Prophetic Christianity And The Liberation Movement In South Africa:

Prophetic Christianity and the Liberation Movement in South Africa Peter Walshe, 1995 The Christian Churches and the Democratisation of Africa Paul Gifford, 2023-08-07 This volume focuses on the role Christian churches have played in Africa's democratisation movements since the late 1980s. In some cases churchmen have presided over national conferences in many Christians comprise arguably the most significant segment of civil society. In some countries pastoral letters have challenged dictators in others churches have provided an essential support for the status quo. The book comprises both theoretical analyses and case studies. The theoretical discussions include the history of Church State relations, theology and democracy, Pentecostalism and democracy, the problems of consolidating democracy. The 13 case studies sketch the historical context and then critically examine developments up till late 1993. The book will prove particularly useful to students of Third World Christianity, African historians and political scientists and all interested in the socio-political role of Christianity.

Prophetic Christianity and the Liberation Movement in South Africa Peter Walshe, 1995 The book includes the events leading up to the 1994 elections and closes with some provocative questions about the role of the churches in the new South Africa.

Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa Lyn S. Graybill, 2002 Graybill's mind and human interaction in U of Virginia provides students not only the facts about the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission but also the broader context in which it operated. She asks whether it led to reconciliation and healing, what criteria were used to decide whether to pardon or punish, whether politics necessitated the compromise, and other questions. Africa's Second Wave of Freedom Lyn S. Graybill, Kenneth W. Thompson, 1998 Africa's Second Wave of Freedom represents the work of scholars who share a concern with the development of civil society in Africa. The first third of the book deals theoretically with the issues of democracy and stability in Africa. In particular the contributors analyze the inadequacy of the United States response to African problems such as environmental decay, spiraling debt, and health epidemics that do not respect national boundaries, the fragility of democracy in Africa, and the danger of reversion to dictatorships and the barriers to constitutional democracy in sub-Saharan Africa. The remainder of the book consists of case studies of various aspects of civil society from Mozambique, Nigeria, Zimbabwe, and South Africa.

Race and Reconciliation in South Africa William E. Van Vugt, G. Daan Cloete, 2000-01-01 In the mid 1990s the Truth and Reconciliation Commission disclosed its findings on the awful reality of the apartheid era in South Africa. The Commission inspired scholars from Europe, North America, and South Africa to convene a group of their own to investigate in multicultural scholarly dialogue the history, theology, philosophy, and politics of race and reconciliation in South Africa. This volume is the product of that important dialogue. And while the focus is the particular environment of South Africa, the contributors work within a comparative perspective using examples from other nations and cultures to explore that which makes South Africa unique. Ultimately the book aims to offer not only a better understanding of the depth of injustice in South Africa's past but also a deeper appreciation for the achievement of the present and the promise of the future in South Africa and in every other multiethnic region in the world      Shembe, Ancestors, and Christ Edley J. Moodley PhD, 2008-08-18 The Christian axis has shifted dramatically southward to Africa Asia and Latin America so much so that today there are more Christians living in these southern regions than among their northern counterparts In the case of Africa the African Initiated Churches founded by Africans and primarily for Africans has largely contributed to the exponential growth and proliferation of the Christian faith in the continent Yet even more profoundly these churches espouse a brand of Christianity that is indigenized and thoroughly contextual Further the power and popularity of the AICs beyond the unprecedented numbers joining these churches are attributed to their relevance to the existential everyday needs and concerns of their adherents in the context of a postcolonial Africa At the heart of Christian theology is Christology the confessed uniqueness of Christ in history and among world religions Yet this key feature of Christianity as with other important elements of the Christian faith may be variously understood and re interpreted in these indigenous churches The focus of this study is the amaNazaretha Church an influential religious group founded by the African charismatic prophet Isaiah Shembe in 1911 in the province of KwaZulu Natal South Africa The movement today claims a following of some two million adherents and has proliferated beyond the borders of South Africa to neighboring countries in Southern Africa The book addresses the complex and at times ambivalent understanding of the person and work of Christ in the amaNazaretha Church presenting the genesis history beliefs and practices of this significant religious movement in South Africa with broader implications for similar movements across the continent of Africa and beyond      Christianity and Genocide in Rwanda Timothy Longman, 2010 This book studies the role of Christian churches in the 1994 Rwandan genocide Timothy Longman s research shows that Rwandan churches have consistently allied themselves with the state and engaged in ethnic politics making them a center of struggle over power and resources He argues that the genocide in Rwanda was a conservative response to progressive forces that were attempting to democratize Christian churches      Afrikaners and the Boundaries of Faith in Post-Apartheid South Africa Annika Björnsdotter Teppo, 2021-09-30 This book examines the shifting moral and spiritual lives of white Afrikaners in South Africa after apartheid The end of South Africa s apartheid system of racial and spatial segregation sparked wide reaching social change as social cultural spatial and racial boundaries were transgressed and transformed This book investigates how Afrikaners have mediated the country s shifting boundaries within the realm of religion For instance one in every three Afrikaners used these new freedoms to leave the traditional Dutch Reformed Church NGK often for an entirely new religious affiliation within the Pentecostal or Charismatic churches or New Religious Movements such as Wiccan neopaganism Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in the Western Cape area the book investigates what spiritual life after racial totalitarianism means for the members of the ethnic group that constructed and maintained that very totalitarianism Ultimately the book asks how these new Afrikaner religious practices contribute to social solidarity and integration in a persistently segregated society and what they can tell us about racial relations in the country today This book will be of interest to scholars of religious studies social and cultural anthropology and African studies Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Theology William T. Cavanaugh, Peter Manley Scott, 2019-03-11 Offers a comprehensive survey and interpretation of contemporary Christian political theology in a newly revised and expanded edition This book presents the latest thinking on the topic of contemporary Christian political theology with original and constructive essays that represent a range of opinions on various topics With contributions from expert scholars in the field it reflects a broad range of methodologies ecclesial traditions and geographic and social locations and provides a sense of the diversity of political theologies It also addresses the primary resources of the Christian tradition which theologians draw on when constructing political theologies and surveys some of the most important figures and movements in political theology This revised and expanded edition provides the most comprehensive and accessible introduction to this lively and growing area of Christian theology Organized into five sections Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Theology Second Edition addresses the many changes that have occurred over the last 15 years within the field of political theology It features new essays that address social developments and movements such as Anglican Social Thought John Milbank Anabaptist Political Theologies African Political Theologies Postcolonialism Political Economy Technology and Virtuality and Grass roots Movements The book also includes a new essay on the reception of Liberation Theology Offers essays on topics such as the Trinity atonement and eschatology Features contributions from leading voices in the field of political theology Includes all new entries covering fresh developments and movements like the urgency of climate change virtuality and the digital age the economic crisis of 2008 the discourse of religion and violence and new modalities of war Addresses some important social movements from a theological point of view including postmodernism grass roots movements and more Provides both Islamic and Jewish responses to political theology Written for academics and students of political theology Wiley Blackwell Companion to Political Theology 2nd Edition is an enlightening read that offers a wide range of authoritative essays from some of the most notable scholars in the field remarkable transition from dictatorship to democracy Truly a transformation of power Yet this period of profound change raised many issues of power and accountability In this book some of the key questions are explained and addressed from a theological perspective The work originated as a case study on the World Council of Churches Theology of Life programme It was then presented as a Kachere Monograph in the belief that it will not only contribute to the reconstruction of politics in Malawi but also be an important resource for all those concerned with the formation of a viable theology of power for today's world It is now presented here again as a Luviri Reprint The contributors are all drawn from the University of Malawi Department of Theology and Religious Studies Kenneth Ross has written on The Transformation of Power in Malawi 1992 94 the Role of the Christian Churches and A Practical Theology of Power for the New Malawi Felix Chingota on The Use of the Bible in Social Transformation Isabel Apawo Phiri on Marching Suspended and Stoned Christian Women in Malawi 1995 James Tengatenga on Young People Participation or Alienation An Anglican Case J C Chankanza and Hilary Mijoga on Muslim Perspectives on Power Hilary Mijoga on Christian Experience in Malawi Prisons and Klaus Fiedler on Power at the Receiving End the Jehovah's Witnesses Experience in One Party Malawi and Even in the Church the Exercise of Power is Accountable to God

The Legacy of Beyers Naudé L. D. Hansen, 2005-11-01 Beyers Naud was a remarkable man and he has left us a remarkable legacy This book and those to follow in this series on public theology will help ensure that this legacy is not lost but instead remains a firm foundation on which we can build This collection of essays which constitutes the first title in this series provides rich resources for taking forward the work of Beyers Naud and the example of his life Many of the writers were close friends of his some through the most difficult of times Most Revd Njongonkulu Ndungane Anglican Archbishop of Cape Town

Exiled God and Exiled Peoples Andrea Fröchtling, 2002 Exiled God and exiled peoples sets out to explore the perceptions of God within a number of forcibly removed communities in South Africa and Jewish survivors of the Shoah with the latter being predominantly of German origin It considers rupture in individual and communal life stories as a determining factor in the perception of and the relationship with God and follows the path paved by survivors of apartheid and the Shoah by recalling their topology their stories about place displacement and terror and the encapsulated relationship with God in their respective exiles

Prophecy Today Hermen Kroesbergen, 2016-08-01 In Prophecy today reflections from a Southern African context a group of theologians and scholars of religion from Zambia and South Africa reflects upon these questions Anthropologists Biblical scholars practical theologians and others shine their light on what prophecy can mean today in this context This book aims at stimulating a continuing Southern African discourse on this very interesting and relevant aspect of Christianity in our region The book consists of 15 different articles by well known scholars and has been ably compiled and edited by Dr Hermen Kroesbergen lecturer in Systematic Theology and Philosophy of Religion at Justo Mwale University Lusaka Zambia

Here Comes your King! R. Ross, 2020-09-21 More than twenty years have passed since this book was first published yet its themes remain vital for understanding the way in which Christian faith is coming to expression in a context like Malawi It begins with Christology with the question of the identity of Jesus Christ that is perennially at the centre of the Christian theological task For a century and more Malawians have been hearing the proclamation here comes your king This has struck a chord in millions of hearts as individuals families and communities have named Jesus Christ as Lord It has also posed the challenge of discovering what this Lordship means in every dimension of life Much of the rest of the book pursues this question as it explores how church identity has been formed and consolidated how the faith has been a resource for the nation at critical moments and the ways in which the faith has shaped national identity and helped to meet political challenges      Church, State and Society in Kenya Galia Sabar, 2012-12-06 This volume offers a debate on the role of Christianity in post colonial Kenya charting the role of the church state and society in the transformation of Kenya and the relationship between the three It shows how the church initiated health education and economic activities showing it to be a major instrument of transformation      Organising for Change Silke Roth, Clare Saunders, 2025-02-11 Based on decades of research this book explores global social change processes through the concepts of social change organisations SCOs and social change makers SCMs the individuals working within and alongside SCOs The book delves into a vast array of compelling social justice issues from tackling inequality to championing human rights bridging the realms of social movement and third sector research Inspiring and empowering this is essential reading for scholars students NGOs and activists alike
