Saunter Poems Contemporary Poetry Series:

Saunter Joshua McKinney, 2002 Joshua McKinney's debut collection of poetry Saunter shows immense devotion to and passion for language in all its aspects. He intensely attends to words and delights in the play of accidental connections and complications. Such amusement and playfulness with oppositions is evidenced in lines like an opening a cello scales some stairs Risen a thought falls. McKinney's awareness of the complex resonance of literary history and current issues of language comes through in his dedication to making the appearance of language not just its sound or its relative meaning an integral aspect of his poems. Meanwhile the subject matter is often surprisingly mythic and mysterious, championing absolute freedom and wildness. His intricate verse is sincere in its observations while turning inward on itself, sauntering in designed indirection. Poets & Writers, 2002 The Georgia Review, 2001 The Publishers Weekly, 2001 Questions of Possibility: Contemporary Poetry and Poetic Form David Caplan, 2006-09-26 Questions of Possibility examines the particular forms that contemporary American poets favor and those they neglect. The poet's choices reveal both their ambitions and their limitations, the new possibilities they discover and the traditions they find unimaginable. By means of close attention to the sestina, ghazal, love sonnet, ballad, and heroic couplet, this study advances a new understanding of contemporary American poetry. Rather than pitting closed verse against open and traditional poetry against experimental, Questions of Possibility explores how poets associated with different movements inspire and inform each other's work. Discussing a range of authors from Charles Bernstein, Derek Walcott, and Marilyn Hacker to Agha Shahid Ali, David Caplan treats these poets as contemporaries who share the language, not as partisans assigned to rival camps. The most interesting contemporary poetry crosses the boundaries that literary criticism draws, synthesizing diverse influences and establishing surprising affinities. In a series of lively readings, Caplan charts the diverse characteristics and accomplishments of modern poetry from the gay and lesbian love sonnet to the currently popular sestina. Dark Would Liz Waldner, 2002 The author explores the idea of self in the twenty-first century, venturing into Dante's dark wood in search of the truth about rootlessness and identity. Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original. Our Savage Art William Logan, 2009 This collection of essays critically evaluates Robert Lowell's correspondence, Elizabeth Bishop's unfinished poems, the inflated reputation of Hart Crane, the loss of the New Critics, and a damning and already highly controversial indictment of an edition of Robert Frost's notebooks. The book also includes essays on Derek Walcott and Geoffrey Hill, two crucial figures in the divided world of contemporary poetry, and an attempt to rescue the reputation of the nineteenth-century poet John Townsend Trowbridge. Short reviews consider John Ashbery, Anne Carson, Billy Collins, Rita Dove, Louise Glück, Jorie Graham, Robert Hass, Seamus Heaney, and more. The Violence of the Morning Calvin Bedient, 2002 Groundbreaking new poetry evokes a wide range of influences from Kant to the Upanishads while making deep exploratory journeys into the complexities of sexual relationships, disease, heartbreak, and death. Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Original. The Book of Motion Tung-Hui Hu, 2003 This debut collection explores memory cities motion Tung Hui Hu's tone has some of the swampy wit that recalls Calvino or Michaux A man swaps bodies with his lover a mapmaker holds captive a city which needs his crystal telescope to navigate through streets unreadable as palm lines a car pushed off a cliff in a fit of anger becomes home for a school of fish Anchored by the sequence Elegies for self Hu's poetry brings a quiet sophistication to syntax diction and form Contemporary Michigan Poetry Michael Delp, Conrad Hilberry, Herbert Scott, 1988 As David Wagoner wrote in the earlier volume The Third Coast A Michigan poet may be undistinguishable from an Illinois poet or an Arizona poet except for subject matter but the publication of this anthology serves to underline one layer of regional cultural strength even though these are not regional poets Over a decade later Contemporary Michigan Poetry is testimony that Michigan poetry continues to flourish Preserving the mood and texture of Michigan in the 1980s this new collection includes the best recent work by the state's most accomplished poets Among the fifty three contributors are Charles Baxter Alice Fulton Jim Harrison Janet Kaufmann Josie Kearns Thomas Lynch John R Reed and Stephen Tudor Each of the editors is also a contributor to this sampling of poems Styles range from understated to extravagant from closely observed to freely imagined Poems are as varied as the Michigan landscape Remarkable in its scope and quality Contemporary Michigan Poetry offers an arresting look at Michigan life and a special glimpse at the preoccupations that possess residents on the Third Coast Dare Say Tod Marshall, 2002 Three long poems illuminate broken and violated things using Bach Kandinsky and Botticelli as raw material for poetic musing Winner of the Contemporary Poetry Series Competition Poetry Fluorescence Jennifer K. Dick, 2004 In Jennifer K Dick's first book Fluorescence very real places Paris Massachusetts Colorado Iowa Morocco mix into the imagined into Breughelian villages where there's a persimmon in the corner knitting These places are inhabited by varied but always very real bodies stretching outward from their own edges and encountering or engendering a certain luminescence in the process What happens when we exceed ourselves When fragments of dream are lifted to the surface and through to something beyond Clues keys indications all that once seemed certain slips off into code These poems use language to crack it By Reason of Breakings Andrew Zawacki, 2002 By Reason of Breakings Andrew Zawacki's first book of poetry overwhelms and silences by virtue of its extremely austere beauty In highly wrought lyrics prose poems fragments of apocrypha and splintered efforts at song this volume is forceful and haunted by doubt Each intimate and restrained line is a glimpse at a wisdom that defies paraphrase each image carefully chosen and constructed Zawacki's language summons and invites and is almost menacing in its delicate intensity Weight is the syntax of filling empty spaces scalpels and expired tissue fall but fire rises to fever and sere While pursuing an explanation for the disappearance of God and for the denouement of a love affair and exploring the failure of language to compensate or console these poems maintain their sublime power and elegance The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 The New Criterion, 2003 Modern and Contemporary Yorkshire Poetry Kyra Piperides, 2023-07-31 Delving into the landscapes and politics of twentieth and twenty first century South East and West
