Gandhi's Rise to Power Judith M. Brown, 1972-06-01 Dr Brown presents a political study of the first clearly defined period in Mahatma Gandhi's Indian career from 1915 to 1922 The period began with Gandhi's return from South Africa as a stranger to Indian politics witnessed his dramatic assertion of leadership in the Indian National Congress of 1920 and ended with his imprisonment by the British after the collapse of his all India civil disobedience movement against the raj Focusing on Gandhi this book nevertheless investigates the changing nature of Indian politics It aims to study precisely what Gandhi did on whom he relied for support how he interacted with other nationalist leaders and how he saw his own role in Indian public life Unlike the usual interpretation of Gandhi's rise to power as based on a charismatic appeal to the Indian masses this study argues that his influence depended on a capacity to generate a network of lesser leaders or subcontractors who would organise their constituencies for him whether these were caste communal or economic groups or whole areas

Scorching Love Gopal Gandhi, Tridip Suhrud, 2022 This book publishes for the most part for the first time Gandhi's letters to his youngest son Devadas from 1914 when father and son were both in South Africa to 1948 when they were both in Delhi the capital of free India where within hours of the last letter Gandhi was assassinated Gandhi wrote these letters by day he wrote them by night he wrote them from aboard trains steamers both right and left hands being pressed into service to rest one when tired out The letters span three decades during which the writer grew from being a fighter for the rights of Indians in South Africa to being hailed as Father of the Nation by millions in India and opposed by many as well including the man who felled him by three bullets fired at point blank range on 30 January 1948

The letters hold his aspirations for his son and for his nation They bear great love and they also scorch And we see Devadas the recipient of the letters move in them from compliant childhood and youth to adulthood questioning and remonstrating with his father and being just the independent son his father wants him to be Satyagraha in Champaran President of
