Good Governance and Civil Society Participation in Africa Organization for Social Science Research in Eastern and Southern Africa, Ossrea, 2008-12-31 governments and the public at large Book Jacket

State and Economic Development in Africa Aaron Tesfaye, 2017-07-20 This book critically assesses the impact of Ethiopia's policy of Agriculture Development Led Industrialization Employing qualitative and quantitative analysis it presents empirical evidence suggesting persistent economic growth The research highlights improvements in infrastructure health care education poverty alleviation as well reductions in infant mortality rate The impact of this economic growth has however had led to only slight improvements in the plight of the poor The author argues that while significant steps have been achieved with measurable economic gains there are still undeniable obstacles within the federal system prevailing patron client relationships constraints on state capacity to efficiently and effectively implement policy and bureaucratic rent seeking in the provision of public goods The author concludes that these problems will have to be resolved before Ethiopia's political economy can achieve the stage of sustainable development

Challenges and Opportunities for Inclusive Development in Ethiopia Dessalegn Rahmato, Meheret Ayenew, 2018-12-29 As part of its on going public dialogue program on progress in Ethiopia's development and public policy the Forum for Social Studies is undertaking a project of research and public dialogue on a number of selected topics on the theme of Prospects and Challenges for Inclusive and Participatory Development in Ethiopia The aim is to enable researchers and professionals to present evidence based papers to stimulate debate and reflection This first book in the program looks at the impact of development or lack of it on specific social groups namely women young people and vulnerable groups that should be entitled to decent social care

Decentralization in Ethiopia Taye Assefa, Tegegne Gebre-Egziabher, 2007 The 1991 government change in Ethiopia ushered in a centralised system of governance aimed to bring about harmony and cooperation between different groups and to promote local self rule It has proceeded in two phases 1991-2001 centred on creating and powering National Regional Governments termed mid level decentralisation Further powers were devolved in 2001 through the District Level Decentralization Program and Urban Management Program This volume brings together studies by the Forum for Social Studies and others with the aim of identifying knowledge gaps for further research and to generate debate on the issues in Ethiopia The study is in two parts a literature review seeking to document existing studies and highlight research gaps and field work which involved a rapid assessment of eight weredas and two kifle ketemas in Addis Ababa The other three studies are synopses of master theses submitted to the Institute of Regional and Local Development Studies of Addis Ababa University

Protecting Minority Rights in African Countries John M. Mbaku, 2018-01-26 In this enlightening book John Mukum Mbaku analyses the main challenges of constitutional design and the construction of governance institutions in Africa today He argues that the central issues are providing each country with a constitutional order that is capable of successfully managing sectarian conflict and enhancing peaceful coexistence protecting the rights of citizens including those of minorities minimizing the monopolization of political space by the majority to the detriment of minorities and effectively preventing government impunity Mbaku offers a comprehensive analysis of various approaches to the management of diversity and shows how these approaches can inform Africa's struggle to promote peace and good governance He explores in depth the existence of dysfunctional and anachronistic laws and institutions inherited from the colonial state and the process through which laws and institutions are formulated or constructed adopted and amended A close look at the constitutional experiences of the American Republic provides important lessons for constitutional design and constitutionalism in Africa Additionally comparative politics and comparative constitutional law also provide important lessons for the management of diversity in African countries Mbaku recommends state reconstruction through constitutional design as a way for each African country to provide itself with laws and institutions that reflect the realities of each country including the necessary mechanisms and tools for the protection of the rights of minorities From students and scholars to NGOs lawyers and policymakers this unique and judicious book is an essential tool for all those seeking to understand and improve governance and development in Africa

A Decade of Human Security David R. Black, 2016-03-03 Human security has been advanced as an alternative to traditional state based conceptualizations of security yet controversies about the use and abuse of the concept remain Investigating innovations in the advancement of the human security agenda over the past decade this book identifies themes and processes around which consensus for future policy action might be built It considers the ongoing debates regarding the human security agenda explores prospects and projects for the advancement of human security addresses issues of human security as emerging forms of new multilateralisms and examines claims that human security is being undermined by US unilateralisms This comprehensive volume explores the theoretical debate surrounding human security and details the implications for practical application It will prove ideal for students of international relations security studies and development studies

Insiders and Outsiders Francis B. Nyamnjoh, 2013-07-04 This study of xenophobia and how it both exploits and excludes is an incisive commentary on a globalizing world and its consequences for ordinary people's lives Using the examples of Sub-Saharan Africa's two most economically successful nations it meticulously documents the fate of immigrants and the new politics of insiders and outsiders As globalization becomes a palpable reality citizenship sociality and belonging are subjected to stresses to which few societies have devised a civil response beyond yet more controls

Modernising Traditions and Traditionalising Modernity in Africa Nyamnjoh, Francis B., 2015-09-23 Chieftaincy in Africa has displayed remarkable dynamics and adaptability to new socio economic and political developments without becoming totally transformed in the process Almost everywhere on the continent chieftdoms and chiefs have become active agents in the quest for ethnic cultural symbols as a way of maximising opportunities at the centre of bureaucratic and state power and at the home village where control over land and labour often require both financial and symbolic capital Chieftaincy remains central to ongoing efforts at developing democracy and accountability in line with the expectations of Africans as individual citizens and also as subjects of various cultural communities This book uses Cameroon and Botswana as case studies to argue that the rigidity and prescriptiveness of modernist partial theories have left a major gap in scholarship on chiefs and chieftaincy in Africa It stresses that studies of domesticated agency in Africa are sorely needed to capture the creative ongoing processes and to avoid over emphasising structures and essentialist perceptions on chieftaincy and the cultural communities that claim and are claimed by it

Rights and the Politics of Recognition in Africa Harri Englund, Francis B. Nyamnjoh, 2004-09-18
