Harold Dwight Lasswell, 1969-08-15 Harold Lasswell is one of America's most distinguished political scientists a man whose work has had enormous impact both in the United States and abroad upon not only his own field but also those of sociology psychology and psychiatry economics law anthropology and communications This collection of essays is the first full scale effort to deal with the voluminous writings of Lasswell and explore his at once charming and baffling personality which is perhaps inseparable from the inventiveness unconventionality and unusual scope of his work The authors of these essays many of whom are former students or collaborators view their subject from a variety of perspectives What emerges is a full assessment of Lasswell's many faceted contribution to the social scholarship of his time      A New Deal for the World

Elizabeth Borgwardt, 2007-09-30 In a work of sweeping scope and luminous detail Elizabeth Borgwardt describes how a cadre of World War II American planners inaugurated the ideas and institutions that underlie our modern international human rights regime Borgwardt finds the key in the 1941 Atlantic Charter and its Anglo American vision of war and peace aims

The Sociology of War and Violence Siniša Malešević, 2010-06-10 War is a highly complex and dynamic form of social conflict This book demonstrates the importance of using sociological tools to understand the changing character of war and organised violence The author offers an original analysis of the historical and contemporary impact that coercion and warfare have on the transformation of social life and vice versa Although war and violence were decisive components in the formation of modernity most analyses tend to shy away from the sociological study of the gory origins of contemporary social life In contrast this book brings the study of organised violence to the fore by providing a wide ranging sociological analysis that links classical and contemporary theories with specific historical and geographical contexts Topics covered include violence before modernity warfare in the modern age nationalism and war war propaganda battlefield solidarity war and social stratification gender and organised violence and the new wars debate      Disobedience and Conspiracy in the

German Army, 1918-1945 Robert B. Kane, 2008-04-24 This work examines among other topics the personal oath of loyalty that the officers of the German army swore to Adolf Hitler on August 2 1934 It discusses how the majority of officers those who did not become conspirators against him complied with Hitler's orders until May 1945 despite his cruel treatment of soldiers militarily unsound strategy and tactics and the widespread destruction and crimes he and his forces committed The oath taken by the officers had a strong psychological effect among a proud corps with a long history of obedience and honor They followed Hitler to the end even though they knew they were fighting a losing battle The author also examines why and how only a few officers the conspirators began to break away lose trust in Hitler oppose him and finally stage an assassination attempt This history traces the development within the German army from 1918 of the philosophies of loyalty and disloyalty and obedience and disobedience as challenged by the Hitlerian oath of loyalty      Research on International
