The River Home Dorothy Weil, 2002 We follow along as the family struggles to survive on the river in the midst of the Great Depression BOOK JACKET      River House: A Memoir Sarahlee Lawrence, 2010-10-01 An exquisite blend of memoir and nature writing River House is one young woman's story about returning home An exquisite blend of memoir and nature writing River House is the story of a young woman returning home to her family's ranch and building a log house with the help of her father An avid river rafter Sarahlee Lawrence grew up in remote central Oregon and by the age of twenty one had rafted some of the most dangerous rivers of the world as an accomplished river guide But living her dream led her back to the place she least expected her dusty beginnings and her family's home River House is a beautiful story about a daughter's return and her relationship with her father whom she enlists to help brave the cold winter and build a log house by hand Together they work through the harsh winter father helping daughter every step of the way      Memoir of Gen'l William Wallace Grout and Autobiography of Josiah Grout Josiah Grout, 1919      Historic Homes and Places and Genealogical and Personal Memoirs Relating to the Families of Middlesex County, Massachusetts William Richard Cutter, 1908      "River City": Memoirs of a Combat Chief Information Officer LTC Martin D. Hunt, 2017-09-19 In July 2006 Martin Hunt was a successful software sales professional with a wife two sons a happy life in Seattle and a commitment to the U S Army that he was not sure he'd ever be called on to fulfill A year later he was a resident of Camp Ramadi a dusty outpost at the epicenter of Operation Iraqi Freedom A senior officer surrounded by young men charged with the highly dangerous task of clearing improvised explosive devices from supply routes Hunt soon grew to dread the call River City the code for incoming casualties Trapped between his real life in Seattle visited through Skype and a furlough that seemed over before it began and the hell of River City Hunt provides a window into the paradigm shifting experience of deployment in the War on Terror a story of faith love and life interrupted      By the Rivers of Water Erskine Clarke, 2013-10-08 In early November 1834 an aristocratic young couple from Savannah and South Carolina sailed from New York and began a strange seventeen year odyssey in West Africa Leighton and Jane Wilson sailed along what was for them an exotic coastline visited cities and villages and sometimes ventured up great rivers and followed ancient paths Along the way they encountered not only many diverse landscapes peoples and cultures but also many individuals on their own odysseys including Paul Sansay a former slave from Savannah Mworeh Mah a brilliant Grebo leader and his beautiful daughter Mary Clealand at Cape Palmas and King Glass and the wise and humorous Toko in Gabon Leighton and Jane Wilson had freed their inherited slaves and were to become the most influential American missionaries in West Africa during the first half of the nineteenth century While Jane established schools Leighton fought the international slave trade and the imperialism of colonization He translated portions of the Bible into Grebo and Mpongwe and thereby helped to lay the foundation for the emergence of an indigenous African Christianity The Wilsons returned to New York because of ill health but their odyssey was not over Living in the booming American metropolis the Wilsons welcomed into their handsome home visitors from around the world as they worked for the rapidly expanding Protestant mission movement As the Civil War approached however they heard the siren voice of their Southern homeland calling from deep within their memories They sought to resist its seductions but the call became more insistent and finally irresistible In spite of their years of fighting slavery they gave themselves to a history and a people committed to maintaining slavery and its deep oppression both an act of deep love for a place and people and the desertion of a moral vision A sweeping transatlantic story of good intentions and bitter consequences By the Rivers of Water reveals two distant worlds linked by deep faiths

Memoirs of Mei River chronicles the life of Chu Huainan a protagonist whose youth was shaped by revolutionary ideals fueled by dissatisfaction with the Kuomintang s corruption Believing in a utopian vision of socialist public ownership Chu Huainan endures decades of political upheavals witnessing the rise and fall of state owned enterprises and the unexpected success of private businesses in Mei River The narrative weaves through historical movements such as land reform the Anti Rightist Movement the Cultural Revolution and the reform era reflecting the complexities of societal changes in 20th century China The story explores the paradoxes of Chu Huainan s personal life from family tragedies to ideological conflicts all set against the backdrop of China s rapid economic development As Mei River prospers Chu Huainan confronts the widening wealth gap and questions the efficacy of his lifelong commitment to ideals like public ownership and revolution The novel delves into the struggles of belief systems posing profound inquiries about equity revolution and the inherent injustices of those in power Chu Huainan s tumultuous journey mirroring China s 20th century challenges raises broader philosophical questions about humanity s search for meaning and values The novel prompts readers to reflect on the futility of rigid belief systems in solving the multifaceted problems of human existence leaving Chu Huainan in a state of confusion and existential questioning Through his personal and political tribulations the novel explores themes of benevolence righteousness and tolerance as enduring values necessary for navigating the complexities of life The Pictorial Field-book of the War of 1812

Benson John Lossing,1869 Three Generations in One: My Memoirs Sundar A. Shetty,2019-07-26 This is an incredible story about my childhood and adolescence the one revealing the graphic and disheartening dynamics of growing up and fighting for survival in an unsafe and toxic environment Lived in a cramped home with 18 members of an extended family used a dimly lit kerosene lamp for studies often attended classes hungry and lived with fear in the presence of a ruthless and overly strict father At times I thought that life was worth not living by the absence of fatherly love and lack of basic needs in my life This is a compelling tale of my survival my determination to study and succeed in life and eventual redemption as my destiny took me to Bombay and from there to the United States where I found love peace and happiness and an undying desire to live and succeed     Historic Homes and Institutions and Genealogical and Personal Memoirs of Worcester County, Massachusetts Ellery Bicknell Crane,1907     *Memoirs of Marx D.
