Robert Mondavi Winery:

A Tasting of Robert Mondavi Wines Robert Mondavi Winery, 1991 Robert Mondavi of the Napa Valley Cyril Ray, 1984 Robert Mondavi Winery, 2001 Robert Mondavi Winery, 2001* Harvests of Joy Robert Mondavi, Paul Chutkow, 1998 The dramatic story of the creation of one of the world's great wineries and a revolution in the wine business by the man who started it all at the age of 52 of photos Harvests of Joy Robert Mondavi, 1999-10-07 A true story of midlife transformation by the Napa Valley entrepreneur who put California's wine industry on the map In 1965 after a notorious family feud Robert Mondavi then fifty-two years old was thrown out of his family's winery Far from defeated Mondavi was dedicated to a vision of creating a superior wine What has happened since that fateful day is one of the greatest success stories of American business Today the Robert Mondavi Winery is one of the most respected in the world and Mondavi is the man who is most responsible for the worldwide recognition of American wine making as well as changing America's palate for fine wine and food In Harvests of Joy Mondavi shares how his passion for excellence helped him to achieve this extraordinary position one he reached not without pain and sacrifice With invaluable insider tips on his approach to both wine making and running a business Mondavi's inspirational story is a grand example of the fact that in America you can pretty much be do or accomplish whatever you set out to Ventura County Star Robert Mondavi Winery Margrit Biever, Andy Katz Photography, 2002 The House of Mondavi Julia Flynn Siler, 2007-06-19 An epic scandal plagued story of the immigrant family that built and then spectacularly lost a global wine empire Set in California's lush Napa Valley and spanning four generations of a talented and visionary family The House of Mondavi is a tale of genius sibling rivalry and betrayal From 1906 when Italian immigrant Cesare Mondavi passed through Ellis Island to the Robert Mondavi Corp's twenty-first century battle over a billion dollar fortune award-winning journalist Julia Flynn brings to life both the place and the people in this riveting family drama The blood feuds are as spectacular as the business triumphs Cesare's sons Robert and Peter literally came to blows in the 1960s during a dispute touched off by the purchase of a mink coat resulting in Robert's exile from the family and his subsequent founding of a winery that would set off a revolution in American winemaking Robert's sons Michael and Timothy as passionate in their own ways as their visionary father waged battle with each other for control of the company before Michael's expansive ambitions ultimately led to a board coup and the sale of the business to an international conglomerate A meticulously reported narrative based on thousands of hours of interviews The House of Mondavi is bound to become a classic A Tasting of Robert Mondavi Wines Robert Mondavi, International Wine and Food Society, 1986* Case Study: Robert Mondavi and The Wine Industry Vita Bataitis, 2005-09-24 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade A 1 0 Emerson College Integrated Marketing Communications course Marketing Management language English abstract The size of the global wine industry ranged from 130 180 billion in the beginning of the twenty-first century with an average growth rate of 1 2% per year since 1994 In general this market is very fragmented because no company has reached more than one per cent of global retail sales in 2001 In order to describe this industry it is necessary to separate between two different wine markets the New World and the Old World The international wine industry has been undergoing a significant restructuring The Old World producers such as Italy France Spain and Germany no longer dominate the global wine industry as they once did No longer are the New World producers such as Australia New Zealand South Africa and USA regarded with disrespect and underestimate However there are still great differences between the two worlds regarding consumption production and innovation France Italy and Spain share alone 75 percent of the worldwide wine production and consumption A significant increase of the New World production could be noticed during the last two decades According to the World Wine Statistics the wine production has increased considerable especially in the New World countries from the average of 1997 2000 and 2001 for example Australia by 34 77% China by 57 03% and South Africa by 15 78% for details please see Appendix Table 1 Furthermore we can see an expansion of the vineyard acreage in the New World countries Australia for instance has increased its acreage from 1991 to 1999 by 89 23% and the United States by 13 39% please see Appendix Table 3 Another significant increase of the wine consumption can be noticed in China with 52 88% in 2001 vs 1997 2000 please see Appendix Table 2 From 2002 to 2003 the Global Wine market has shown a total increase of only 0 2% and has presented 2 45 billion cases These facts show the enormous growing competition in the wine industry Especially the New World producers were able to establish strong brands as well as to demonstrate a great wine quality through new technologies and intensive marketing They are now taking market shares away from the Old World which leads to the decline of the European wine market In addition it becomes harder to differentiate and emphasize this product It is interesting to see how the table wine market is segmented

Charles Sullivan's Napa Wine: A History is the engaging story of the rise to prominence of what many believe to be the greatest winegrowing area in the Western hemisphere. This new edition completes that picture, bringing to light more than a decade of dramatic changes and shifted norms visited upon the valley from phylloxera-wasted vineyards to High Court officiated territorial battles told in a rousing transportive narrative. Beginning in 1817 with the movement of Spanish missions into the San Francisco Bay area, Sullivan winds his way through the great wine boom of the late 19th century, the crippling effect of Prohibition, and Napa's rise out of its havoc to its eventual rivaling of Bordeaux in the judgments of 1976 and 2006. Published in cooperation with the Napa Valley Wine Library, the book includes historic maps, charts of vineyard ownership, and vintages from the 1880s to the present. Leading Firms and Wine Clusters Lorenzo Zanni, 2004. The House of Mondavi Julia Flynn Siler, 2007. An epic scandal-plagued story of the immigrant family that built and then spectacularly lost a global wine empire. Award-winning journalist Julia Flynn Siler brings to life both the place and the people in this riveting family drama. The Makers of American Wine Thomas Pinney, 2012-05-07. Praise for Thomas Pinney's A History of Wine in America: Exhaustively researched, invaluable to serious scholars of the grape. Fascinating reading. San Francisco Chronicle. Revealing a sharp eye for detail and a dry, low-key wit, Pinney writes in an engaging style and with remarkable clarity. Wine Spectator. Definitive, an important work of historical literature. Wine Spirits. An indispensable view of a remarkable time. Decanter. The Wines of the Napa Valley Larry Walker, 2005-03-17. California-based wine expert Larry Walker offers in-depth reference on the wines of one of the world's most prominent wine-producing regions, the Napa Valley. He explores the history of this region and gives a full description of the grape varieties, viticulture, and winemaking techniques, and recommends vintages to look out for. He also details the top producers and their wines and includes a topical discussion on recent wine developments in this region. Oz Clarke's Pocket Wine Guide 2010 Oz
