

Chapter 1

At 8 A.M., Alan left his flat, walking—practically tip-toeing—down the hallway so as not to offend any of his neighbours. ~~He~~ he heard a very loud television coming from 3F, but ~~apart from otherwise~~ that the entire floor seemed to be sleeping. The quietude pleased him. ~~The~~ dearth of people hanging around the elevators also comforted him. He looked forward to speaking with Chloe, ~~whom she~~ worked at the shop.

It was a beautiful morning for the grim north of England, with the very million sun reflecting off ~~of~~ the large windows of the apartments, reminding Alan of marmalade on toast. The reminder led him to make the decision that he would buy some marmalade. ~~He~~ he told ~~himself this self~~ that it was ~~sure show~~ to cheer him up; it would do the trick. He got to Barb's shop and was mildly dis-gruntled by the fact ~~that~~ the shop had yet to open. ~~Chloe should really be her own~~ all ready, he thought to ~~himself this self~~. He stood outside patiently, hoping that they had some marmalade in stock. Hearing the pattering of ~~concocting on coming~~ footsteps, Alan looked up hopefully. On the ~~upside plus side~~, it was Barbara, the shop's owner. On the down-side, it was not Chloe.

'Sorry, Al, love. It's been chaos this morning. Let me open up and I'll get ~~too~~ you as soon as I can. How long have you been stood here?' ~~Not~~ long I hope.' Barbara prattled on, Alan did his best to mask his disappointment.

'No, not long.' ~~He~~ he said, following her into the little corner shop. '~~Just~~ got here really,' he told ~~here~~ as she busied around turning on lights. The shutters never came up due to thievery and vandals ~~repeatedly~~ breaking the windows, ~~repeatedly~~ which left the shop dark ~~except for except~~ the strip light above them.

'Oh good, good,' Barbara mumbled, stepping up to the till, her fluffy grey hair wind-swept and messy.

'So...' Alan started, 'no Chloe this morning?' he asked. ~~(Trying to project his voice in a use-less attempt to sound more like a man than a mouse.~~

'Oh, that stupid girl. ~~She~~ she was meant ~~too~~ be opening for me but called in sick. Any road, how can I help you, love?' Barbara asked. ~~(Looking at him with a big, ridiculous smile on her ancient, leathery face. Not Chloe at all.~~

Alan held back a sigh. 'Have you got any marmalade, Barb?' ~~he said.~~
