Rivers Running Free Stories Of Adventurous Women:

Rivers Running Free Judith Niemi, Barb Wieser, 1987 This collection of women's memoirs of canoeing experiences comes as a welcome alternative to the many outdoors books that seem geared to men. Despite the differences in time and setting from 1905 to the 1980s from Mexico to the Hudson Bay many of the contributions share a common theme that of women shedding societal roles and surviving by their wits and strength. Many of the accounts are compelling but some are couched in New Age jargon that blunts their impact. I feel my center reach out to meet tap mingle with give to that water energy. The editorializing could be more literate and the book's chummy tone seems more appropriate to a community newsletter. Still this collection is sure to give much needed inspiration to readers who have felt that the wilderness couldn't be enjoyed by the weaker sex. Pub desc Every Trail Has a Story Bob Henderson, 2005-03-07 Canada is packed with intriguing destinations where heritage and landscape interact. Bob Henderson captures our living history and its relationship to the land.

Woman's Way Through Unknown Labrador Mina Benson Hubbard, Sherrill E Grace, 2004-05-19 In 1903 Hubbard's husband Leonidas starved to death on his cartographic and ethnographic expedition to Labrador. Hubbard decided to complete her husband's work becoming a skilled explorer and cartographer in her own right. She set out in July 1905 and with the help of George Elson a Métis guide who had been employed by her husband on the original trip and three other guides completed her expedition in record time with significant results including completing the first accurate map of the Labrador river system thus correcting the earlier map that had led to her husband's death. Her original photographs and the map are reproduced in this volume.

The Wilderness Paddler's Handbook Alan S. Kesselheim, 2012-11-13 The Wilderness Paddler's Handbook offers paddlers of any stripe Alan Kesselheim's personal engaging writing and his unsurpassed experience. Helpful sidebars interspersed throughout the book provide step by step instructions on all critical technical considerations. Everything a new or experienced paddler can expect to encounter is included from trip planning choosing the right gear and packing to camping cooking modifying your boat and dealing with conditions on every kind of water. Whether it's how to pick the right partner negotiate a tricky rapid go solo or bring the entire family it's all here in this entertaining inspiring and informative guide. Alan Kesselheim has paddled thousands of wilderness miles alone with his wife Marypat and with his young children strapped into the canoe like babies in car seats. He's paddled fast moving rivers windswept lakes and quiet ponds. One trip took him on a 13 month 2000 mile journey from Grande Cache Alberta to Baker Lake in the Northwest Territories. He's also one of North America's preeminent canoeing writers and his hard won opinions are highly respected.
