Sarilaya Women In Arts Media:

Sarilaya Mary John Mananzan, Asuncion Azcuna, Fe Mangahas, 1989 Women in Asia Louise Edwards, Mina Roces, 2020-07-25

Women in Asia Tradition Modernity and Globalisation surveys the transformation in the status of women since 1970 in a diverse range of nations Malaysia China Indonesia Singapore the Philippines India Taiwan Vietnam Hong Kong Korea Japan and Burma Within these 13 national case studies the book presents new arguments about being women being Asian and being modern in contemporary Asia Recent social changes in women's place in society are untangled in recognition that not all change is progress and that not all modernity enhances women's status The authors suggest that the improvements in women's status within the Asian region vary dramatically according to the manner in which women interact with the particular economic and ideological forces in each nation Each contributor has focussed on a particular country in their area of expertise They present innovative arguments relating to the problem of being women in Asia during a period of dramatic social and political changes Each national case study explores key social and economic markers of women's status such as employment rates wage differentials literacy rates and participation in politics or business The effects of population control programs legislation on domestic violence and female infanticide and women's role in the family and the workforce are also discussed The book poses questions as to how women have negotiated these shifts and in the process created a modern Asian woman Specialists from a variety of disciplines including history anthropology sociology demography gender studies and psychology grapple with the complexities and ambivalences presented by the multiple faces of the modern Asian woman Complete with a list of recommended readings and a web site with links to electronic resources the book will be of particular interest to undergraduate students of Asian studies and women's studies as well as scholars and postgraduate students interested in comparative women's studies Bewitching Women, Pious Men Aihwa Ong, Michael G. Peletz, 1995-09-07

This impressive array of essays considers the contingent and shifting meanings of gender and the body in contemporary Southeast Asia By analyzing femininity and masculinity as fluid processes rather than social or biological givens the authors provide new ways of understanding how gender intersects with local national and transnational forms of knowledge and power Contributors cut across disciplinary boundaries and draw on fresh fieldwork and textual analysis including newspaper accounts radio reports and feminist writing Their subjects range widely the writings of feminist Filipinas Thai stories of widow ghosts eye witness accounts of a beheading narratives of bewitching genitals recalcitrant husbands and market women as femmes fatales Geographically the essays cover Singapore Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and the Philippines The essays bring to this region the theoretical insights of gender theory political economy and cultural studies Gender and other forms of inequality and difference emerge as changing systems of symbols and meanings Bodies are explored as sites of political economic and cultural transformation The issues raised in these pages make important connections between behavior bodies domination and resistance in this dynamic and vibrant region Amazons of the
