Prophetic And The Political Selected Speeches And Writings:

The prophetic and the political Sinnathamby Rajaratnam, 1987 The Prophetic & the Political Sinnathamby Rajaratnam, 1987 The Asian Modern C. J. Wan-ling Wee, 2007 How does one comprehend the phenomenon of the modernization of an Asian society in a globalized East Asian context With this opening question the author proceeds to give an account of how the modernization processes for postcolonial societies in Asia such as those of India Malaysia and Singapore are fraught with collaborations and conflicts between different socio political historical economic and cultural agents Forging a Singaporean Statehood: 1965-1995 Robin Ramcharan, 2021-10-25 This work takes an in depth look at the multi faceted contemporary relationship between Singapore and Japan since the end of World War II It is the story of a relationship between an economic superpower Japan and an enterprising city state whose leaders have sought to emulate not only Japan s economic success but several key facets of Japanese society as well No other country surpasses Singapore in its public admiration of Japan How is it possible for a multi ethnic Singapore to emulate a relatively homogeneous Japan What features of economic and political motives behind the attempt to emulate Japan These and other questions are addressed in this work which will be of interest to scholars of the international relations and security of East and Southeast Asia

Language, Capital, Culture, 2007-01-01 Singapore has been taken by many researchers as a fascinating living language policy and planning laboratory Language and education policy in Singapore has been pivotal not only to the establishment and growth of schooling but to the very project of nation building Since their inception mother tongue policies have been established with two explicit goals Firstly there is the development and training of human and intellectual capital for the expansion and networking of a Singaporean service and information economy Secondly there is the maintenance of cultural heritage and values as a means for social cohesion and indeed the maintenance of community and regional social capital These tasks have been fraught with tension and contradiction both in relation to the conditions of rapid cultural economic and political change in Asia and globally but as well because of the tensions between the so called world language English and Singapore s three other official languages Tamil Malay and Mandarin This has been complicated of course by the challenges of vibrant regional dialects and the emergence of Singlish as a powerful medium of community life The Theatre and the State in Singapore Terence Chong, 2012-07-26 This book provides a comprehensive examination of the contemporary English language theatre field in Singapore It describes Singapore theatre as a politically dynamic field that is often a site for struggle and resistance against state orthodoxy and how the cultural policies of the ruling People s Action Party PAP have shaped Singapore theatre The book traces such cultural policies and their impact from the early 1960s and shows how the PAP used theatre and arts and culture more widely as a key part of its nation building programme Terence Chong argues that this diverse theatre community not only comes into regular conflict with the state but often collaborates with it depending on the rewards at stake not to mention the assortment of intra communal conflicts as different practitioners and groups vie for the same resources It goes on to explore how new forms of theatre especially English language avant garde theatre represented resistance to such government cultural control how the government often exerts its power behind the scenes to preserve its moral legitimacy and conversely how middle class theatre practitioners resistance to state power is strongly influenced by class and cultural capital Based on extensive original research including interviews with theatre directors and other theatre professionals the book provides a wealth of information on theatre in Singapore overall and not just on theatre state relations

Ethnicity and Politics in Southeast Asia Amy H. Liu, Jacob I. Ricks, 2022-05-05 What explains the treatment of ethnic minorities in Southeast Asia This Element conceptually disaggregates ethnicity into multiple constituent markers specifically language religion and phenotype By focusing on the interaction between these three ethnic markers Liu and Ricks explore how overlap between these markers can affect whether a minority integrates within a broader ethnic identity successfully extracts accommodation as unique group or engages in a contentious and potentially violent relationship with the hegemon The argument is tested through six case studies 1 ethnic Lao in Thailand integration 2 ethnic Chinese in Thailand integration 3 ethnic Chinese in Malaysia accommodation 4 ethnic Malays in Singapore accommodation 5 ethnic Malays in Thailand contention and 6 ethnic Chinese in Indonesia contention

Lee Kuan Yew's Strategic Thought Cheng Guan Ang, 2013 Lee Kuan Yew as the founding father of independent Singapore has had an enormous impact on the development of Singapore and of Southeast Asia more generally Even in his 80s he is a key figure who continues to exert considerable influence from behind the scenes This book presents a comprehensive overview of Lee Kuan Yew's strategic thought It charts the development of Singapore over the last six decades showing how Lee Kuan Yew has steered Singapore to prosperity and success through changing times It analyses the factors underlying Lee Kuan Yew's thinking discusses his own writings and speeches and shows how his thinking on foreign policy security and international relations has evolved over time

Autobiography and Decolonization Philip Holden, 2008 Philip Holden reveals deeply gendered connections between the writing of individual lives and of the narratives of nations emerging from colonialism Autobiography and Decolonization is the first book to give serious academic attention to autobiographies of nationalist leaders in the process of decolonization attending to them not simply as partial historical documents but as texts involved in remaking the world views of their readers Holden examines Mohandas K Gandhi's An Autobiography The Story of My Experiments with Truth Marcus Garvey's fragmentary

Autobiography Joseph Ephraim Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound Lee Kuan Yew's The Singapore Story Nelson Mandela's Long Walk to Freedom Jawaharlal Nehru's An Autobiography and Kwame Nkrumah's Ghana The Autobiography of Kwame Nkrumah Holden argues that these examples of life writing have had significant influence on the formation of new and often profoundly gendered national identities These narratives constitute the nation less as an imagined community than as an imagined individual Moving from the past to the promise of the future they mediate relationships between public and private and between individual and collective stories Ultimately they show how the construction of modern selfhood is inextricably linked to the construction of a postcolonial polity

The Scripting of A National History Lysa Hong, Jianli Huang, 2008-04-01

Rather than presenting another narrative of Singapore history The Scripting of a National History Singapore and Its Pasts studies the constructed nature of the history endorsed by the state which blurs the distinction between what happened in the past and how the state intends that past to be understood The People's Action Party PAP government's unbroken mandate to rule has come in no small part from the way it explains its lineage and record to Singaporeans The power vested in various aspects of Singapore's history is thus examined through a consideration of past and present politics The authors trace state discourses on Singapore history from the decision immediately after independence to recognize the nineteenth century British acquisition of the island as its founding moment to the 1980s and 1990s when an essentially Confucian heritage was recognized under the rubric of Asian values and finally to an emphasis on the history of racial fragility and harmony in response to the threat of terrorism in the twenty first century Embedded within these discourses is the story of the PAP as the heir of the economic dynamics of the pax Britannica as an exponent of the morality and righteousness of the Chinese scholar gentleman and as the firm hand that balances the interests of the majority Chinese against those of the minority populations particularly the Malays The authors examine the underlying template of Singapore history the negotiation with its immigrant past and the popularization of history through conscription of national heroes The chapters range from considering how political leaders claim to be historians by virtue of being the makers of history to the vicissitudes undergone by two originally private homes turned into symbols of Singapore's Chinese modernity

The Scripting of a National History Singapore and Its Pasts is highly relevant not only to academics but also for the Singapore general reader interested to see what are meant to be received wisdoms for the citizenry interrogated in a well reasoned and engaging exercise as well as for an international readership to whom Singapore has become a fascinating enigma They may well be intrigued by the anxieties of being Singaporean

Southeast Asia and the Vietnam War Cheng Guan Ang, 2009-12-04 This book describes and explains Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore's attitudes and policies regarding the Vietnam War While it is generally known that all three countries supported the US war effort in Vietnam it reveals the motivations behind the decisions of the decision makers the twists and turns and the nuances in the attitudes of Jakarta Kuala Lumpur and Singapore following the development of the war from the 1950s through to its end in 1975 Although the principal focus is the three supposedly non aligned countries Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore the perspectives of Thailand and the Philippines the two Southeast Asian countries which were formally allied with the United States are discussed at the appropriate junctures It makes an original contribution to the gradually growing literature on the international history of the Vietnam War and furthers our knowledge of the diplomatic history of Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore in the early independent years 1945 1949 1957 and 1965 respectively which coincided with early years of the Cold War in Southeast Asia Critical Issues In Asset Building In Singapore's Development S Vasoo,Bilveer Singh,2018-06-19 Singapore s progress as an independent nation and the uplifting of its people s livelihood have been made possible by stable social and political conditions A more important factor in driving these positive changes lies with people centric leadership One can contrast the case of Singapore with societies led by self serving leaders whose lack of honesty and integrity brings about immense social and economic hardships to various communities When people suffer under undesirable circumstances they often migrate to seek better future for themselves and their families This book reveals how Singapore s governance grounded on the principle of asset building facilitates the country s growth and development Policies being discussed in this volume include multi culturalism accessible housing social mobility for low income families water resource management and national conscription Highly relevant for students policy makers and the general public interested in socio political and economic development issues this unique piece of work not only gives readers a documentary account of what has been undertaken to empower and assist citizens in the last 50 years or so but also prompts them to reflect on Singapore s future trajectory Related Link s The Darker Nations Vijay Prashad,2022-08-30 The landmark alternative history of the Cold War from the perspective of the Global South reissued in paperback with a new introduction by the author In this award winning investigation into the overlooked history of the Third World with a new preface by the author for its fifteenth anniversary internationally renowned historian Vijay Prashad conjures what Publishers Weekly calls a vital assertion of an alternative future The Darker Nations praised by critics as a welcome antidote to apologists for empire has defined for a generation of scholars activists and dreamers what it is to imagine a more just international order and continues to offer lessons for the radical political projects of today With the disastrous U S withdrawal from Afghanistan and the rise of India and China on the global scene this paradigm shifting book of groundbreaking scholarship helps us envision the future of the Global South by restoring to memory the vibrant though flawed idea of the Third World whose demise Prashad ultimately argues has produced an impoverished and asymmetrical international political arena No other book on the Third World as a utopian idea and a global movement can speak so effectively and engagingly to our troubled times Pluralist Constitutions in Southeast Asia Jaclyn L Neo,Ngoc Son Bui,2019-04-04 This book examines the presence of ethnic religious political and ideational pluralities in Southeast Asian societies and how their respective constitutions respond to these pluralities Countries covered in this book are Brunei Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam The chapters examine first the range of pluralist constitutional values and ideas embodied in the constitutions secondly the pluralist sources of constitutional norms thirdly the design of constitutional structures responding to various pluralities and fourthly the construction and interpretation of bills of rights in response to existing pluralities The pluralist constitution is thus one that recognises internal pluralities within society and makes arrangements to accommodate rather than eliminate these pluralities

Language, Nation and Development in Southeast Asia Lee Hock Guan, 2003-08-01 Language policies in Southeast Asia have been shaped by the process of nation building on the one hand and by political and economic considerations on the other The early years of nation building in Southeast Asia generated intensive language conflicts precisely because state policies privileged the idea of a monolingual nation and thus endeavoured to co opt or even do away with troublesome ethnic identities In recent years language policies are increasingly influenced by pragmatic considerations especially globalization and the awareness of a linkage between language and economic development such that Southeast Asian states in varying degrees have become less insistent on promoting monolingual nationalism This book evaluates the successes and drawbacks of language policies in Indonesia Malaysia Singapore the Philippines Thailand Vietnam and Myanmar especially the ways in which these policies have often been resisted or contested It is an invaluable primer on this linguistically complex region and a resource for scholars policy makers civil society activists and NGOs in various parts of the world facing equally challenging ethnic language issues

Collateral Damage Nicholas Khoo, 2011 Although the Chinese and the Vietnamese were Cold War allies in wars against the French and the Americans their alliance collapsed and they ultimately fought a war against each other in 1979 More than thirty years later the fundamental cause of the alliance s termination remains contested among historians international relations theorists and Asian studies specialists Nicholas Khoo brings fresh perspective to this debate Using Chinese language materials released since the end of the Cold War Khoo revises existing explanations for the termination of China s alliance with Vietnam arguing that Vietnamese cooperation with China s Cold War adversary the Soviet Union was the necessary and sufficient cause for the alliance s termination He finds alternative explanations to be less persuasive These emphasize nonmaterial causes such as ideology and culture or reference issues within the Sino Vietnamese relationship such as land and border disputes Vietnam s treatment of its ethnic Chinese minority and Vietnam s attempt to establish a sphere of influence over Cambodia and Laos Khoo also adds to the debate over the relevance of realist theory in interpreting China s international behavior during both the Cold War and post Cold War eras While others see China as a social state driven by nonmaterial processes Khoo makes the case for viewing China as a quintessential neorealist state From this perspective the focus of neorealist theory on security threats from materially stronger powers explains China s foreign policy not only toward the Soviet Union but also in relation to its Vietnamese allies
