Bengal in Global Concept History

Andrew Sartori, 2009-05-15 Today people all over the globe invoke the concept of culture to make sense of their world their social interactions and themselves But how did the culture concept become so ubiquitous In this ambitious study Andrew Sartori closely examines the history of political and intellectual life in nineteenth and twentieth century Bengal to show how the concept can take on a life of its own in different contexts Sartori weaves the narrative of Bengal's embrace of culturalism into a worldwide history of the concept from its origins in eighteenth century Germany through its adoption in England in the early 1800s to its appearance in distinct local guises across the non Western world The impetus for the concept's dissemination was capitalism Sartori argues as its spread across the globe initiated the need to celebrate the local and the communal Therefore Sartori concludes the use of the culture concept in non Western sites was driven not by slavish imitation of colonizing powers but by the same problems that repeatedly followed the advance of modern capitalism This remarkable interdisciplinary study will be of significant interest to historians and anthropologists as well as scholars of South Asia and colonialism

Theater of Cruelty Ian Buruma, 2014-09-16 Winner of the PEN Diamonstein Spielvogel Award for the Art of the Essay Ian Buruma is fascinated he writes by what makes the human species behave atrociously In Theater of Cruelty the acclaimed author of The Wages of Guilt and Year Zero A History of 1945 once again turns to World War II to explore that question to the Nazi occupation of Paris the Allied bombing of German cities the international controversies over Anne Frank's diaries Japan's militarist intellectuals and its kamikaze pilots One way that people respond to power and cruelty Buruma argues is through art and the art that most interests him reveals the dark impulses beneath the veneer of civilized behavior

This is what draws him to German and Japanese artists such as Max Beckmann George Grosz Ernst Ludwig Kirchner Mishima Yukio and Yokoo Tadanori as well as to filmmakers such as Werner Herzog Rainer Werner Fassbinder Kurosawa Kiyoshi and Hans Jürgen Syberberg All were affected by fascism and its terrible consequences all looked into the abyss and made art of what they saw Whether he is writing in this wide ranging collection about war artists or film or about David Bowie s music R Crumb s drawings the Palestinians of the West Bank or Asian theme parks Ian Buruma brings sympathetic historical insight and shrewd aesthetic judgment to understanding the diverse ways that people deal with violence and cruelty in life and in art Theater of Cruelty includes eight pages of color and black white images
