Outers' Book-recreation, 1926      The Year Book, of Daily Recreation & Information William Hone, 1832      The Year Book of Daily Recreation and Information William Hone, 1832      The Conservator, 1912      Christian Living, Rural Communities, Recreation, Returning Veterans, World Peace Colorado State University. Library, Anton H. Anderson, Irene Coons Reese, Irene Mae Coons, James Goodwin Hodgson, John Campbell McKinnon, John VanMale, Milton Estes, Morris E. Paddick, Sarabajita Singha, 1915      Young Outsiders Richard Mills, 2025-01-06 The Road of Excess leads to the Palace of Wisdom Blake's line had become a slogan for the hippie generation The dramatic differences between the hippies way of life and that of most of the rest of society at the time made them a puzzling and alarming phenomenon Originally published in 1973 Richard Mills describes and interprets these differences in Young Outsiders Based on research in the Ladbroke Grove and Piccadilly areas of London the study explores critical issues which preoccupied young people everywhere and separated them from their parents generation Told largely in the words of the young people themselves the book describes their everyday life and the ways they were led to it and looks at some of the central elements in their culture particularly drugs and underground music It is shown that the distinctive feature of their lives was the search for a special kind of intensified experience which they felt could give a greater sense of wholeness and identity than the conventional roles and routines from which they were alienated Richard Mills examines some of the dilemmas into which this search could lead and questions how far it provided the basis for a viable way of life Today it can be read in its historical context      Aboriginal Cultural Landscapes Jill Elizabeth Oakes, 2004 Aboriginal Elders poets artists scientists politicians and environmentalists present their views in 35 refereed chapters Topics include Relationships to the Land Sacred Places and Traditional Knowledge Ways of Knowing Aboriginal Imagination Therapeutic Landscapes and Internet Identity and Repatriation Law Metis and Ethics Historical Interactions Hunting and Inuit Environmental Issues Climate Change Food Webs Corn and Culture Literary Works Art Poetry and Reflections cover      'Brave New World': Contexts and Legacies Jonathan Greenberg, Nathan Waddell, 2016-10-07 This collection of essays provides new readings of Huxley's classic dystopian satire Brave New World 1932 Leading international scholars consider from new angles the historical contexts in which the book was written and the cultural legacies in which it looms large The volume affirms Huxley's prescient critiques of modernity and his continuing relevance to debates about political power art and the vexed relationship between nature and humankind Individual chapters explore connections between Brave New World and the nature of utopia the 1930s American Technocracy movement education and social control pleasure reproduction futurology inter war periodical networks motherhood ethics and the Anthropocene islands and the moral life The volume also includes a Foreword written by David Bradshaw one of the world's top Huxley scholars Timely and consistently illuminating this collection is essential reading for students critics and Huxley enthusiasts alike      Close Reading New Media Jan van Looy, Jan Baetens, 2003 Close Reading New Media is the first publication to apply the method of close analysis to new media Since the early nineteen nineties electronic art and literature have continually gained importance in artistic and academic circles Significant critical and theoretical attention has been paid to how new media allow the text to break traditional power relations and boundaries The passive reader becomes an active participant choosing his own path and assembling not just his own interpretation of the text level of the signified but also his own text level of the signifier Texts no longer have a beginning or an ending being a web of interlinked nodes The decentered nature of electronic text empowers and invites the reader to take part in the literary process Poststructuralist theorists predicted a total liberation of textual restrictions imposed by the medium of print However while these are culturally significant claims little attention has been paid to their realization The goal of this volume is twofold Our aim is to shed light on how ideas and theories have been translated into concrete works and we want to comment on the process of close reading and how it can be applied to electronic literature While all contributions deal with particular works their aim is always to provide insight into how electronic fiction and new media can be read This book proposes close readings of work by Mark Amerika Darren Aronofsky M D Coverley Raymond Federman Shelley Jackson Rick Pryll Geoff Ryman and Stephanie Strickland Recreation, 1900 Stereotypical Indians Eric Hannel, Karen Hannel, 2025-02-28 This scholarly yet provocative work critically examines the persistent and evolving stereotypes of Native Americans in popular literature spanning from the 19th to the 21st centuries The book meticulously traces the roots of these portrayals exploring their proliferation and their lasting impact on public perception and policy Each chapter unveils a new layer of complexity from the dime novels of the 1800s that painted Native Americans as savages to children's literature that enforced colonial narratives and onto romance novels and popular histories that perpetuated myths and misconceptions The authors dissect these narratives critically revealing how they contribute to a distorted understanding of Native American heritage and culture Through an in depth analysis of various literary genres including comics and graphic novels the book challenges readers to confront and rethink the deeply ingrained stereotypes that have long shaped American consciousness Thoreau and the American Indians Robert F. Sayre, 2014-07-14 Thoreau turned toward Indians in his writing as well as in his life and this book traces the long and arduous process by which his ideas about Indians evolved from savagist stereotypes to attitudes of greater originality Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Queering Faith in Fantasy Literature Taylor Driggers, 2022-01-13 Fantasy literature inhabits the realms of the orthodox and heterodox the divine and demonic simultaneously making it uniquely positioned to imaginatively re envision Christian theology from a position of difference Having an affinity for the monstrous and the other and a preoccupation with desires and forms of embodiment that subvert dominant understandings of reality fantasy texts hold hitherto unexplored potential for articulating queer and feminist religious perspectives Focusing primarily on fantastic literature of the mid to late twentieth century this book examines how Christian theology in the genre is dismantled re imagined and transformed from the margins of gender and sexuality Aligning fantasy with Derrida s theories of deconstruction Taylor Driggers explores how the genre can re figure God as the other excluded and erased from theology Through careful readings of C S Lewis s Till We Have Faces Angela Carter s The Passion of New Eve and Ursula K Le Guin s The Left Hand of Darkness and the Earthsea novels Driggers contends that fantasy can challenge cis normative heterosexual and patriarchal theology Also engaging with the theories of H l ne Cixous Luce Irigaray Marcella Althaus Reid and Linn Marie Tonstad this book demonstrates that whilst fantasy cannot save Christianity from itself nor rehabilitate it for marginalised subjects it confronts theology with its silenced others in a way that bypasses institutional debates on inclusion and leadership asking how theology might be imagined otherwise
