Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing Danielle Taschereau Mamers, 2023-12-05 An innovative analysis of Indigenous strategies for overcoming the settler state How do bureaucratic documents create and reproduce a state's capacity to see What kinds of worlds do documents help create Further how might such documentary practices and settler colonial ways of seeing be refused Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing investigates how the Canadian state has used documents lists and databases to generate make visible and invisible Indigenous identity With an archive of legislative documents registration forms identity cards and reports Danielle Taschereau Mamers traces the political and media history of Indian status in Canada demonstrating how paperwork has been used by the state to materialize identity categories in the service of colonial governance Her analysis of bureaucratic artifacts is led by the interventions of Indigenous artists including Robert Houle Nadia Myre Cheryl L Hirondele and Rebecca Belmore Bringing together media theories of documentation and the strategies of these artists Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing develops a method for identifying how bureaucratic documents mediate power relations as well as how those relations may be disobeyed and re imagined By integrating art led inquiry with media theory and settler colonial studies approaches Taschereau Mamers offers a political and media history of the documents that have reproduced Indian status More importantly she provides us with an innovative guide for using art as a method of theorizing decolonial political relations This is a crucial book for any reader interested in the intersection of state archives settler colonial studies and visual culture in the context of Canada's complex and violent relationship with Indigenous peoples

Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L. Horton, 2017-05-18 In Art for an Undivided Earth Jessica L Horton reveals how the spatial philosophies underlying the American Indian Movement AIM were refigured by a generation of artists searching for new places to stand Upending the assumption that Jimmie Durham James Luna Kay WalkingStick Robert Houle and others were primarily concerned with identity politics she joins them in remapping the coordinates of a widely shared yet deeply contested modernity that is defined in great part by the colonization of the Americas She follows their installations performances and paintings across the ocean and back in time as they retrace the paths of Native diplomats scholars performers and objects in Europe after 1492 Along the way Horton intervenes in a range of theories about global modernisms Native American sovereignty racial difference archival logic artistic itinerancy and new materialisms Writing in creative dialogue with contemporary artists she builds a picture of a spatially temporally and materially interconnected world an undivided earth

Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well

Curatorship, 1996-01-01 Museums and cultural centres play an important role in the re emergence of cultural autonomy in indigenous societies The May 1994 symposium Curatorship Indigenous Perspectives in Post Colonial Societies examined the realignment of relationships between indigenous and non indigenous peoples of the Commonwealth in the context of traditional museum practices It supported the right of Indigenous peoples to control the management of their cultural heritage and underlined the need for redefining museum models Published in English
