

This irregularly shaped canvas, whose bottom edge is parallel with the floor, has been painted with a roller. One of a series of twenty-eight and named after the Greek poet in the Metropolitan Museum in New York, this Minimalist work has no image, suggests no emotion and is without movement. Mangold deliberately obscures a precise geometric form to question the way in which we perceive things. Often more interested in the preparation of an idea than in carrying it into a work of art, Mangold is fascinated by works made up of sections put together to make a whole, and he likes an element of visual illusion. Through the years Mangold's painting has been highly varied and has included spray-painted visual puns and works on canvas which explore geometric proportions in natural shape and motion. In the 1970s he took on a more lyrical palette reminiscent of Piet Mondrian.

Levy, 2019-05-07 This book undertakes a critical reappraisal of Minimalism through an examination of three key painters Robert Mangold David Novros and Jo Baer By establishing their substantive engagements with Minimalist discourse as well as their often overlooked artistic exchanges with their sculptor peers it demonstrates that painting crucially informed the movement s development serving not only as an object of critique but also as a crucible for its most central tenets It also poses broader disciplinary implications as it historicizes and challenges Minimalism s death of painting critiques that have been so influential to theories of modernism and postmodernism in the visual arts Recipient of the Alexej von Jawlensky-Award Robert Mangold, 1998 This catalogue to the exhibition at the Kunstverein St Gallen focuses on the work of American artist Robert Mangold who occupies a key position in today s painting world This broad survey is of considerable significance within the context of discourse on contemporary non relational painting and presents the Mangold s paintings from 1984 to 1997 in full color well reproduced plates
