Social Change and Planning , Migration, Trauma and Identity in Modern Indian Novels Dr. Keshav Nath, Dr. Nidhi Sharma, Drawing on a wealth of research personal stories and clinical insights this book offers a nuanced and compassionate look at the profound impact of trauma on identity It invites readers to explore the complex ways in which trauma can influence our beliefs behaviors relationships and sense of purpose as well as the challenges and opportunities that arise when we seek to reclaim our sense of self after trauma From the lasting impact of childhood abuse to the challenges of navigating cultural and societal expectations the book offers a deep and insightful exploration of the many ways in which trauma can shape identity It also offers practical tools and strategies for those who are grappling with the aftermath of trauma and for those who support them Ultimately this book is a powerful exploration of the ways in which trauma can shape our identities and our lives It is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and a call to action for greater understanding and empathy

A Reflexive Reading of Urban Space Mona A.

Abdelwahab,2018-02-13 Providing a critique of the concepts attached to the representation of urban space this ground breaking book formulates a new theory of space which understands the dynamic interrelations between physical and social spaces while tracing the wider urban context It offers a new tool to approach the reading of these interrelations through reflexive reading strategies that identify singular reading fragments of the different spaces through multiple reader time space relations The strategies proposed in the volume seek to develop an integrative reading of urban space through recognition of the singular influenced by discourse institution etc and temporal influenced by reading perspective in space and time thereby providing a relational perspective that goes beyond the paradox of place in between social and physical space identifying each in terms of relationships oscillating between the conceptual the physical and social content and the context In conclusion the book suggests that space place can be read through sequential fragments of people place context mind and author reader Operating at different scales between conceptual space and reality the sequential reading helps the recognition of multiplicity and the dynamics of place as a transformational process without hierarchy or classification

Critical Realism for Marxist Sociology of Education Grant Banfield,2015-09-16 This book offers a critical realist intervention into the field of Marxist Sociology of Education Critical realism as developed by British philosopher Roy Bhaskar is known for its capacity to serve as a conceptual underlabourer to applied fields like education Indeed its success in clarifying and resolving thorny issues of educational theory and practice is now well established Given critical realism s sympathetic Marxist origins its productive and critical engagement with Marxism has an even longer history To date there has been little sustained attention given to the application of critical realism to Marxist educational praxis The book addresses this gap in existing scholarship Its conceptual ground clearing of the field of Marxist Sociology of Education centres on two problematics well known in the social sciences naturalism and the structure agency relation Marxist theory from the days of Marx to the present is shown to also be haunted by these problematics This has resulted in considerable tension around the meaning and nature of for example reform revolution class determinism and class struggle With its emergence in the 1970s as a child of Western Marxism the field continues to be an expression of these tensions that seriously limit its transformative potential Addressing these issues and offering conceptual clarification in the interests of revolutionary educational practice Critical Realism for Marxist Sociology of Education provides a new perspective on education which will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners alike
