Road From Ardoyne:

Belfast '69 Andrew Walsh, 2017-05-17 August 1969 Belfast A campaign for civil rights in Northern Ireland that had begun less than two years previously degenerates into inter communal violence The three days of 13 14 and 15 August changed the course of Northern Irish history by radicalising a whole generation of Catholic youths On the Protestant side the Ulster Volunteer Force UVF revived in 1966 but barely mentioned outside Shankill Road was in full conflict by 1972 How did the events of August 1969 radicalise the emerging youth of both sides of the religious divide How did they drive an otherwise indifferent generation to carry out some of the most heinous crimes in Irish history and become embroiled in the longest period of Irish Troubles to date In Belfast 69 Andrew Walsh uncovers the truth by interviewing many from both sides the young men who joined the numerous armies that sprung up in the wake of that fateful August Illustrations 41 colour photographs

Refugees and Forced Displacement in Northern Ireland's Troubles Niall Gilmartin, Brendan Ciarán Browne, 2022-10-15 Though forced displacement constituted a central and pervasive feature of the Northern Ireland Troubles effecting tens of thousands of citizens remarkably it has been afforded little more than a footnote or fleeting reference in most accounts of the conflict This book seeks to end the silence surrounding this neglected and ubiquitous aspect of the conflict Based on 88 in depth qualitative interviews with victims and survivors and extensive secondary research this fascinating study provides the first comprehensive examination of forced displacement in Northern Ireland The analysis presented captures the unique perspectives of those forcibly uprooted over the course of the 30 year conflict and places on historical record their stories and experiences This thought provoking work challenges and broadens prevailing understandings of conflict related violence harm and loss in Northern Ireland to demonstrate the centrality of forced movement territory and demographics to the roots and subsequent trajectory of the Troubles In doing so it shows that to fully understand the eruption and outplaying of the Troubles and its elusive peace engagement with and understanding of the legacy of forced displacement is crucial

Wales, Isle of Man & Ireland, Post 1945 Peter Waller, 2020-01-31 This is the fourth book in a series that covers the history of the tram systems of the British Isles post war It covers the networks in Wales the Isle of Man and Ireland Peter Waller examines the history of the tramways in Ireland Wales and on the Isle of Man With three different legislative frameworks the history of the systems covered are very different from the surviving horse tramway at Douglas on the Isle of Man through to the new Luas system operating in Dublin With an overview that provides the background to all of the tramways that once operated plus the only tramway in the Channel Islands alongside a comprehensive account of those systems that survived after 1945 the book is a fascinating portrait of the changing streetscapes of cities like Belfast and Cardiff as well as the remarkable survivor post war such as the Bessbrook Newry and the Llandudno Colwyn Bay Fully illustrated throughout with mono and colour illustrations many of which have never been published before as well as system maps the book will be of interest to all with a history of trams past and present in the British Isles

Power, Politics and Territory in the 'New Northern Ireland' Elizabeth DeYoung, 2023-10-15 Winner of the ACIS Donald Murphy Prize for Distinguished First Book 2023 In the wake of the Good Friday Agreement the redevelopment of the former Girdwood Army Barracks in North Belfast was hailed as a symbol of hope for Northern Ireland It was a major investment in a former conflict zone and an internationally significant peacebuilding project Instead of adhering to the tenets of the Agreement sectarianism dominated the regeneration agenda Throughout the process politicians community groups and paramilitaries wrangled over the site's future and territorial contest won out over housing need After eleven years of negotiation and 11.7 million the EU funded Girdwood Community Hub opened its doors to the public in 2016 but its impact has been underwhelming The Hub's redevelopment is a microcosm of the peace process itself and the ways in which post Agreement politics have failed to deliver a shared future for the people of Northern Ireland twenty five years on This ethnography provides a lively account of Girdwood's redevelopment and a wry critique of the fractious political context around it Through flânerie and encounter the author brings us across peace walls into community meetings and behind the scenes of decision making in Northern Ireland Girdwood's story also sheds light on how power politics and territory intersect in divided cities globally

Irish Builder and Engineer, 1925 On Narrow Ground Scott A. Bollens, 2000-01-06 Uses case studies of Jerusalem and Belfast to explore how cities function in the midst of nationalistic conflict

Bloody Belfast Ken Wharton, 2011-11-08 Former soldier Ken Wharton witnessed the troubles in Northern Ireland first hand Bloody Belfast is a fascinating oral history given a chilling insight into the killing grounds of Belfast's streets Wharton's work is based on first hand accounts from the soldiers The reader can walk the darkened dangerous streets of the Lower Falls the Divis Flats and New Lodge alongside the soldiers who braved the hate filled mobs on the newer but no less violent streets of the Murph Turf Lodge and Andersonstown The author has interviewed UDR soldier Glen Espie who survived being ambushed and shot by the IRA not once but twice and Army Dog Handler Dougie Durrant who through the incredible ability of his dog tracked an IRA gunman fresh from the murder of a soldier to where he was sitting in a hot bath in the Turf Lodge desperately trying to wash away the forensic evidence Wharton's reputation for honesty established from previous works has encouraged more former soldiers of Britain's forgotten army to come forward to tell their stories of Bloody Belfast The book continues the story of his previous work presenting the truth about a conflict which has sometimes been deliberately underplayed by the Establishment

Aid, Insurgencies and Conflict Transformation Robert Kevlihan, 2013 This book examines the circumstances under which aid can contribute to the management and transformation of intra state conflicts How and when do insurgents govern How does the presence of aid and social services influence how insurgents govern Under what circumstances can aid contribute to the management and transformation of civil wars The established literature in this area argues that aid exacerbates civil wars where resources are scarce as greedy rebels steal resources for themselves This book however argues that under certain conditions such greed can be good Drawing on primary research from three very different conflicts Northern Ireland 1969 1998 southern Sudan 1983 2005 and Tajikistan 1992 1997 and more than 10 years experience working in and researching humanitarian crises this study breaks new ground through its wide ranging comparison of conflicts The book argues that insurgent efforts to reap rewards from aid and social services have in turn facilitated organizational changes and that these changes while they may have had conflict enhancing effects in the short term have also contributed to conflict transformation over the long term This book will be of much interest to students of insurgencies civil wars comparative politics conflict management humanitarian emergencies public health and IR Security Studies in general Records of the Proceedings and Printed Papers of the Parliament Australia. Parliament,1921 The Aesthetics of Global Protest Aidan McGarry,Itir Erhart,Hande Eslen-Ziya,Olu Jenzen,Umut Korkut,2025-10-01 Protestors across the world use aesthetics in order to communicate their ideas and ensure their voices are heard This book looks at protest aesthetics which we consider to be the visual and performative elements of protest such as images symbols graffiti art as well as the choreography of protest actions in public spaces Through the use of social media protestors have been able to create an alternative space for people to engage with politics that is more inclusive and participatory than traditional politics This volume focuses on the role of visual culture in a highly mediated environment and draws on case studies from Europe Thailand South Africa USA Argentina and the Middle East in order to demonstrate how protestors use aesthetics to communicate their demands and ideas It examines how digital media is harnessed by protestors and argues that all protest aesthetics are performative and communicative Betrayal Stewart Binns,2018-02-08 Brilliant An explosive thriller with true authenticity Tom Marcus bestselling author of Soldier Spy January 1981 They re undercover in Belfast Determined to put an end to a war But in doing so who will they betray Jim Dowd and Maureen O'Brien special forces soldiers enter a bitterly divided Belfast with a mission to go undercover infiltrate one of the city's most dangerous Catholic neighbourhoods and help change the course of a war that nobody is winning The Ardoyne is a perilous world where even a hint of their true identities will prove fatal But it is also full of courage and loyalty and Jim realises he admires this community and his guilt at their deception grows ever stronger When they receive shocking orders Maureen knows they must act swiftly and ruthlessly but can she rely on Jim And if they rebel are they betraying their country or are they being betrayed Stunningly realistic A must read for anyone who cares about the history of our islands Nick Hewer The Road from Ardoyne Ray Mac Mánaís,2004 Mary McAleese Ireland's President has a longstanding interest in many issues concerned with justice equality social inclusion anti sectarianism and reconciliation She was a member of the Catholic Church Episcopal Delegation to the New Ireland Forum in 1984 and she was a founder member of the Irish Commission for the Prisoners Overseas on 11 November 1997 she became the first President to come from Northern Ireland and has enjoyed a remarkably high approval rating in opinion polls Springvale

Educational Village Project Great Britain. Northern Ireland Audit Office, Northern Ireland: Northern Ireland Audit Office, 2006-11-30 The project to build a higher education campus at Springvale in Belfast was first proposed in 1993 and in 1997 the University of Ulster and the Belfast Institute for Further and Higher Education submitted a joint proposal to the Department of Education in Northern Ireland to build three educational facilities on the site including a campus for 3 000 students covering higher and future education courses This project was designed to develop partnerships between educational providers and local communities to address the particular educational cultural and social needs of West and North Belfast as well as benefiting Northern Ireland in general It was also intended to promote regeneration in an area marked by significant economic and social deprivation and educational underachievement However in October 2002 the University announced its withdrawal from the project due to financial concerns over its affordability At this point over nine million pounds had been spent on the project with one of the three planned facilities a community outreach centre built and functional This NIAO report examines the development and management of the project to identify lessons to be drawn for the future and overall it concludes that given the length of time spent developing this project and the major public and private funding commitments involved it should have been handled much better particularly in terms of risk management Key lessons highlighted include the need for an agreed and clear strategic vision from the outset a single independent body established to oversee project management where two or more institutions are involved and better communication with local communities on the risks involved to promote realistic community expectations

Memoranda as to the Council and Its Committees and General Information Belfast (Northern Ireland). Council, 1925 Parliamentary Debates House of Commons Official Report Northern Ireland. Parliament. House of Commons, 1953 Where Grieving Begins Patrick Magee, 2021-02-20 An enduring peace is only possible through a genuine understanding of the past To understand the Troubles is to set them in the context of the historical root causes of the conflict in order to grapple with its pain and its horrors to grieve and then perhaps to heal This is the memoir of Patrick Magee the man who planted the 1984 Brighton bomb an attempt by the Provisional IRA to kill the British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and her cabinet In an unflinching reckoning with the past Magee recounts the events of his life He chronicles the profound experience of meeting Jo Berry whose father was one of five people killed in the bombing and the extraordinary work they have done together A chasm of misunderstanding endures around the Troubles and the history of British rule in Ireland This memoir builds a bridge to a common understanding It is written in the belief that anything is possible when there is honesty inclusion and dialogue
