Promises Performance And Prospects Essays On Political Economy 1980 1998:

Promises, Performance, and Prospects Antonio Martino, 2005 Since 1970 Antonio Martino has authored 13 books and more than 150 papers and articles on economic theory and policy This modern collection of writings is from Martino's practical and theoretical perspective as he has personally encountered many of the economic and political issues presented in these essays Divided into six parts this volume discusses major economic topics such as fiscal responsibility government and over government the underground economy and the failure of governments to deliver on their promises of economic prosperity discretionary monetary policy and the future of freedom and the human flourishing that depends upon it As Dwight Lee comments in his foreword to the volume From Adam Smith to James Buchanan the insights of political economics have been motivated by and illustrated with contemporary concerns that keep recurring in only slightly different guises This is certainly the case with the concerns Martino addresses in his papers Antonio Martino is well known for his classical liberal views having developed his economic opinions as a law student at the University of Messina and then as a student of Milton Friedman at the University of Chicago He is a member of the Mont Pelerin Society served as defense minister of Italy from 2001 to 2006 and was professor of economics at the University of Rome until 2002 Eurozone Politics Philip

Giurlando, 2015-10-23 The crisis of the Eurozone has had a significant impact on the politics of Europe In many countries the euro was largely interpreted by elites as a development that would ameliorate their nations problems However recent events have proven the contrary with the rise of radical right wing politics and populism across the continent This book investigates the politics of the euro with a primary focus on Italy but also with additional chapters on the UK and Germany Using a range of original and secondary data it reconstructs how the euro was interpreted by both elites and non elites from the late nineties to 2010 By recruiting a large sample of non elites it examines perceptions of the euro and the ways in which these views allowed for the justification of painful austerity measures required to enter the Economic and Monetary Union In doing so it sheds light on the ways in which non elites interpret complex political objects like the euro and provides a systemic comparison of the cognitive schema of non elites and elites This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of the European Union European politics Italian politics comparative politics and political economy Policy, 2006 Tasse:

come ci imbrogliano e ci rapinano Cristian Merlo, 2009-11-01 Vi ormai una consapevolezza sempre pi diffusa in merito al fatto che la tassazione un autentico cancro che sta progressivamente corrompendo e non solo in Italia l'economia reale togliendo risorse dal settore produttivo e destinandole ad utilizzi per lo pi parassitari Ma assai meno chiaro ai pi quale siano il senso e la natura del prelievo fiscale in quanto tale che nel corso dell'ultimo secolo cresciuto in maniera esponenziale anche in virt del latitare di un dibattito consapevole su tali temi Spesso associato ad una fatalit che non si pu evitare gli americani amano dire che non vi e di certo a parte la morte e le tasse il prelievo forzoso che la classe politica opera ai danni della societ pare protetto da un tab come se non fosse lecito confrontarsi con la pi grande libert su tale questione Questo particolarmente vero in Italia e non davvero un caso se la nostra Costituzione in ci differente da molte altre esclude la possibilit che i cittadini possano essere chiamati ad esprimersi direttamente grazie a un referendum su qualsiasi legge riguardante un tributo Le lezioni di Cristian Merlo hanno invece il merito di prendere di petto la questione senza inibizioni n freni Con questi brevi testi l autore intende aiutare a colmare proprio un vuoto avviando quindi una riflessione critica sul tema che si propone soprattutto di aumentare la consapevolezza in merito a ci che la tassazione davvero e intorno alle sue logiche

Watson, 2007-07-03 Matthew Watson draws a distinction between the spatial and the functional mobility of capital allowing fresh insights into existing work on the subject whilst repoliticizing the very idea of capital being in motion The dynamics of capital mobility and the patterns of risk exposure are illustrated through four detailed global case studies Human Rights, the Rule of Law, and Development in Africa Paul Tiyambe Zeleza, Philip J. McConaughay, 2011-06-07 Changes in human rights environments in Africa over the past decade have been facilitated by astounding political transformations the rise of mass movements and revolts driven by democratic and developmentalist ideals as well as mass murder and poverty perpetuated by desperate regimes and discredited global agencies Human Rights the Rule of Law and Development in Africa seeks to make sense of human rights in Africa through the lens of its triumphs and tragedies its uneven developments and complex demands The volume makes a significant contribution to the debate about the connections between the protection of human rights and the pursuit of economic development by interrogating the paradigms politics and practices of human rights in Africa Throughout the essays emphasize that democratic and human rights regimes are products of concrete social struggles not simply textual or legal discourses Including some of Africa s leading scholars jurists and human rights activists contributors to the volume diverge from Western theories of African democratization by rejecting the continental view of an Africa blighted by failure disease and economic malaise It argues instead that Africa has strengthened and shaped international law such as the right to self determination inspired by the process of decolonization and the definition of the refugee Insisting on the holistic view that human rights are as much about economic and social rights as they are about civil and political rights the contributors offer novel analyses of African conceptions experiences and aspirations of human rights which manifest themselves in complex global regional and local idioms Further they explore the varied constructions of human rights in African and Western discourses and the roles played by states and NGOs in promoting or subverting human rights Combining academic analysis with social concern intellectual discourse with civic engagement and scholarly research with institution building this is a compelling and original approach to the question whether externally inspired solutions to

African human rights issues have validity in a postcolonial world Globalization Biplab Dasgupta,2005-07-21 This book is a cogent appraisal of India s economic reforms by a prominent Leftist commentator It first discusses the economic perspectives of various international and multilateral agencies as also of multinational companies It then analyses the policies affecting and performance of various sectors of the economy agrarian industrial banking and monetary state owned enterprises fiscal trade environmental and labour

Why Nations Fail to Feed the Poor Mohammad Mozahidul Islam,2022-10-06 This book examines the political and economic dimensions of food security in Bangladesh and assesses the role of the state in meeting the challenges of food security The key concern which is at the heart of this study is to explore how Bangladesh responds when its people go hungry There are no detailed empirical studies that examine the Bangladesh s role by providing an historical cum political analysis however conventional approaches are primarily concerned with a partial diagnosis of the economic or nutritional problems of food security The book then provides a detailed picture of the missing dimensions of state that include the strength of institutions the scope of state functions and other important attributes In doing so it uses the concept of neo patrimonialism to explore the political system of Bangladesh This book explicates the various impediments to food security ranging from the process of policy formulation to their implementation mechanisms It unpacks the structural weaknesses of the Bangladesh s institutional capacity in promoting food security and in the process argues that the root cause of food insecurity is deeply embedded in the nature of the government itself and the political institutions that link the state and society

Public Management and Sustainable Development in Nigeria Robert Dibie,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003 How was public policy and economic development in Nigeria affected under the period of military control between 1966 and 1999 What is the nature and scale of change that Nigeria will have to undergo in order to achieve its current development goals Initially providing a history of Nigeria along with a framework for understanding the nature scope and magnitude of the military and public management problems within the country this timely and rewarding book addresses both of these questions It analyzes the institutions that make and implement public policy in the Nigerian political arena and examines the route that Nigeria could take in order to enhance its public management capacities Although the specific focus is on Nigeria the mode of analysis used is transferable to a wide variety of developing nations The book will foster an understanding among scholars development planners military officers and policy makers of the tasks and challenges facing Nigeria and many sub Saharan African nations in the twenty first century

International Water Treaties Shlomi Dinar,2007-12-13 As demand for fresh water rises together with population water scarcity already features on the national security agenda of many countries In this book Dinar develops a theory to explain solutions to property rights conflicts over shared rivers Through systematic analysis of available treaty texts corresponding side payment and cost sharing patterns are gleaned Geographic and economic variables are used to explain recurring property rights outcomes Rather than focusing on a specific river or particular geographic region the book analyzes numerous rivers dictated by the large number of treaty observations and is able to test several hypotheses devising general conclusions about the manner in which states resolve their water disputes Policy implications are thereby also gained While the book simultaneously considers conflict and cooperation along international rivers it is the focus on negotiated agreements and their embodied side payment and cost sharing regimes that justifies the use of particular independent variables Doing Business in Emerging

Markets Sudhir Rana,Avinash K. Shrivastava,2021-09-27 This volume presents a comprehensive analysis of the business financial and economic aspects of emerging markets Using case studies from India Turkey Bangladesh and Africa it discusses themes such as megaprojects infrastructure and sustainability cross border mergers and acquisitions a new paradigm for educational markets exports competitiveness work engagement in service sector mobile banking and crowdfunding and venture capital flow into emerging economies to focus on the trade foreign investment financial and social progress of these economies The chapters review the current state learnings changing scenarios business practices and financial and economic perspectives across emerging markets while examining progression challenges and the way forward With its rigorous approach and topical content this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of management studies business management financial management business economics international business finance and marketing development studies and economics It will also interest policymakers and practitioners in the field African Frontiers John Idriss Lahai,Tanya Lyons,2016-03-23 Through a multidisciplinary approach African Frontiers counters the superficial Eurocentric and gender insensitive dominant discursive representation of Africa within the discourse of war and conflict management and security and peace nation building The chapters historicize and theorize the realities in postcolonial African states and the ramifications on the continents future Situating the study within the context of the prevailing cultural and geo political realities in the postcolonial African states the chapters illustrate the complex ways in which events and processes are experienced at the local level and how these local realities in turn impact and shape the patterns of political and military engagement in Africa and beyond Organized along three major themes Insurgency governance and peacebuilding expert researchers from around the world contribute chapters on Rebel and insurgent formations such as the RUF the LRA and Boko Haram state governance and corruption terrorism and counter terrorism security and peacebuilding focussing on the tensions and challenges facing post conflict societies such as Sierra Leone Rwanda and the newest nation state on the continent South Sudan This highly significant and topical study problematizes the impact of wars on African nations as well as the epistemological framing of the local realities and fallouts of armed conflict on post colonial states From Reversal of Fortune to Economic Resurgence Banji Oyelaran-Oyeyinka,Oyebanke Abejirin,2024-11-05 This book examines Nigeria Africa s largest economy and most populous country and Asia in comparative development and sectoral perspectives We traced the divergent growth in wealth between the two regions It takes a novel approach of matching key growth sectors across five selected Asian countries and Nigeria in a cross regional context We found that state and institutional capabilities underlying the generation and diffusion of industrial and technological knowledge in Asia distinguished it from Africa We employ quantitative and qualitative methods including case studies and statistical econometric methods to analyze factors that separate the sample countries that made rapid economic progress in catching up and those that tend to be stagnating and falling behind Progress made by Asian countries over the last five decades was due in large part to their pursuit of industrialization technological acquisition underpinned by leadership good governance and policies in the right institutional contexts The four Asian countries compared with Nigeria are Indonesia Malaysia South Korea Vietnam and Bangladesh There was not one grand development formula however the strategy broadly consisted of industrial vertical diversification as well as horizontal diversification in agriculture Building industrial capabilities that enable export competitiveness was critical Again while leadership is not usually included in factors of growth the book devotes a chapter to Leadership and Industrialization and another to State Capacity Industrialization and Economic Growth African countries on the contrary took the low road in exporting minerals and raw agricultural commodities with little value addition in the process Africa experienced a reversal of fortune The African condition is manifestly a Reversal of Fortune because in the 1950s they were ahead of or equal to Asia in per capita income as well as in other development metrics We carried out empirical measurement of Reversal of Fortune manifested in economic social technological and industrial conditions by analyzing the disparities in development metrics particularly the levels and rates of growth of national incomes industrialization rates and Human Development Index HDI The differences are stark

Handbook of Research on Ethnic Minority

Entrepreneurship Leo Paul Dana, 2007 Professor Dana and his colleagues have carefully and successfully put together a collection of chapters on ethnic minority entrepreneurship from all parts of the world The book comprises eight parts and 49 chapters Undoubtedly given the massive size and content of a 835 page book it is fair to ask is it value for money The answer is unequivocally yes A further comment on the content of the book should probably reassure potential readers and buyers of the book This collection is undoubtedly rich creative and varied in many respects Therefore it will be of great benefit to researchers and scholars alike I will strongly recommend this book to researchers students teachers and policy makers Aminu Mamman International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research The volume presents an impressive panorama of studies on ethnic entrepreneurs ranging from Dalits in India to Roma entrepreneurs in Hungary B P Corrie Choice From a focus on middle man minorities in the 1950s the study of minority ethnic entrepreneurship has evolved into a vast undertaking A major ingredient in this expansion is the massive population movements of the past thirty years that have created ethnic minority communities in almost all advanced economies From New York to San Francisco from Birmingham to Hamburg from the Chinese in Canada to the Turks in Finland to the Ghanians in South Africa to the Lebanese in New Zealand more than twenty chapters in this volume treat small scale ethnic entrepreneurship and the cultural and institutional resources which support it At the other end of the spectrum the ethnic Chinese have created ever larger multi divisional enterprises in the host societies of Southeast Asia At the mid point of the spectrum analyzed in an elegant paper by Ivan Light is the recently identified transmigrant entrepreneur accultured in two societies but assimilated in neither whose special endowments have provided the lynchpin for for much of the international trade expansion in the global economy over the past decade And Dana and Morris provide us with much more Afro American entrepreneurship caste and class the theory of clubs women ethnic entrepreneurs minority ethnicity and IPOs In the quality of its contributions and in the reach of its coverage this Handbook attains a very high standard Peter Kilby Wesleyan University US The new Handbook of Research on Ethnic Minority Entrepreneurship edited by L o Paul Dana constitutes a major contribution to the literature on ethnic enterprise Unlike previous work which tended to focus on one country or one region of the world this book is global in scope You will find chapters on America Europe and Asia as well as integrative essays that review important principles and concepts from the literature on ethnic entrepreneurship I particularly appreciate the historical and evolutionary framework within which the contributions are situated This book belongs on the shelf of everyone who has an interest in immigration and entrepreneurship or ethnic entrepreneurship more generally Howard Aldrich University of North Carolina US This exhaustive interdisciplinary Handbook explores the phenomena of immigration and ethnic minority entrepreneurship in light of marked changes since the mid twentieth century and the advent of easier more affordable travel and more open and integrated national economies The international contributors key experts in their respective fields illustrate that myriad ethnic minorities exist across the globe and that their entrepreneurship can and does significantly influence national economies The contributors go on to promote our understanding of which factors make for successful entrepreneurship and perhaps more importantly how negative political consequences that members of successful entrepreneurial ethnic minorities might face can be minimized This extensive collection of current research on entrepr

The SAGE Handbook of the Sociology of Religion James A Beckford, Jay Demerath, 2007-10-29 In their introduction to this Handbook the editors affirm Many sociologists have come to realise that it makes no sense now to omit religion from the repertoire of social scientific explanations of social life I wholeheartedly agree I also suggest that this wide ranging set of essays should become a starting point for such enquiries Each chapter is clear comprehensive and well structured making the Handbook a real asset for all those engaged in the field Grace Davie University of Exeter Serious social scientists who care about making sense of the world can no longer ignore the fact that religious beliefs and practices are an important part of this world This Handbook is a valuable resource for specialists and amateurs alike The editors have done an exceptionally fine job of incorporating topics that illuminate the range and diversity of religion and its continuing significance throughout the world Robert Wuthnow Princeton University At a time when religions are increasingly affecting and affected by life beyond the narrowly sacred sphere religion everywhere seems to be caught up in change and conflict In the midst of this contention and confusion the sociology of religion provides a rich source of understanding and explanation This Handbook presents an unprecedentedly comprehensive assessment of the field both where it has been and where it is headed Like its many distinguished contributors its topics and their coverage are truly global in their reach The Handbook s 35 chapters are organized into eight sections basic theories and debates methods of studying religion social forms and experiences of religion issues of power and control in religious organizations religion and politics individual religious behaviour in social context religion self identity and the life course and case studies of China Eastern Europe Israel Japan and Mexico Each chapter establishes benchmarks for the state of sociological thinking about religion in the 21st century and provides a rich bibliography for pursuing its subject further Overall the Handbook stretches the field conceptually methodologically comparatively and historically An indispensable source of guidance and insight for both students and scholars Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2009
