The Priestess and Pearls: Rituals for the Journey to the Divine Feminine Georgia van Raalte, 2020-07-06 These rituals trace the waves and curves of my path to the divine It is my hope that they may act as illumination or as a map for your own journey The creation of these rituals were processes of gaining knowledge their performance brought understanding Writing these rituals was an exercise in creative devotion Performing them was a lesson in the reality of magic and the irresistibility of its circuits and waves These rituals utilise juxtaposition and movement across boundaries They are sites of liminality and thus power They are games toys and the most serious technology we have ever had These rituals offer a space of communitas a suspended community in the liminal ritual space a mode of being with others that is utterly transformative These rituals are magpie nests built from all the shiny symbolism and structure I could lay my greedy hands upon These rituals can be anything you want them to be solemn rites or fantasies mystery plays or literary provocations Their reading offers a carnival of images in which to saturate your soul Their performance offers lessons in being in doing and in communitas You may gain as much or as little from them as from a journey on the train Abide for a while and watch the phantasmic flora and fauna glide past the window of your literary vision You will not seem to move yet it will be that you have travelled very far

Memorializing Pearl Harbor Geoffrey M. White, 2016-03-31 Memorializing Pearl Harbor examines the challenge of representing history at the site of the attack that brought America into World War II Analyzing moments in which history is re presented in commemorative events documentary films museum design and educational programming Geoffrey M White shows that the memorial to the Pearl Harbor bombing is not a fixed or singular institution Rather it has become a site in which many histories are performed validated and challenged In addition to valorizing military service and sacrifice the memorial has become a place where Japanese veterans have come to seek recognition and reconciliation where Japanese Americans have sought to correct narratives of racial mistrust and where Native Hawaiians have challenged their ongoing erasure from their own land Drawing on extended ethnographic fieldwork White maps these struggles onto larger controversies about public history museum practices and national memory In Counterpoint Kristine

Suna-Koro,2017-05-01 What does postcoloniality have to do with sacramentality How do diasporic lives and imaginaries shape the course of postcolonial sacramental theology Neither postcolonial theorists nor sacramental theologians have hitherto sought to engage in a sustained dialogue with one another In this trailblazing volume Kristine Suna Koro brings postcolonialism diaspora discourse and Christian sacramental theology into a mutually critical and constructive transdisciplinary conversation Dialoguing with thinkers as diverse as Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak as well as Francis D Sa S J Martin Luther Mayra Rivera and John Chryssavgis the author offers a postcolonial retrieval of sacramentality through a robust theological engagement with the postcolonial notions of hybridity contrapuntality planetarity and Third Space While exploring the methodological potential of diasporic imaginary in theology this innovative book advances the notion of sacramental pluriverse and of Christ as its paradigmatic crescendo within the sacramental economy of creation and redemptive transformation In the context of ecological degradation In Counterpoint argues that it is vital for the postcolonial sacramental renewal to be rooted in ethics as a uniquely postcolonial fundamental theology The Emerald Pearl
