Rivers Of Memory:

Rivers of Memory Harry Middleton, 1993      Rivers, Memory, And Nation-building Dorothy Zeisler-Vralsted, 2014-11-01 Rivers figure prominently in a nation's historical memory and the Volga and Mississippi have special importance in Russian and American cultures Beginning in the pre modern world both rivers served as critical trade routes connecting cultures in an extensive exchange network while also sustaining populations through their surrounding wetlands and bottomlands In modern times Mother Volga and the Father of Waters became integral parts of national identity contributing to a sense of Russian and American exceptionalism Furthermore both rivers were drafted into service as the means to modernize the nation state through hydropower and navigation Despite being forced into submission for modern day hydrological regimes the Volga and Mississippi Rivers persist in the collective memory and continue to offer solace recreation and sustenance Through their histories we derive a more nuanced view of human interaction with the environment which adds another lens to our understanding of the past      Where the River Flows Sean W. Fleming, 2019-08-06 Rivers are essential to every aspect of civilization yet how many understand how they work Fleming takes readers on a journey along our planet's waterways providing a scientist's reflections on the profound interrelationships that rivers have with landscapes ecosystems and societies      Rivers, 1995      Rivers in Russian Literature Margaret Ziolkowski, 2020-11-20 Rivers in Russian Literature focuses on the Russian literary and folkloric treatment of five rivers the Dnieper Volga Neva Don and Angara Each chapter traces within a geographical and historical context the evolution of the literary representation of one river Imagination may endow a river with aesthetic or spiritual qualities ethnic national or racial associations or commercial or agricultural symbolism of many kinds Russian literary responses to these five rivers have much to tell us about the society that produced them as well as the rivers they treat Distributed for UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE PRESS      Memories and Postmemories of the Partition of India Anjali Roy, 2019-07-12 This book examines the afterlife of Partition as imprinted on the memories and postmemories of Hindu and Sikh survivors from West Punjab to foreground the intersection between history memory and narrative It shows how survivors script their life stories to reinscribe tragic tales of violence and abjection into triumphalist sagas of fortitude resilience industry enterprise and success At the same time it reveals the silences stutters and stammers that interrupt survivors narrations to bring attention to the untold stories repressed in their consensual narratives By drawing upon current research in history memory narrative violence trauma affect home nation borders refugees and citizenship the book analyzes the traumatizing effects of both the tangible and intangible violence of Partition by tracing the survivors journey from refugees to citizens as they struggle to make new homes and lives in an unhomely land Moreover arguing that the event of Partition radically transformed the notions of home belonging self and community it shows that individuals affected by Partition produce a new ethics and aesthetic of displacement and embody new ways of being in the world An important contribution to the field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to researchers on South Asian history memory partition and postcolonial studies      Media and Water Joanne Garde-Hansen, 2021-01-14 As flooding drought and water scarcity become more pronounced due to climate change so the way in which these events are presented in the media assumes greater significance In particular the media plays an important role in shaping the public perception and understanding of water issues and debates around extreme weather events more generally Joanne Garde Hansen's book offers a sustained and comprehensive exploration of media representations of water Drawing on a wide range of media including newspapers digital photography radio television and video as well as empirical research on media and memory she examines how drought flooding and water management have been portrayed in the media both historically and in the contemporary world The use of the media by water institutions to manage public perceptions and the use of digital media by the public to engage with water companies is also included A particular feature of the book is an examination of water and gender in developed nations One of the first books to look at media representations of water this pioneering work provides valuable insights for both scholarly and professional water research      The Rivers of Great Britain, Descriptive, Historical, Pictorial, 1889      Fighting for the River Özge Yaka, 2023-08-15 Fighting for the River portrays women's intimate embodied relationships with river waters and explores how those relationships embolden local communities resistance to private run of the river hydroelectric power plants in Turkey Building on extensive ethnographic research zge Yaka develops a body centered phenomenological approach to women's environmental activism and combines it with a relational ontological perspective In this way the book pushes beyond the natural resources frame to demonstrate how our corporeal connection to nonhuman entities is constitutive of our more than human lifeworld Fighting for the River takes the human body as a starting point to explore the connection between lived experience and nonhuman environments treating bodily senses and affects as the media of more than human connectivity and political agency Analyzing local environmental struggles as struggles for coexistence Yaka frames human nonhuman relationality as a matter of socio ecological justice      Critical Memory Studies Brett Ashley Kaplan, 2023-04-06 Bringing together a diverse array of new and established scholars and creative writers in the rapidly expanding field of memory studies this collection creatively delves into the multiple aspects of this wide ranging field Contributors explore race ing memory environmental studies and memory digital memory monuments memorials and museums and memory and trauma Organised around 7 sections this book examines memory in a global context from Kashmir and Chile to the US and UK Featuring contributions on topics such as the Black Lives Matter movement the AIDS crisis and memory and the anthropocene this book traces and consolidates the field while analysing and charting some of the most current and cutting edge work as well as new directions that could be taken
