use Trotsky's formulation for the opponents of these intransigent regimes By comparing the historical trajectories of more than a dozen countries Goodwin also shows how revolutionaries were sometimes able to create and not simply exploit opportunities for seizing state power Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson, 2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non-fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson's Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Central America Inside Out Tom Barry, 1991 The essential guide to its societies politics and economies Central America Since Independence Leslie Bethell, 1991-10-25 General chapters on Central America 1821 1870 1870 1930 1930 to the present are followed by chapters on each of the five Central American republics Guatemala El Salvador Nicaragua Honduras Costa Rica since 1930 Excerpted from the Cambridge History of Latin America The Salvador Option Russell Crandall, 2016-05-23 This book offers a thorough and fair minded interpretation of the role of the United States in El Salvador's civil war Seeds of the Kingdom Anna L. Peterson, 2005-11-17 She argues that these rural places geographically and culturally distant from the lives of most people in the industrialized West are relevant to urgent political and environmental problems facing the developed world New American Destinies Darrell Hamamoto, Rodolfo D. Torres, 2012-11-12 The essays gathered here discuss theoretical and policy issues and themes such as the political and economic context of migration job competition labor organizing changing ethnic and race relations immigrant women in the economy and contemporary immigration politics and contribute to our understanding of the historical and contemporary dimensions of Asian and Latino migration in a changing global economy The Politics of Modern Central America Fabrice Lehoucq, 2012-08-27 This book analyzes the origins and consequences of civil war in Central America Fabrice Lehoucq argues that the inability of autocracies to reform themselves led to protest and rebellion throughout the twentieth century and that civil war triggered unexpected transitions to non-military rule by the 1990s He explains how armed conflict led to economic stagnation and why weak states limit democratization outcomes that unaccountable party systems have done little to change This book also uses comparisons among Central American cases both between them and other parts of the developing world to shed light on core debates in comparative politics and comparative political economy This book suggests that the most progress has been made in understanding the persistence of inequality and the nature of political market failures while drawing lessons from the Central American cases to improve explanations of regime change and the outbreak of civil war First Generation June
