Promoting Unity Themes In Lutheran Catholic Dialogue:

Promoting Unity Hugh George Anderson, 1989 Promoting Unity Hugh George Anderson, 1989 Justification by Faith in Catholic-Protestant Dialogue Anthony N. S. Lane, 2006-08-15 In this assessment of the recent Catholic Protestant dialogue concerning the doctrine of justification Anthony Lane begins by discussing traditional Protestant doctrine with close reference to Calvin and traditional Catholic doctrine with close reference to the Council of Trent He goes on to examine eight key documents from Hans Kung's Justification 1957 to the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification 1999 Fifteen key theological issues are then explored These include the status of theological language used by Catholics and Evangelicals the definition of justification the grounds on which a person is accounted righteous the question of sin remaining in the Christian whether faith alone can save the relationship between law and gospel the question of merit and reward the assurance of salvation and finally a discussion on the Roman Magisterium and current Evangelical responses to recent changes in Catholic theology In conclusion Anthony Lane discusses the extent to which any agreement or convergence of thinking has been achieved and its future significance Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology Lorelei F. Fuchs, 2008 The word koinonia has gained prominence in recent ecumenical discussions In this original and substantial work Lorelei Fuchs proposes the theological idea of koinonia commonly translated as communion or fellowship as the key to moving fractured churches toward a future unity Fuchs challenges churches to move beyond mere dialogue and to apply ecumenical insights at the local level She begins by relating the exegetical meaning of koinonia to its ecumenical meaning tracing the place of koinonia both within the churches and between the churches She then examines the concept of koinonia in the extensive and fruitful dialogues that have taken place between Lutherans Anglicans and Roman Catholics finally articulating a symbolic competence for communality that provides a rich and workable way forward for church unity at all levels Encompassing the latest in ecumenical thought Koinonia and the Quest for an Ecumenical Ecclesiology provides a broad thoughtful framework for realizing Christ's prayer that all may be one so that the world may believe Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483-1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations

Cruciform Ecumenism Elizabeth Smith Woodard, 2019-09-06 The truth claims of Christianity appear compromised by the division of Christ's followers into different denominations What keeps Christians separated retreating to their corners labeled Catholic Orthodox and various types of Protestant Elizabeth Smith Woodard accounts for Christian disunity in terms of ecclesiology episcopacy and apostolicity in brief Who are we Who is in charge And are we who we say we are Woodard argues that the controversial issues dividing Christians today stem from these questions of authority and identity What would it look like Woodard asks if Christians did not insist on making others more like us but instead worked toward all of us becoming more and more like Christ She answers that growing in such cruciformity should serve as the basis for unity Using recent unity achieving Anglican Lutheran discussions as a case study she examines the crucial intersection of ecclesiology episcopacy and apostolicity to argue that Christians growth in Christ's mission necessarily entails growing in unity and cruciformity

Mapping the Differentiated Consensus of the Joint Declaration Jakob Karl Rinderknecht, 2016-10-12
This book uses the insights of cognitive linguistics to argue for the possibility of differentiated consensus between separated churches The Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification signed by the Lutheran World Federation and the Roman Catholic Church in 1999 represents the high water mark of the twentieth century ecumenical movement It declares that the sixteenth century condemnations related to justification do not condemn the teachings of the partner church Some critics reject the agreement arguing that a consensus that is differentiated is not actually a consensus In this book Jakob Karl Rinderknecht shows that mapping the cognitive blends that structure meaning can reveal underlying agreement within apparent theological contradictions He traces Lutheran and Catholic positions on sin in the baptized especially the Lutheran simul iustus et peccator and the Catholic insistence that concupiscence in the baptized is not sin He demonstrates that the JDDJ reconciles these positions and therefore that a truly differentiated consensus is possible Ecumenism: A Guide for the Perplexed R. David Nelson, Charles Raith II, 2017-07-27 Ecumenism A Guide for the Perplexed is a comprehensive introduction to the methods achievements and future prospects of the modern ecumenical movement The authors begin the volume by charting out a serviceable definition of ecumenism a term that has long been a source of confusion for students of theology and church history They review the chronology of the modern ecumenical movement and highlight the major events figures accomplishments and impasses This historical survey is followed by critical examinations of three significant challenges for contemporary ecumenical theology and practice Along the way the authors provide commentary upon the difficulties and prospects that the ecumenical movement might anticipate as it enters this new millennium A History of Lutheranism Eric W. Gritsch, In a clear nontechnical way this noted Reformation historian tells the story of how the nascent reforming and confessional movement sparked and led by Martin Luther survived its first battles with religious and political authorities to become institutionalized in its religious practices and teachings Gritsch then traces the emergence of genuine consensus at the end of the sixteenth century followed by the age of Lutheran Orthodoxy the great Pietist reaction

Lutheranism's growing diversification during the Industrial Revolution its North American expansion and its increasingly global and ecumenical ventures in the last century Agreeable Agreement Minna Hietamäki, 2011-10-20 In recent bilateral ecumenical dialogue the aim of the dialogue has been to reach some form of doctrinal consensus The three major chapters of the book discuss the variety of forms of doctrinal consensus found in ecumenical dialogues among Anglicans Lutherans and Roman Catholics In general the dialogue documents argue for agreement consensus based on commonality or compatibility Each of the three dialogue processes has specific characteristics and formulates its argument in a unique way The Lutheran Roman Catholic dialogue has a particular interest in hermeneutical questions and proposes various forms of differentiated or perspectival forms of consensus The Anglican Roman Catholic dialogue emphasises the correctness of interpretations The documents consciously look towards a common future not the separated past Hierarchy, Unity, and

Imitation Joseph A. Marchal, 2006 By Faith Alone Joseph A. Burgess, Marc Kolden, 2004-03-22 The Lutheran confessions call the doctrine of justification by faith alone the chief article of the Christian faith Clarifying and defending this article of faith have been the major concern of Lutheran theologians since the sixteenth century It is not surprising then that one of today's most prominent Lutheran thinkers Gerhard O Forde has chosen to devote most of his career to probing the depths and developing the implications of the doctrine of justification And as this volume aptly indicates Forde's teaching and publications his public lectures and sermons and his influence on ecumenical scholarship and debate constitute one of the most important contributions to a theological understanding of justification in the second half of the twentieth century By Faith Alone celebrates Professor Forde's distinguished career but it also goes well beyond by offering a sustained and serious engagement with his theological motif Written by twenty theologians from seven countries and several different Christian communions the book provides a full-orbed cutting-edge discussion of the doctrine of justification from a wide range of perspectives The first set of essays explores the theological foundations of the doctrine of justification The next set examines some key moments in the doctrine's historical development as well as its ecumenical trajectory The last set of essays asks how the doctrine of justification applies to church life today including such ecclesiastical concerns as preaching and pastoral care A rich collection of lively and profound thinking By Faith Alone is an ideal resource for teachers preachers church leaders and all those pursuing a deeper understanding of Christian belief Contributors C FitzSimons Allison Oswald Bayer Robert Bertram Joseph A Burgess Avery Cardinal Dulles S J Reginald H Fuller Leif Grane Roy A Harrisville Scott Hendrix Robert Kolb Marc Kolden George Lindbeck Inge Lønning James Arne Nestingen John H Rodgers Jr Klaus Schwarzweller Jane E

Strohl George H Tavad Timothy J Wengert Vtor Westhelle A More Radical Gospel Gerhard O. Forde, 2017-01-01 Gerhard O Forde has stood at the forefront of Lutheran thought for most of his career This new collection of essays and sermons many previously unpublished makes Forde s powerful theological vision more widely available The book aptly captures Forde s deep Lutheran commitment Here he argues that the most important task of theology is to serve the proclamation of the gospel as discerned on the basis of the doctrine of justification by grace alone through faith alone For Forde the doctrine of justification is not one topic among other theological topics rather it is the criterion that guides all theology and ministry Throughout the book Forde applies this truth to issues of eschatology authority atonement and ecumenism Also included are seven insightful sermons that model the Lutheran approach to proclamation A Discourse Analysis of Philippians Jeffrey Reed, 1997-02-01 This large scale work is the application of modern theories of discourse analysis to questions of Greek grammar especially with respect to the debate over the literary integrity of Philippians Chapter 1 introduces the linguistic theory of discourse analysis defining key terms sketching its historical evolution and outlining its major tenets Chapter 2 sets forth a model of discourse analysis primarily based on the systemic functional theories of M A K Halliday Chapter 3 outlines the historical critical debate over the literary integrity of Philippians Chapter 4 inspects the genre of Philippians challenging rhetorical approaches to the text and proposing instead an epistolary classification viz personal hortatory letter Chapter 5 focuses on the discourse structure of the letter investigating its use of ideational interpersonal and textual functions of Hellenistic Greek In chapter 6 relevant issues of biblical hermeneutics are addressed The Essential Forde Gerhard O. Forde, 2019-07-02 No twentieth century American understood Luther s law gospel distinction better than Gerhard O Forde who was professor of theology at Luther Theological Seminary in Saint Paul Minnesota Because Forde kept this Lutheran distinction razor sharp his theological writings are an essential inheritance for us today This volume The Essential Forde aims to provide the essence of Forde s writing centered upon Luther s and Scripture s essential distinction that is the distinction between law and gospel The editors of this volume have chosen some of the most definitive writings of the renowned Gerhad Forde whose influence continues to grow The list of works trace the contours of Forde s theological argument Organized around Law and Gospel the selections start off with some historical background on that doctrinal locus but for the most part express Forde s own views of the law and the gospel including death and resurrection the bondage of the will good works preaching and the sacraments Besides these essential writings the book will provide a definitive introduction by the editors which includes a brief biography of Forde an essay regarding his doctrinal interpretation and a sketch of the Forde legacy Also contained in the volume will be a comprehensive bibliography of all of Forde s published works plus work published about him Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation Mark A. Lamport, 2017-08-31 The Encyclopedia of Martin Luther and the Reformation is a comprehensive global study of the life and work of Martin Luther and the movements that followed him in history and through today Organized by a stellar advisory board of Luther and Reformation scholars the encyclopedia features nearly five hundred entries that examine Luther's life and impact worldwide. The two volume set provides overviews of basics such as the 95 Theses as well as more complex topics such as reformational distinctions. Entries explore Luther's contributions to theology, sacraments, his influence on the church and contemporaries, his character and more. The work also discusses Luther's controversies and topics such as gender, sexuality and race. Publishing at the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation, this is an essential reference work for understanding the Reformation and its legacy today. A Reformed, Evangelical, Catholic Theology Alan P.F. Sell, 1998-05-13

The story of twentieth century theology remains incomplete, writes author Sell, if due attention is not paid to the Christian ecumenical bodies and their theological work. He has therefore compiled this theological history of the World Alliance of Churches, the first detailed analysis of the theological contribution of any major Christian world communion.

Resurrection in the New Testament Jan Lambrecht, 2002. Resurrection in the New Testament is a Festschrift offered to J. Lambrecht on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday. Among the many scholarly interests of Professor Lambrecht, the theme of the resurrection seemed best suited to honour his academic achievement. The 27 contributions cover many of the books of the New Testament. The first two articles in this volume discuss influences on the New Testament treatment of resurrection from the Greco-Roman Dieter Zeller and Jewish Daniel J. Harrington. H. J. de Jonge considers visionary experiences of the Old Testament as an interpretive clue for understanding New Testament references to appearances. The articles by Martin Rese, Benoit Standaert, Otfried Hofius and Gergely Juhasz deal with interpretive questions that range through several books of the New Testament and to varying degrees again bring into discussion previously debated issues. From this point, with the exception of the final two, the articles appear in canonical order: Adelbert Denaux and Wim J. C. Weren treat issues in Matthew; John Gillman in Luke; Acts; Maarten J. J. Menken and Thomas Soding in John; John J. Kilgallen and Florence Morgan Gillman in Acts; Veronica Koperski, Margaret E. Thrall and Johan S. Vos in the Pauline letters in general; Morna D. Hooker and Eduard Lohse in Romans; Joel Delobel and Peter J. Tomson in 1 Corinthians; Frank J. Matera in 2 Corinthians; John Reumann in Philippians; Raymond F. Collins in the Pastoral Epistles; and Jacques Schlosser in 1 Peter. Joseph Verheyden discusses the witness of Mary Magdalene and the Women at the tomb in the extra-canonical Gospel of Peter. Finally, Barbara Baert contributes a discussion on how the Resurrection was portrayed in visual art during the Middle Ages, with striking illustrative examples.

The Letter to the Philippians G. Walter Hansen, 2009-10-05. In this commentary G. Walter Hansen offers rich exposition of the text of Philippians as well as wisdom and maturity in its application. In so doing, he emphasizes partnership, the social and corporate dimensions of community in the progress of the gospel. After a select bibliography, Hansen's introduction sets forth the historical setting of the church in Philippi, the nature and occasion of the letter, and a preview of two key themes: the gospel of Christ and the community in Christ. The commentary itself discusses Philippians in light of these themes, considering Paul's greetings, reports of gospel ministry, imperatives for citizens worthy of the gospel recommendations of two Christ like servants and disclosures of his personal experience Hansen s treatment as a whole is distinctive for the way it draws out and highlights the themes of partnership citizenship and friendship in Paul s Philippian letter With themes and emotions so varied the letter to the Philippians needs a commentator with a sure grasp and a warm heart Hansen writes with admirable clarity and simplicity even when he is unpacking notoriously complex matters D A Carson from the preface
