Property, Women and Politics Donna L. Dickenson, 1997-10-13 Although many feminist authors have pointed out the ways in which women have been property they have been less successful in suggesting how women might become the subjects rather than the objects of property holding Property Women and Politics Subjects or Objects considers the relationship between women and property from a novel viewpoint synthesizing political theory from liberal and non liberal traditions feminist critiques history and social policy The volume ranges across a series of historical and anthropological studies which include the property position of women in classical Greece the Anglo American doctrine of coverture nineteenth century prostitution and structural adjustment programmes in sub Saharan Africa It includes a comprehensive critique of the treatment of property by both mainstream political theorists and such important second wave feminists as Irigaray MacKinnon and Pateman Property Women and Politics deconstructs and contests the concept of property But it also uses important insights in recent feminist thought to suggest productive directions for a reconstructed theory of property one in which women's work counts The reconstructed model is applied to such pressing areas of medical ethics as egg and sperm donation contract motherhood abortion and the sale of foetal tissue In addition it shows how we can revise our assumptions about the marriage contract This book is intended for a wide readership in women's studies political theory medical ethics law and social policy and for both academic and a lay reader combining as it does current topics of public policy with a sound theoretical discussion

Gender and Genes Klasien Horstman, Marli Huijter, 2013 This Yearbook of Women's History Jaarboek voor Vrouwengeschiedenis is dedicated to Gender and Genes Intruding upon our everyday lives the world of DNA genes and genomics has become a challenging field of research both clinical and biomedical as well as socio cultural It is also a challenging topic for a Yearbook which traditionally focuses on women and gender from a historical point of view Gender issues are part and parcel of genes and genomics in scientific research and socio cultural discourses and representations Current literature on genes and genomics does not abound in analyses of biomedical and socio cultural realms where gender aspects are played out and exchanged This Yearbook may thus contribute to a field of analysis which contextualizes history from the viewpoint of current biotechnological developments This volume contains articles on medical cases reproductive testing and the case of the sex chromosomes and framing cancer risk in women and men cultural representations a portrait of female scientist Rosalind Franklin and interviews with feminist science philosophers Katarina Karkazis and Donna Dickenson

Property, Education and Identity in Late Eighteenth-Century Fiction V. Cope, 2009-05-29 This book recovers the importance of a major figure in eighteenth century British fiction the Heroine of Disinterest The disinterested heroine was no stereotype but a crucial figure in modernizing identity bringing to life the ideal of character as the product of experience and reflection rather than inheritance and lineage

Just Property Christopher Pierson, 2020-05-01 This third and concluding volume of Just Property brings critical accounts of property right up to the present The book is made up of five pairs of chapters located in five major ideological traditions of modernity liberalism libertarianism social democracy conservatism and feminism As before the focus is on particular thinkers and their daring puzzling and sometimes outrageous views The concluding chapter returns to the project s opening questions about property and inequality and about property under the imperative of growth to limits If we are to confront the enormous challenges that loom in front of us we have above all else to think again and quite radically about the place of property in our collective lives     The Literary Mother Susan C. Staub,2007-06-13 The essays in this book examine the ideology of motherhood in British and American literature from the 16th to the 21st centuries This book looks at the institution of motherhood that is at various cultural interpretations and manipulations of maternity Presenting mothers whose roles are often empowering yet confining these essays scrutinize three distinct aspects of motherhood its social and cultural construction the significance of maternal absence and finally its representation as an agent of social change Literary works examined include William Shakespeare s Venus and Adonis Daniel Defoe s Roxana John Steinbeck s The Grapes of Wrath Faulkner s The Sound and the Fury Charles Dickens Dombey and Son Harriet Jacobs Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Dorothy Leigh s The Mother s Blessing and W S Penn s Killing Time with Strangers among others     Expanding the Canon of Early Modern Women's Writing Paul Salzman,2010-07-12 This exciting collection of original essays on early modern women s writing offers a range of approaches to a growing field As a whole the volume introduces readers to a number of writers such as Mirabai and Liu Rushi who are virtually invisible in Anglophone scholarship and to writers who remain little known such as Elizabeth Melville Elizabeth Hatton and Jane Sharpe The volume also represents critical strategies designed to open up the emergent canon of early modern women s writing to new approaches especially those that have consolidated the integration of literary and intellectual history with an emphasis on religion legal issues and questions of genre The authors expand the methodological possibilities available to approach early modern women who wrote in a diverse number of genres from letters to poetry autobiography and prose fiction The sixteen essays are a major contribution to an area that has attracted the interest of a number of fields including literary studies history cultural studies and women s studies     The Oxford Handbook of Reproductive Ethics Leslie Francis,2016-12-28 Intimate and medicalized natural and technological reproduction poses some of the most challenging ethical dilemmas of our time Reproduction presses the boundaries of humanity and ethical respect the permissible limits of technology conscientious objection by health care professionals and social justice This volume brings together scholars from multiple perspectives to address both traditional and novel questions about the rights and responsibilities of human reproducers their caregivers and the societies in which they live Among issues treated in the volume are what it is to be a parent the responsibilities of parents and the role of society in facilitating or discouraging parenting May gamete donors be anonymous Is surrogacy in which a woman gestates a child for others ethically permissible when efforts are made to prevent coercion or exploitation Should it be mandatory to screen newborns for potentially serious conditions or permissible to sequence their genomes Are both parties to a reproductive act equally responsible to support the child even if one deceived the other Are there ethical asymmetries between male and female parents and is the lack of available contraceptives for men unjust Should the costs of infertility treatment be socially shared as they are for other forms of health care Do parents have a duty to try to conceive children under the best circumstances they can or to avoid conception if the child will suffer What is the status of the fetus and what ethical limits constrain the use of fetal tissue Reproduction is a rapidly changing medical field with novel developments such as mitochondrial transfer or uterine transplantation occurring regularly And there are emerging natural challenges too with Zika virus just the latest The volume gives readers tools not only to address the problems we now know but ones that may emerge in the future as well

Early Modern Autobiography Ronald Bedford, Lloyd Davis, Philippa Kelly, 2006 Why and in what ways did late medieval and early modern English people write about themselves and what was their understanding of how selves were made and discussed This collection goes to the heart of current debate about literature and autobiography addressing the contentious issues of what is meant by early modern autobiographical writing how it was done and what was understood by self representation in a society whose groupings were both elaborate and highly regulated Early Modern Autobiography considers the many ways in which autobiographical selves emerged from the late medieval period through the seventeenth century with the aim of understanding the interaction between those individuals lives and their worlds the ways in which they could be recorded and the contexts in which they are read In addressing this historical arc the volume develops new readings of significant autobiographical works while also suggesting the importance of texts and contexts that have rarely been analyzed in detail enabling the contributors to reflect on and challenge some prevailing ideas about what it means to write autobiographically and about the development of notions of self representation The idea of the self as seen from diverse and fascinating perspectives on sixteenth and seventeenth century life this is what readers can expect from Early Modern Autobiography A beautifully edited collection genuinely far reaching and insightful Early Modern Autobiography makes known to us a great deal about how people saw themselves four hundred years ago Derek Cohen Professor of English McLaughlin College York University Acutely addressing a range of central issues from subjectivity to theatricality to religion these essays will be of great interest to specialists in early modern studies and students of autobiographical writings from all eras Heather Dubrow Tighe Evans Professor and John Bascom Professor Department of English University of Wisconsin The essays in this volume show where archival discoveries memoirs letters account books wills and marginalia can take us in understanding early modern mentalities They document the interdependence of the abstract and the everyday the social constructedness of self awareness local contexts for self recordation and impulses that range from legal purpose to imaginative escape The sixteen chapters open many fascinating new perspectives on identity and personhood in Renaissance England Lena Cowen Orlin Executive Director The Shakespeare Association of America and Professor of English University of Maryland Baltimore

County Ronald Bedford is Reader in the School of English Communication and Theatre at the University of New England in Armidale New South Wales and author of The Defence of Truth Herbert of Cherbury and the Seventeenth Century and Dialogues with Convention Readings in Renaissance Poetry The late Lloyd Davis was Reader in the School of English at the University of Queensland and author of Guise and Disguise Rhetoric and Characterization in the English Renaissance 1993 and editor of Sexuality and Gender in the English Renaissance 1998 and Shakespeare Matters History Teaching Performance 2003 Philippa Kelly is a Senior Research Fellow at the University of New South Wales and has published widely in the areas of Shakespeare studies cultural studies feminism and postcolonial studies

The Contract and Domination Carole Pateman, Charles Mills, 2013-04-23 Contract and Domination offers a bold challenge to contemporary contract theory arguing that it should either be fundamentally rethought or abandoned altogether Since the publication of John Rawls's A Theory of Justice contract theory has once again become central to the Western political tradition But gender justice is neglected and racial justice almost completely ignored Carole Pateman and Charles Mills's earlier books The Sexual Contract 1988 and The Racial Contract 1997 offered devastating critiques of gender and racial domination and the contemporary contract tradition's silence on them Both books have become classics of revisionist radical democratic political theory Now Pateman and Mills are collaborating for the first time in an interdisciplinary volume drawing on their insights from political science and philosophy They are building on but going beyond their earlier work to bring the sexual and racial contracts together In Contract and Domination Pateman and Mills discuss their differences about contract theory and whether it has a useful future excavate the white settler contract that created new civil societies in North America and Australia argue via a non ideal contract for reparations to black Americans confront the evasions of contemporary contract theorists explore the intersections of gender and race and the global sexual racial contract and reply to their critics This iconoclastic book throws the gauntlet down to mainstream white male contract theory It is vital reading for anyone with an interest in political theory and political philosophy and the systems of male and racial domination

A Fictional Commons Michael K. Bourdaghs, 2021-08-09 Modernity arrived in Japan as elsewhere through new forms of ownership In A Fictional Commons Michael K Bourdaghs explores how the literary and theoretical works of Natsume S seki 1867 1916 widely celebrated as Japan's greatest modern novelist exploited the contradictions and ambiguities that haunted this new system Many of his works feature narratives about inheritance thievery and the struggle to obtain or preserve material wealth while also imagining alternative ways of owning and sharing For S seki literature was a means for thinking through and beyond private property Bourdaghs puts S seki into dialogue with thinkers from his own era including William James and Mizuno Rentar author of Japan's first copyright law and discusses how his work anticipates such theorists as Karatani K jin and Franco Moretti As Bourdaghs shows S seki both appropriated and rejected concepts of ownership and subjectivity in ways that theorized literature as a critical response to the emergence of global capitalism

Feminist Interpretations of Thomas

Hobbes Nancy J. Hirschmann, Joanne Harriet Wright, 2012 A collection of essays analyzing the seventeenth century British political theorist Thomas Hobbes from a feminist perspective Provided by publisher Money and Credit Bruce G. Carruthers, Laura Ariovich, 2010-03-15 This book offers a fresh and uniquely sociological perspective on money and credit As basic economic institutions money and credit are easy to overlook when they work well When they malfunction their importance becomes obvious and demands further investigation Bruce G Carruthers and Laura Ariovich examine the social dimensions of money and credit at both the individual and corporate levels from the development of personal credit in a consumer society to the role of government in the creation of money In clear prose they illustrate how the overall economy is governed by the financial system and the flow of capital into and out of firms They also explore the social meanings of money and how people distinguish between dirty and clean money This accessible and engaging book will be essential reading for upper level students of economic sociology and those interested in how the bills coins and plastic in our pockets shape the world in which we live

The Gendering of Global Finance L. Assassi, 2009-10-22 This book explores the gendered nature of the historical emergence of modern finance markets and their expansion to a now global scale It analyses the ways in which women were and still are marginalized in terms of financial activity and associated structures of power which play a critical role in shaping the contemporary global political economy

Marxist Shakespeares Jean Elizabeth Howard, Scott Cutler Shershow, 2001 This book reveals the continuing power of Marxist thought to address the relationship of texts to social class the historical construction of the aesthetic and utopian dimensions of literary production

Owning Land, Being Women Amrita Mondal, 2021-04-06 Owning Land Being Women enquires into the processes that establish inheritance as a unique form of property relation in law and society It focuses on India examining the legislative processes that led to the 2005 amendment of the Hindu Succession Act 1956 along with several interconnected welfare policies Scholars have understood these Acts as a response to growing concerns about women s property rights in developing countries In re reading these Acts and exploring the wider nexus of Indian society in which the legislation was drafted this study considers how questions of family structure and property rights contribute to the creation of legal subjects and demonstrates the significance of the politico economic context of rights formulation On the basis of an ethnography of a village in West Bengal this book brings the moral axis of inheritance into sharp focus elucidating the interwoven dynamics of bequest distribution of family wealth and reciprocity of care work that are integral to the logic of inheritance It explains why inheritance rights based on the notion of individual property rights are inadequate to account for practices of inheritance Mondal shows that inheritance includes normative structures of affective attachment and expectations i e evaluatively charged imaginaries of the future that coordinate present practices These insights pose questions of the dominant resource based conceptualisation of inherited property in the debate on women s empowerment In doing so this work opens up a line of investigation that brings feminist rights discourse into conversation with ethics enriching the liberal theory of gender justice

the Core David Benatar, 2006-03-06 When the benefits of surgery do not outweigh the harms or where they do not clearly do so surgical interventions become morally contested Cutting to the Core examines a number of such surgeries including infant male circumcision and cutting the genitals of female children Women and the Victorian Occult Tatiana Kontou, 2013-10-31 Increasingly contemporary scholarship reveals the strong connection between Victorian women and the world of the nineteenth century supernatural Women were intrinsically bound to the occult and the esoteric from mediums who materialised spirits to the epiphanic experiences of the New Woman from theosophy to telepathy This volume addresses the various ways in which Victorian women expressed themselves and were constructed by the occult through a broad range of texts By examining the roles of women as automatic writing mediums spiritualists authors editors theosophists socialists and how they interpreted the occult in their life and work the contributors in this edition return to sensation novels ghost stories autobiographies sances and fashionable magazines to access the visible and invisible worlds of Victorian life The variety of texts analysed by the authors in this collection demonstrates the many interpretations of the occult in nineteenth century culture and the ways that women used supernatural imagery and language to draw attention to issues that bore immediate implications on their own lives Either by catering for the fad of ghost stories or by giving public trance speeches women harnessed the metaphorical and financial forces of the supernatural As the articles in this book demonstrate the occult was after all a female affair This book was published as a special issue of Women s Writing Human Rights in Global Perspective Richard Wilson, Jon P. Mitchell, Richard A. Wilson, 2003-09-02 The aim of this volume is to understand from an anthropological perspective the consequences of the rise of rights discussions and institutions in both local and global politics NWSA Journal , 1999 Women and the People Helen Rogers, 2017-05-15 Based on extensive new research investigating the range of women s involvement in early nineteenth century popular politics mid Victorian reform and the women s movements of the late century Women and the People makes an original intervention in the historiography of the radical tradition by exploring the interconnections of populism liberalism and feminism Attending to authorship the study argues that the representational forms adopted by radicals were as important as the content of what they said in shaping their self perception their construction of others and the reception of their ideas In fiction poetry and autobiography as well as in political writing speeches and journalism women reworked radical conventions and imagined new models of political identity participation and authority Though in general radicals appealed to the people women were often positioned as the suffering objects of reform rather than as the agents of change By showing how they challenged or reinforced these conceptions of women and the people the book contends that radical women invoked alternative communities of sex class and nation and helped to remake and discipline the political sphere as they strove to make it their own

The Top Books of the Year Property Women Politics Subjects Or The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Property Women Politics Subjects Or : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Property Women Politics Subjects Or : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
