Wiesner, 2015-04-14 Rod JoJo Jon and Blackie four gypsies on a solitary road until love throws a fork in their paths They both want what they can't have each other Blackie Scarpacchio has had hard lessons kicked in him from birth leaving him cynical and afraid to trust in love Lori Gordon has loved Blackie all her life After one stolen night together he'd torn her soul in two when he admitted their relationship was based on vows he'd made to her father Five years later she's come home to discover that absence has made her heart grow fonder Blackie doesn't know how to deal with his own unresolved feelings But when Lori starts receiving threats his protectiveness thrusts him into constant contact and reborn needs

Narrating a New Mobility Landscape in the Modern American Road Story, 1893-1921 Andrew Vogel, 2024-05-09 This book examines travel narratives as a medium used by the American public to imagine and negotiate new ways to live in, move through and share national space Setting an array of archival material including congressional deliberations into analytical conversation with road stories by Walt Whitman Paul Laurence Dunbar Upton Sinclair Emily Post Zitkala a Henry Ford and many others this book reframes our understanding of the origins of American automobility The evidence gathered here sheds light on the processes by which the defining social infrastructure of the twentieth century came to be enacted and also exposes the fraught debates and abiding misgivings that continue to roil infrastructure planning today The insights captured in this study purposefully deepen our attention to questions of land use and collective responsibility at a moment when the ecological and social justice consequences of American automobility must be thoroughly re-evaluated so that more conscientious mobility futures may be developed

The Sky Is Smiling Kevin Munro, 2015-04 I was released from an in-patient mental health ward in early March 2006 A trophy pictured in the preface of this book displays the date July 23 2006 as the initial USA competition poetry award That date marks the deadline of the period required for a poem to be created entered and judged All that was left for application after my 20 years of post grad training was creative writing My hidden hope was to offer in a real way an apology via deed to all those who encountered me when I was unwell There is something strange regarding that period's legal progress since society so easily ignores this as dealing with madness My elderly mother watched as my life appeared to unravel but always offered support In 2009 as she lay upon her deathbed in hospital she held the first volume for which she was my sounding board She smiled and said Well at least you have a little hope appearing now These works you hold are the collated works of this period of hurtful outpour and are continuous from early 2006 until late 2014

Netted Rainbows Kevin Munro, 2014-11-20 In 2005 after 20 years of working for an Australian State Government Schools Teaching Service author Kevin Munro suffered a severe bipolar nervous breakdown To keep up his literary skills he began to write In Netted Rainbows Munro documents his illness through poems he wrote between 2005 and 2009 in Sydney Australia His record is filled with the pain of bipolar disorder complete with the mania and depression he suffered and overcame He challenges readers to identify the different stages of his illness through reading his works and believes they could come away being a lay professional

of the Red Army June 22 Mao's Road to Power: Revolutionary Writings, 1912-49: v. 3: From the Jinggangshan to the Establishment of the Jiangxi Soviets, July 1927-December 1930 Zedong Mao, Nancy J. Hodes, 2018-04-17 This projected ten volume edition of Mao Zedong's writings provides abundant documentation in his own words regarding his life and thought. It has been compiled from all available Chinese sources including the many new texts that appeared in 1993 Mao's centenary.

Roads and Vagabonds Kenneth Hare, 1930 Rubber Quentin R. Skrabec, Jr., 2014-01-10 The rubber industry was born in bankruptcy and built through bankruptcies. As this history details many of the great rubber barons Charles Goodyear, Harvey Firestone, B. F. Goodrich, F. A. Seiberling found themselves or their companies in bankruptcy courts. Fortunately, the industry has always proven as elastic as its product. From the early search for an American location to process the rubber of the tropics to the collapse of the industry, this is the story of rubber in America. The Book of Gallant Vagabonds Henry Beston, 1925 Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell, Robert S. Littell, 1884 The Living Age, 1884

Littell's Living Age, 1920 Vagabond's Road Halliwell Sutcliffe, 1934 A Japanese Vagabond Mayumi Yamada-Shimotai, 2014-04-21 In 1986 Mayumi left Japan with a bicycle to flee from constraints of life as a Japanese girl. Without a plan nor travelling experiences, she kept pedalling around the globe during the final epoch of the Cold War for about 35 000 kilometres, facing various kinds of difficulties and taking advantage of people's goodwill. This is the travel story of about the first half of her drifting passage from Japan up to the last stop in South America, Brazil, in which there are clues to interpret the enigma of Japan and Japanese as well as a cross section of Latin America in the Cold War era. The Autobiography of Ousâma Usâmah ibn Munqidh, 1929 Chasing Empire across the Sea Kenneth J. Banks, 2002-11-21 Banks defines and applies the concept of communications in a far broader context than previous historical studies of communication encompassing a range of human activity from sailing routes to mapping to presses to building roads and bridges. He employs a comparative analysis of early modern French imperialism, integrating three types of overseas possessions usually considered separately: the settlement colony, New France, the tropical monoculture colony, the French Windward Islands, and the early Enlightenment planned colony, Louisiana, offering a work of synthesis that unites the historiographies and insights from three formerly separate historical literatures. Banks challenges the very notion that a concrete empire emerged by the first half of the eighteenth century; in fact, French colonies remained largely isolated arenas of action and development. Only with the contraction and concentration of overseas possessions after 1763, on the Plantation Complex, did a more cohesive if fleeting French empire first emerge. Contemporary Review, 1878 World Enough Charles Stickney, 2001-05 Boating down Nepali rivers, tracking rhinos on foot and on elephant back, seeing the Buddha light at dawn in Peru's Machu Picchu and from a sacred mountain peak in China, smoking opium in Thailand's Golden Triangle, worshipping in the Jokhang Temple in Lhasa just after Tibet was opened to Westerners, and having a pistol pulled on him in Kabul just before Afghanistan and Iran were closed to Westerners by revolutions and wars. By camel in Rajahstan and

Morocco by elephant in Thailand and Nepal by bike in Sri Lanka paddleboat in Kashmir yacht in Panama motorcycle in Japan jammed minivan in Java rickshaw in Jaipur by thumb in the US horse in Mexico water buffalo in India and on foot everywhere and often Dr Stickney invites you along on his travels country by country many of them several times over the years
