Every Promise Fulfilled L. Daniel Hawk, 2009-04-01 The book of Joshua has many inconsistencies and tensions The author's analysis of the two plots in the book of Joshua challenges the reader to consider the tensions between dogma and life as it was experienced when the book was written L Daniel Hawk draws upon contemporary theories of plot Kermode Ricoeur and especially Brooks to understand Joshua He pays special attention to the dynamic quality of the text and of the act of reading He uncovers patterns of coherence and dissonance that work through and develop the primary concerns of Joshua the obedience of Israel and the integrity of its land and people In this valuable book new ground is broken in the study of the book of Joshua

Straight Answers to 35 Tough Questions Gordon Kainer, 2017-07-18 Many years ago Bob Dylan wrote The answer my friend is blowing in the wind but we've learned that really important answers don't come that easily Asking questions is a sign of a healthy growing faith a faith that drives us deeper into God's Word That's the reason God's first question in the Old Testament is Where are you while the first question the wise men ask in the New Testament is Where is He It's been observed that God answers just enough questions to get us through the day while leaving us with enough unanswered questions so we can look forward to learning more tomorrow This book is designed to deal with some of our most difficult questions or troubling issues from a biblical perspective At times it may appear that some questions have no answer or maybe have more than one or perhaps have answers that contradict each other That's one reason we're not only to confront knotty questions but willingly accept God's unraveling answers

Kääriäinen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God
