Kim,2022-05-24 The theme of prophets and prophecy is a central area of theological research and discussion in both Christianity and Islam While academic researches on the prophets of Islamic tradition do exist it is rare to find studies which compare them with the biblical accounts based on evangelical theology This book provides theological analysis of the biblical prophets which appear in the Qur'an and the Islamic literature The selection of prophets includes Adam Nuh Noah Ibrahim Abraham Yusuf Joseph Musa Moses Dawud David Ezekiel Dhul Kifl Zakariya Yahya John the Baptist and Mary the Mother of Jesus The contributors are a distinguished group of international scholars who combine impressive academic credentials with extensive ministry among Muslims Moreover the international nature of the contributors lends credibility to the work as an exercise in global theology This book lays a good foundation for the comparison of scriptural and theological traditions of two world major religions and for generating further discussions

The Quranic Noah and the Making of the Islamic Prophet Carlos A. Segovia,2015-09-25 Still in its infancy because of the overly conservative views and methods assumed by the majority of scholars working in it since the mid 19th century the field of early Islamic and quranic studies is one in which the very basic questions must nowadays be addressed with decision Accordingly this book tries to resituate the Qur'an at the crossroads of the conversations of old to which its parabolic narratives witness and explores how Muhammad's image which was apparently modelled after that of the anonymous prophet repeatedly alluded to in the Qur'an originally matched that of other prophets and/or charismatic figures distinctive in the late antique sectarian milieu out of which Islam gradually emerged Moreover it contends that the Quranic Noah narratives provide a first hand window into the making of Muhammad as an eschatological prophet and further examines their form content purpose and sources as a means of deciphering the scribal and intertextual nature of the Qur'an as well as the Jewish Christian background of the messianic controversy that gave birth to the new Arab religion The previously neglected view that Muhammad was once tentatively thought of as a new Messiah challenges our common understanding of Islam's origins

Interpreting Islam in China Kristian Petersen, 2018 During the early modern period Muslims in China began to embrace the Chinese characteristics of their heritage Several scholar teachers incorporated tenets from traditional Chinese education into their promotion of Islamic knowledge As a result some Sino Muslims established an educational network which utilized an Islamic curriculum made up of Arabic Persian and Chinese works The corpus of Chinese Islamic texts written in this system is collectively labeled the Han Kitab Interpreting Islam in China explores the Sino Islamic intellectual tradition through the works of some of its brightest luminaries Three prominent Sino Muslim authors are used to illustrate transformations within this tradition Wang Daiyu Liu Zhi and Ma Dexin Kristian Petersen puts these scholars in dialogue and demonstrates the continuities and departures within this tradition Through an analysis of their writings he considers several questions How malleable are religious categories and why are they variously interpreted across time How do changing historical circumstances affect the interpretation of religious beliefs and practices How do individuals navigate multiple sources of authority How do practices inform belief Overall he shows that these authors presented an increasingly universalistic portrait of Islam through which Sino Muslims were encouraged to participate within the global community of Muslims The growing emphasis on performing the pilgrimage to Mecca comprehensive knowledge of the Qur'an and
