Saturday Evening Girls Paul Revere Pottery:

Saturday Evening Girls Paul Revere Pottery Meg Chalmers, Judy L. Young, 2005 Among the Arts Crafts potteries of early 20th century the Saturday Evening Girls SEG Paul Revere Pottery holds a special place Founded in Boston around 1907 the pottery gave young women the chance to learn a trade and the skills needed to run a business It was a success creating forms and decorative designs that are cherished by connoisseurs and collectors today This long awaited and eagerly anticipated source book is the most comprehensive reference on the Saturday Evening Girls Paul Revere Pottery ever published and the only book that exclusively chronicles its history and art It is an essential and important reference for beginning as well as advanced collectors Included are 675 color photos and historic catalogs and illustrations making up the largest archive of SEG material gathered in one place The marks and artists signatures are illustrated as an aid for identification The pots they made in all their forms are carefully described and for the collector and appraiser their value on the current market is estimated A chapter on collecting explores the passion that leads to collecting as well as stories venues and helpful hints Written with warmth humor passion and scholarship this gem of a book fills a void in the existing literature becoming the quintessential resource on an important and increasingly well recognized American Art Pottery It proudly takes its place in documenting women s art and history

Art & Reform Nonie Gadsden, 2006 The handmade ceramics of the Paul Revere Pottery often enlivened with stylized images of animals flowers or abstract patterns are best known today by the name of the girls club whose members created the wares the Saturday Evening Girls SEG Local reformers organized this club in 1899 to provide cultural activities for young Italian and Jewish immigrants of Boston s North End Under the guidance of designer and illustrator Edith Brown and as a way of helping with difficult family finances the group soon turned to crafts Before long SEG ceramics had caught on and were being sold through department stores in cities throughout the Eastern United States though their success was largely curtailed by World War I the pottery continued to operate until 1942 Today SEG ware is highly collectible Art and Reform offers a briskly written handsomely illustrated introduction to this episode in Boston s cultural history discussing the role of the SEG club in the life of the city s immigrant community and its ties to education reform and the Arts and Crafts movement The book presents some 50 examples of the ceramics themselves mostly by Sara Galner one of the group s most gifted members showing the wit charm quiet beauty and lasting influence of these remarkable decorative objects

Boston Women's Heritage Trail Polly Welts Kaufman, Jean Gilbran, Sylvia McDowell, 2006 Women have played active prominent roles in Boston history since the days of Anne Hutchinson the colonial freethinker who bravely challenged the authority of ruling Puritan ministers in 1638 Hutchinson s action is only one of more than 200 stories of Boston women told in the newly expanded guidebook from the Boston Women s Heritage Trail Several maps indicate the sites where these historic women walked worked and lived while photographs and other illustrations help bring these women to life once again The updated guidebook will take you on seven walks through seven distinctly different Boston neighborhoods Hutchinson's story is told by her statue on the grounds of the Massachusetts State House while Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy's is found at the site of her birthplace in the North End An underground railway stop on Beacon Hill reveals the dramatic escape of enslaved Ellen and William Craft to Boston Other trails lead walkers to new statues of Underground Railroad conductor Harriet Tubman in the South End and of Abigail Adams Lucy Stone and Phillis Wheatley three women who used the pen for change portrayed in bronze in the recently dedicated Boston Women's Memorial on Commonwealth Avenue The Boston Women's Heritage Trail guidebook is a must for visitors students and residents of Boston alike Its lively descriptions show the significant role Boston women played in shaping the history and the future of both Boston and the nation

Jewish Girls Coming of Age in America, 1860-1920 Melissa R. Klapper, 2005 Jewish Girls Coming of Age in America 1860-1920 draws on a wealth of archival material much of which has never been published or even read to illuminate the ways in which Jewish girls' adolescent experiences reflected larger issues relating to gender ethnicity religion and education Klapper explores the dual roles girls played as agents of acculturation and guardians of tradition Their search for an identity as American girls that would not require the abandonment of Jewish tradition and culture mirrored the struggle of their families and communities for integration into American society While focusing on their lives as girls not the adults they would later become Klapper draws on the papers of such figures as Henrietta Szold founder of Hadassah Edna Ferber Pulitzer Prize winning author of Showboat and Marie Syrkin literary critic and Zionist Klapper also analyzes the diaries memoirs and letters of hundreds of other girls whose later lives and experiences have been lost to history Told in an engaging style and filled with colorful quotes the book brings to life a neglected group of fascinating historical figures during a pivotal moment in the development of gender roles adolescence and the modern American Jewish community      Makers Janet Koplos, Bruce Metcalf, 2010-07-31 Here is the first comprehensive survey of modern craft in the United States Makers follows the development of studio craft objects in fiber clay glass wood and metal from its roots in nineteenth century reform movements to the rich diversity of expression at the end of the twentieth century More than four hundred illustrations complement this chronological exploration of the American craft tradition Keeping as their main focus the objects and the makers Janet Koplos and Bruce Metcalf offer a detailed analysis of seminal works and discussions of education institutional support and the philosophical underpinnings of craft In a vivid and accessible narrative they highlight the value of physical skill examine craft as a force for moral reform and consider the role of craft as an aesthetic alternative Exploring craft's relationship to fine arts and design Koplos and Metcalf foster a critical understanding of the field and help explain craft's place in contemporary culture Makers will be an indispensable volume for craftspeople curators collectors critics historians students and anyone who is interested in American craft      Girlhood in America Miriam Forman-Brunell, 2001-06-08 This groundbreaking reference work presents more than 100 articles by 98 high profile interdisciplinary scholars covering all aspects of girls' roles in American society past and present In this comprehensive readable two volume encyclopedia experts from a variety of disciplines contribute pieces to the puzzle of what it means and what it has meant over the last 400 years to be a girl in America The portrait that emerges reveals deep differences in girls' experiences depending on socioeconomic context religious and ethnic traditions family life schools institutions and the messages of consumer and popular culture Girls have been commodified idealized trivialized eroticized and shaped by the powerful forces of popular culture from Little Women to Barbie Yet girls are also powerful co-creators of the culture that shapes them often cleverly subverting it to their own purposes From Pocahontas to punk rockers girls have been an integral if overlooked and undervalued part of American culture      Arequipa Sanatorium Lynn Downey, 2019-09-12 As San Francisco recovered from the devastating earthquake and fire of 1906 dust and ash filled the city's stuffy factories stores and classrooms Dr Philip King Brown noticed rising tuberculosis rates among the women who worked there and he knew there were few places where they could get affordable treatment In 1911 with the help of wealthy society women and his wife Helen a protégé of philanthropist Phoebe Apperson Hearst Brown opened the Arequipa Sanatorium in Marin County Together Brown and his all female staff gave new life to hundreds of working class women suffering from tuberculosis in early twentieth century California Until streptomycin was discovered in the 1940s tubercular patients had few treatment options other than to take a rest cure at a sanatorium and endure its painful medical interventions For the working class and minorities especially women the options were even fewer Unlike most other medical facilities of the time Arequipa treated primarily working class women and provided the same treatment to all including Asian American and African American women despite the virulent racism of the time Author Lynn Downey's own grandmother was given a terminal tuberculosis diagnosis in 1927 but after treatment at Arequipa she lived to be 102 years old Arequipa gave female doctors a place to practice female nurses and social workers a place to train and white society women a noble philanthropic mission Although Arequipa was founded by a male doctor and later administered by his son the sanatorium's mission was truly about the women who worked and recovered there and it was they who kept it going Based on sanatorium records Downey herself helped to preserve and interviews she conducted with former patients and others associated with Arequipa Downey tells a vivid story of the sanatorium and its cure that Brown and his talented team of Progressive women made available and possible for hundreds of working class patients
