tales of man's inhumanity to man which are related in the pages of this book In the early centuries superstition and ignorance were often the means by which justice was meted out If it was believed that a crime had taken place a person could be tried condemned and hanged by the side of the road on nothing more than the statement of a neighbor The nineteenth century saw the development of the coal industry This brought thousands of impoverished men looking for work Sadly the wages were often spent on alcohol and women were often nothing more than punching bags for the drunken abusive husbands as is the case of Dorothy Wilthew who was murdered at Jarrow by her husband after years of abuse Other cases include Joseph Hutchinson who murdered his brother and father at Sedgefield later he was found to be insane a child was kidnapped and later murdered by Isabella Thompson at Bishop Auckland and Maria Fitzmmons was found stabbed to death in Sunderland in 1869 it was to be 13 years before her killer Thomas Fury was convicted of the crime Take a journey into the darker and unknown side of your area as you read Foul Deeds and Suspicious Deaths in and Around Durham

Foul Deeds & Suspicious Deaths Around Uxbridge Jonathan Oates, 2008-11-20 This west London town has its own character and its own deadly criminal history from the author of Unsolved Murders of Victorian and Edwardian London Foul Deeds Suspicious Deaths Around Uxbridge takes the reader on a sinister and sad journey through centuries of local crime and conspiracy meeting victims and villains of all sorts along the way There is no shortage of harrowing and revealing incidents of evil and despair to recount from the earliest recorded history of the Uxbridge district up to the present day

Jonathan Oates's fascinating research has uncovered some grisly events and unsavory individuals whose conduct throws a harsh light on the history of this suburban area west of London. His book records crime and punishment in all its dreadful variety. Among many acts of violence and wickedness are the burning to death of five Protestant martyrs and the execution of a turbulent priest in Tudor times, a family massacred at Denham in 1870 and several brutal murders that have never been solved or explained. Cases that stand out as particularly shocking or bizarre include a son who was killed by his mother, a woman who died after an illegal operation, the Uxbridge tea shop murder of 1951 and a man tried for manslaughter and later murder in West Drayton who committed suicide two decades later. This chronicle of Uxbridge's hidden history will be compelling reading for anyone who is interested in the local history of the area and in the dark side of human nature.

In the Shadow of Gotham Stefanie Pintoff, 2009-04-28 In the Shadow of Gotham is the winner of the 2010 Edgar Award for Best First Novel. Dobson New York 1905 Detective Simon Ziele lost his fiancée in the General Slocum ferry disaster; a thousand perished on that summer day in 1904 when an onboard fire burned the boat down in the waters of the East River. Still reeling from the tragedy, Ziele transferred to a police department north of New York to escape the city and all the memories it conjured. But only a few months into his new life in a quiet country town, he's faced with the most shocking homicide of his career to date: Young Sarah Wingate has been brutally murdered in her own bedroom in the middle of an otherwise calm and quiet winter afternoon. After just one day of investigation, Simon's contacted by Columbia University's noted criminologist Alistair Sinclair, who offers a startling claim about one of his patients, Michael Fromley: that the facts of the murder bear an uncanny resemblance to Fromley's deranged mutterings. But what would have led Fromley, with his history of violent behavior and brutal fantasies, to seek out Sarah, a notable mathematics student and a proper young lady who has little in common with his previous targets? Is Fromley really a murderer, or is someone mimicking him? This is what Simon Ziele must find out with the help of the brilliant but self-interested Alistair Sinclair before the killer strikes again. With this taut, atmospheric and original story of a haunted man who must search for a killer while on the run from his own demons, Stefanie Pintoff's In the Shadow of Gotham marks the debut of an outstanding new talent. The inaugural winner of the Minotaur Books Mystery Writers of America Best First Crime Novel Competition.
