Our History Is the Future Nick Estes, 2023-09-26 Winner of the Oakland Blue Collar PEN Award A work of history a manifesto and an intergenerational story of resistance that shows how two centuries of Indigenous struggle created the movement proclaiming Water is Life In 2016 a small protest encampment at the Standing Rock reservation in North Dakota initially established to block construction of the Dakota Access oil pipeline grew to be the largest Indigenous protest movement in the twenty first century attracting tens of thousands of Indigenous and non Native allies from around the world Its slogan Mni Wiconi Water is Life was about more than just a pipeline Water Protectors knew this battle for Native sovereignty had already been fought many times before and that even after the encampment was gone their anti colonial struggle would continue In Our History is the Future Nick Estes traces traditions of Indigenous resistance leading to the NoDAPL movement from the days of the Missouri River trading forts through the Indian Wars the Pick Sloan dams the American Indian Movement and the campaign for Indigenous rights at the United Nations While a historian by trade Estes also draws on observations from the encampments and from growing up as a citizen of the Oceti Sakowin the Nation of the Seven Council Fires making Our History is the Future at once a work of history a personal story and a manifesto The Future Herbert Byrne, 2004-11 A study of the Bible has to say about the future Included one will find suggestions on how to study prophecies future prophecies and signs of the times Romantic Prophecy and the Resistance to Historicism Christopher M. Bundock, 2016-01-01 Romantic writers invoked prophecy throughout their work However the failure of prophecy to materialize didn't deter them Why then do Romantic writers repeatedly invoke prophecy when it never works The answer to this question is at the heart of Romantic Prophecy and the Resistance to Historicism In this remarkably erudite work Christopher Bundock argues that the repeated failure of prophecy in Romantic thought is creative and enables a renewable potential for expression across disciplines By focusing on new readings of canonical Romantic authors as well as their more obscure works Bundock makes a bold intervention into major concepts such as Romantic imagination historicity and mediation Romantic Prophecy and the Resistance to Historicism glides across Kant's Swedenborgian dreams to Mary Shelley's Last Man and reveals how Romanticism reinvents history by turning prophecy inside out History and Historians R. W. Southern, 2008-04-15 This book makes a selection of writings by the great medieval historian Sir Richard Southern available to the wider audience they deserve A collection of writings by the great medieval historian Sir Richard Southern Offers a fascinating insight into the beliefs and ideas that underpinned Southern's work Contains the series of reflections on medieval historical writing that Southern produced during his tenure as President of the Royal Historical Society Also includes pieces on the nature of academic history as well as Southern's appreciations of other medievalists Brings together texts that would otherwise be difficult to locate Makes these writings accessible to the wider audience they deserve The Scattered Nation: Past, Present, and Future C. Science, Reason, and Faith Fr. Robert Spitzer, SJ, 2023-09-18 Built into our very nature is a desire to know about the world around us The big questions of human existence are inescapable Who am I Why am I here and where am I going Why is there evil in the world What is the meaning of life This yearning for truth ultimately leads us to our Creator God knows the longings of the human heart and he reveals himself to us through creation through Scripture and ultimately through the Incarnation Because God the Son became man we have a person to look to in our pursuit of truth Jesus Christ himself who is Truth Christ helps us see that truth is not just the object of science and reason but what animates the mysterious and loving power of faith In Science Reason and Faith Fr Robert Spitzer SJ explores in depth the Bible and the intersection of three realms that the secular world tells us are separate and incompatible Fr Spitzer draws the modern reader's attention to the many seeming conflicts between science reason and Catholic teaching By tackling these difficult questions he shows that it is precisely through the integration of science reason and faith that we can truly discover ourselves our world and our God
