Monuments for Posterity Antony Kalashnikov,2023-04-15 Monuments for Posterity challenges the common assumption that Stalinist monuments were constructed with an immediate propagandistic function arguing instead that they were designed to memorialize the present for an imagined posterity In this respect even while pursuing its monument building program with a singular ruthlessness and on an unprecedented scale the Stalinist regime was broadly in step with transnational monument building trends of the era and their undergirding cultural dynamics By integrating approaches from cultural history art criticism and memory studies along with previously unexplored archival material Antony Kalashnikov examines the origin and implementation of the Stalinist monument building program from the perspective of its goal to immortalize the memory of the era He analyzes how this objective affected the design and composition of Stalinist monuments what cultural factors prompted the sudden and powerful yearning to be remembered and most importantly what the culture of self commemoration revealed about changing outlooks on the future both in the Soviet Union and beyond its borders Monuments for Posterity shifts the perspective from monuments political ideological content to the desire to be remembered and prompts a much needed reconsideration of the supposed uniqueness of both Stalinist aesthetics and the temporal culture that they expressed Many Stalinist monuments still stand prominently in postsocialist cityscapes and remain the subject of continual heated political controversy Kalashnikov makes manifest monuments intentional attempts to seduce us the posterity for whom they were built

Building Modern Antiquity Georgia Giannakopoulou,2024-11-29 This book considers post 19th century Athens as a unique instance of a secret side of metropolitan capitalism With a focus on modern antiquity as the hidden element of the dialectic between the past and the present it suggests that the sociological study of one of the great European capital cities a city not intended as a modern capital and its architectural representations may expose part of the veiled processes of the reconstruction of the past thus shedding light on the abuse of antiquity for the celebration of European capitalist metropolitan modernity From the glorious white marble cityscape of the 19th century that aimed at re enchanting metropolitan modernity to the inglorious grey reinforced concrete 21st century metropolis modern Athens exposes the battle between the modern and a modern image of antiquity a false socially constructed historiography born of the dialectics between the ancient and the modern the new and the old collective memory and collective forgetting As such The Building of a Modern Antiquity will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in social and critical theory urban studies sociology of architecture and visual sociology
