Four Moments of Aesthetic Experience Bryan Counter, 2025-04-15 This book examines the question of aesthetic experience in the novels of Joris Karl Huysmans Marcel Proust Tom McCarthy and Rachel Cusk in order to propose a reconsideration of aesthetic experience informed by literature and philosophy in equal measure The introduction suggests an alternative four moments of aesthetic experience to Kant's four moments of aesthetic judgement derived in part from my four literary authors respectively curation quietness violence and disconnection Taken collectively the four moments show the danger of becoming too invested or interested in aesthetic experience as well as patience and openness toward the creative act of writing While these four moments are not meant as determinations taken together they offer a picture of aesthetic experience as involuntary subject to chance and resistant to calculation on the part of the aesthetic subject Besides contributing to the scholarship on each of the four novelists this book advances a theory of the aesthetic that shifts away from the framework of judging objects to focus instead on experience and how it is articulated both within and beyond literature It is here that the theory of aesthetic experience benefits from literature's singularity no one text or passage can serve as an example that would adequately circumscribe the field of aesthetic experience just as no one philosophical example could and yet the reflective nature of the literary text demands a rigorous look at aesthetic experience without the restrictions of a totalising philosophical system The two negative moments represented by Huysmans's Rebours and McCarthy's Remainder besides ending poorly for the protagonists wind up with a foreclosure of aesthetic experience For Huysmans's Des Esseintes who attempts to sustain aesthetic experience at will via curation the fantasy falls apart leaving him ill and necessitating his dreaded return to society For McCarthy's unnamed narrator who is engaged throughout the novel with various projects of re-enactments the story ends violently with bloodshed and a plane hijacking Theoretically these novels provide a cautionary tale about the impulse to seek out and even domesticate the aesthetic object On the contrary the two positive moments represented by Proust's Recherche and Cusk's Outline trilogy each involve narrators and characters who are invested in the creative act of writing Two particular critically underrepresented passages from Proust can help articulate the quiet moment of aesthetic experience without relying on works of art they are theoretically compelling in their refusal to theorise themselves unlike the more popular passages from the novel Cusk's novels present the moment of disconnection that is the sense of an experience being dislodged from any particular narrative or plot And yet each of the characters in question are creative writers meaning that this everyday feeling of alienation tends to factor into a productive artistic impulse In conclusion these four moments are tied together as they pertain to the nature and boundaries of aesthetic experience in general Just as Kant's four moments of aesthetic judgement seem to be grouped in pairs disinterest and purposiveness without purpose on one hand and universality and necessity on the other hand these four moments can be grouped and set apart to help reconsider what we mean when we talk about aesthetic experience     Savings Bank Journal ,1922     The Living Age ,1849     The Road to the Country Chigozie of class and racial divisions the new subjectivities of the neoliberal era and the generational conflict underpinning austerity The book ends with a consideration of feminism's place as a phantom presence in this history of clever girls This study will appeal to readers of contemporary women's writing and to those interested in what has been one of the dominant social narratives of the post-war period from upward to declining mobility Chick Lit and Postfeminism Stephanie Harzewski, 2011-02-09 Originally a euphemism for Princeton University's Female Literary Tradition course in the 1980s chick lit mutated from a movement in American women's avant-garde fiction in the 1990s to become by the turn of the century a humorous subset of women's literature journalism and advice manuals Stephanie Harzewski examines such best sellers as Bridget Jones's Diary The Devil Wears Prada and Sex and the City as urban appropriations of and departures from the narrative traditions of the novel of manners the popular romance and the bildungsroman Further Harzewski uses chick lit as a lens through which to view gender relations in U.S. and British society in the 1990s Chick Lit and Postfeminism is the first sustained historicization of this major pop cultural phenomenon and Harzewski successfully demonstrates how chick lit and the critical study of it yield social observations on upheavals in Anglo-American marriage and education patterns heterosexual rituals feminism and postmodern values The Wall Mary Roberts Rinehart, 2013-08-13 Murder visits a seaside mansion in this gothic mystery from the 1 New York Times bestselling author known as the American Agatha Christie The house called Sunset has been Marcia's summer home for her entire life Both of her parents died there and she and her brother spent their youth exploring its rambling hallways and seaside grounds They love the old house but Marcia's sister in law has never taken to it Juliette loathes the sea and soon comes to loathe her husband as well After they divorce Juliette pays a final visit to Sunset demanding alimony She is there for a few tense days before she disappears It takes them a week to find her body The peace at Sunset has been shattered and Marcia must work quickly to keep her beloved childhood home from being forever spoiled Somewhere in the creaky old mansion a murderer lurks Will Marcia be accused of the crime Or will she be the next victim Weep Not for Me Deborah A.
