Properties Of Writing:

Writing in Focus Florian Coulmas, Konrad Ehlich, 2011-07-22 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language. The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages. It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints. High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing.

Handbook of Writing Research, Construction Specifications Writing Mark Kalin, Robert S. Weygant, Harold J. Rosen, John R. Regener, 2011-09-13 Updated edition of the comprehensive rulebook to the specifier's craft. With this latest update Construction Specifications Writing Sixth Edition continues to claim distinction as the foremost text on construction specifications. This mainstay in the field offers comprehensive practical and professional guidance to understanding the purposes and processes for preparation of construction specifications. This new edition uses real world document examples that reflect current writing practices shaped by the well established principles and requirements of major professional associations including the American Institute of Architects AIA, the Engineers Joint Contract Documents Committee EJCDC and the Construction Specifications Institute CSI. Also included are guidelines for correct terminology, product selection, organization of specifications according to recognized CSI formats and practical techniques for document production. Fully revised throughout, this Sixth Edition includes Updates to MasterFormat 2004 as well as SectionFormat, PageFormat 2007 and Unifomat. End of chapter questions and specification writing exercises. Samples of the newly updated construction documents from the AIA. New chapter on sustainable design and specifications for LEED projects. Updated information on the role of specifications in Building Information Modeling BIM.

The Science of Writing C. Michael Levy, Sarah Ransdell, 2013-11-05 Conceived as the successor to Gregg and Steinberg's Cognitive Processes in Writing, this book takes a multidisciplinary approach to writing research. The authors describe their current thinking and data in such a way that readers in psychology, English education and linguistics will find it readable and stimulating. It should serve as a resource book of theory, tools and techniques and applications that should stimulate and guide the field for the next decade. The chapters showcase approaches taken by active researchers in eight countries. Some of these researchers have published widely in their native language but little of their work has appeared in English language publications.
