Robert Burns Samuel Tyler,2018-03-13 Excerpt from Robert Burns As a Poet and as a Man There is a spirit of romance in the heart of man that is ever striving after something better than the realities of life This spirit is allied to the noblest faculties of the soul and as it is native to the mind must be gratified in some way There must be a literature in which it is embodied in order by its representations to satisfy its cravings It is this spirit which writes novels and it is this spirit which reads them And novel reading is the literary bane of this age It renders the mind superficial and far worse it renders the heart superficial The representations of novels do not touch the deeper and more solemn sympathies of the heart Even in its highest form the novel is an inferior species of literature Easy in its narrative interesting in its incidents requiring no effort to fix the attention upon its rehearsals it draws the mind off from the monotony of life and pleases for the moment But when the fictitious visions pass from before the eyes there is nothing of permanent truth left in either the mind or the heart We pass into an apathy like that after a revel About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Robert Burns Samuel Tyler,2013-10 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book ROBERT BURNS AS A POET & AS A MAN Samuel 1809-1877 Tyler,2016-08-28 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We
