Semantique De La Poesie:

Sémantique de la poésie Tzvetan Todorov, 1979 Essai de Semantique (Science de Significations) Michel Bréal, 1908

La Langue, la poésie Jean-Jacques Thomas, 1989 Comment faut-il lire la poésie française contemporaine Telle est la question laquelle répond cet ouvrage Malherbe Rousseau Ferdinand Brunot et bien d'autres sont d'accord la langue française est peu propre la poésie Comment se débarrasser de l'armature rhétorique du carcan argumentatif imposé et de toutes les prescriptions linguistiques qui forment notre langue pour en faire l'outil privilégié d'une communication directe claire et informative Telle est le dilemme de la poésie contemporaine lieu de l'attente et des métamorphoses de l'informel celle-ci ne peut exister qu'en état de conflit ouvert ou latent avec les règles qui rendent notre communication linguistique quotidienne acceptable Première tentative d'analyse synthétique des modes discursifs de la poésie française contemporaine depuis plusieurs décennies cet ouvrage est indispensable pour comprendre les stratégies de la subversion mises en œuvre Trois domaines du dispositif poétique sont privilégiés la référence l'intertextualité et le technoludique L'enquête est menée à partir d'études détaillées de certains exemplaires qu'ils proviennent des principaux mouvements poétiques récents Dada Surréalisme Oulipo ou d'écrivains particulièrement représentatifs Introduction et initiation aux ruses et inventions du discours poétique en cours cet ouvrage se veut galement incitation à la lecture fervente de cette poésie dont nous sommes tous les contemporains Proposition qui résumerait parfaitement le titre de cette fausse couverture Poésie française contemporaine mode d'emploi

Irony and Satire in French Literature Philippe Desan, 2024-10-07 Essays in Semiotics /Essais de sémiotique Julia Kristeva, Josette Rey-Debove, Donna Umiker, 2010-12-14 No detailed description available for Essays in Semiotics Essais de sémiotique Une entreprise de légitimation de la grammaire arabe Julien Sibileau, 2024-12-23 La langue d'al-Fāris est réputée difficile d'accès et la pensée de son auteur relativement opaque Avec ce livre le lecteur dispose désormais d'une clé pour pénétrer la pensée linguistique d'un des grammairiens les plus importants de la tradition grammaticale arabe Il montre comment Ibn innā mobilise les concepts de l'épistémè de son époque pour systématiser le raisonnement explicatif grammatical En lisant ce livre le lecteur percevra galement l'importance accordée par Ibn innā au rôle joué par le locuteur dans le changement de la langue en ce sens que le locuteur est perçu comme le véritable agent moteur de son discours Ce travail offre galement au lecteur une perspective plus large sur la relation d'Ibn innā avec la tradition grammaticale puisqu'il montre par exemple que la plupart des réflexions diachroniques d'Ibn innā sont empruntées à l'un des disciples oubliés de Sibawayhi 180-796 al-Fāris al-Awsa 215-830 The language of al-Fāris is reputed to be difficult to access and the thought of its author relatively opaque With this book readers now have a key to penetrate the linguistic thought of one of the most important grammarians in the Arabic grammatical tradition It shows how Ibn innā used the concepts of the epistémè of his time to systematize grammatical explanatory reasoning On reading this book the reader will also perceive the importance attached by Ibn innā to the role played by the speaker in language change in that the speaker is seen as the true agent motor of his discourse This work also offers the reader a broader perspective on Ibn inn s relationship with the grammatical tradition as it shows for example that most of Ibn inn s diachronic reflections are borrowed from one of S bawayhi s forgotten disciples 180 796 al A fa al Awsa 215 830 L'expression de l'affectivité dans la poésie lyrique française du Moyen âge, XIIe-XIIIe S. G. Lavis,1972

De la prose au cœur de la poésie Jean-Charles Vegliante,2007 Formal Revolution in the Work of Baudelaire and Flaubert Kathryn Oliver Mills,2012-03-22 In Formal Revolution in the Work of Baudelaire and Flaubert Kathryn Oliver Mills argues that despite the enduring celebrity of Baudelaire and Flaubert their significance to modern art has been miscast and misunderstood To date literary criticism has paid insufficient attention to these authors literary form and their socio cultural context In addition critical literature has not always adequately integrated individual works to each author s broader oeuvre on the one hand critics do not often maintain rigorous distinctions among texts when discussing Baudelaire and Flaubert and on the other hand scholars of Baudelaire and Flaubert have not consistently considered the relationship of individual texts to either writer s corpus Furthermore critical focus has been on the modernity of Les Fleurs du mal Madame Bovary and L'Education Sentimentale Addressing these lacunae in scholarship Mills puts forth the argument that Baudelaire s collection of prose poems Le Spleen de Paris and Flaubert s short poetic tales Trois contes best embody the modern aesthetic that Baudelaire develops in Le Peintre de la vie moderne and that Flaubert elaborates in his correspondence Formal Revolution places these relatively less well known but last published works in relationship with the artistic goals of their authors showing that Baudelaire and Flaubert were both acutely aware of the need to launch a new form of literature in order to literally come to terms with the dramatic changes transforming the nineteenth century into the Modern Age More specifically Formal Revolution demonstrates that for Baudelaire and Flaubert the formal project of fusing prose with poetry as poetic prose in the case of Flaubert as poetry in prose in the case of Baudelaire was crucial to their mission of painting modern life This work concludes that experimentation with literary form represents these two seminal writers major legacy to modernity suggests that the twentieth century might have gone too far down that road and speculates about the future direction of literature The modernity of Baudelaire and Flaubert still relevant today but often taken for granted needs to be reexamined in light of the cultural formal and contextual considerations that inform Formal Revolution in the Work of Baudelaire and Flaubert Narrating the Self in Early Modern Europe- L'écriture de Soi Dans L'Europe Moderne Bruno

Tribout,Ruth Whelan,2007 The authors of the 16 essays collected in this volume use a variety of approaches to study a broad range of what are now called ego documents from the Renaissance to the beginning of the 19th century Metaphor ,1985-01-01 The aim of the present bibliography is to provide the student of metaphor with an up to date and comprehensive albeit not exhaustive overview of recent publications dealing with various aspects of metaphor in a variety of disciplines Where the emphasis is primarily on specific works about metaphor mainly in philosophy linguistics and psychology the list has been supplemented with references to studies where metaphor is explicitly recognized as an instrument of research or analysis e g in literature or in the elaboration of scientific and religious models or where its use is illustrated

Beyond Cognitive Metaphor Theory Monika Fludernik, 2012-03-29 In this innovative collection an international group of scholars come together to discuss literary metaphors and cognitive metaphor theory The volume s goals are three fold The first aim of the book is to present some recent approaches to metaphor which have no immediate connection with cognitive metaphor theory and have developed independently of it While the cognitive approach has become the leading paradigm in the English speaking world elsewhere in Europe rhetorical semantic and logical models have remained in use and continue to be elaborated These models have so far had little international exposure Their inclusion in this study is meant to provide a balance to the cognitive paradigm and to open up a possible discussion of the advantages and disadvantages of cognitive metaphor theory for the analysis of literary texts The second aim of the collection is to illustrate a range of successful applications of the new cognitive models to literary texts And the third aim of the study is to provide an assessment of cognitive metaphor theory from a literary point of view

Historical Linguistics, 1987 Henning Andersen, E. F. K. Koerner, 1990 The volume contains 37 papers originally presented at the 8th International Conference on Historical Linguistics in Lille France The papers bring historical data to bear on issues in theoretical linguistics both descriptive and diachronic or deal with specific questions in the history of individual languages The theoretical issues range from phonology over morphology and syntax to the lexicon as well as questions of historical dialectology language contact the theory of linguistic change and problems of comparative reconstruction The languages discussed are Finno Ugric and Indo European most of the papers dealing with Germanic and Romance languages especially English and French but some being devoted to Greek Celtic Slavic and Hittite

The Semiotic Sphere Thomas A. Sebeok, Jean Umiker-Sebeok, 2012-12-06 Although semiotics has in one guise or another flourished uninterruptedly since pre Socratic times in the West and important semiotic themes have emerged and developed independently in both the Brahmanic and Buddhist traditions semiotics as an organized undertaking began to bloom only in the 1960s Workshops materialized with a perhaps surprising spontaneity over much of Europe Eastern and Western and in North America Thereafter others quickly surfaced almost everywhere over the literate globe Different places strategically allied themselves with different legacies but all had a common thrust to aim at a general theory of signs by way of a description of different sign systems their comparative analysis and their classification More or less permanent confederations were forged with the most diverse academic disciplines and amazingly varied frameworks were devised suited to the needs of the times and the sites to carry the work of consolidation forward Bit by bit mutually supportive international networks were put together Today it can truly be asserted that semiotics has become a global enterprise This of course is far from saying that the map is uniform or even that world wide homogeneity is in the least desirable While our conjoint ultimate goal remains steadily in focus the multiplicity of avenues available for its realization is inherent in the adventure of the search itself

Petrarch's 'Fragmenta' Thomas E. Peterson, 2016-01-01 Building on recent

Petrarch scholarship and broader studies of medieval poetics poetic narrativity and biblical intertextuality this study argues that Petrarch's Rerum vulgarium fragmenta is an ordered and coherent work unified by narrative and theological structures The author begins with the premise that the multiple voices of the Petrarchan figure or subject call for a reading informed by historical and autobiographical considerations Within such a reading the internal chronology of the work coincides with a temporal framework provided by Petrarch's Latin prose and poetry Drawing on this material he argues that Petrarch's derivations from early poets in the Italian vernacular his Augustinianism and his humanism are manifest in the Fragmenta and contribute to its narrative and theological unity

The Building Blocks of Meaning Michele Prandi, 2004-06-30 The shaping of complex meanings depends on punctual and relational coding and inferencing Coding is viewed as a vector which can run either from expression to content or from concepts to linguistic forms to mark independent conceptual relations While coding relies on systematic resources internal to language inferencing essentially depends on a layered system of autonomous shared conceptual structures which include both cognitive models and consistency criteria grounded in a natural ontology Inference guided by coding is not a residual pragmatic device but it is a direct way to long term conceptual structures that guide the connection of meanings The interaction of linguistic forms and concepts is particularly clear in conceptual conflict where conflictual complex meanings provide insights into the roots of significance and the linguistic structure of metaphors Complementing a formal analysis of linguistic structures with a substantive analysis of conceptual structures a philosophical grammar provides insights from both formal and functional approaches toward a more profound understanding of how language works in constructing and communicating complex meanings This monograph is ideally addressed to linguists philosophers and psychologists interested in language as symbolic form and as an instrument of human action rooted in a complex conceptual and cognitive landscape

Language across Languages Emanuele Miola, Paolo Ramat, 2015-09-18 Since the first written documents in the history of mankind produced at the end of the 4th millennium BC translation has always played a pivotal role in human societies Translators were needed whenever the need for contact between different speaking communities arose such as for the purposes of communication commerce and declarations of war or peace Translation is even more important in today's world Globalization has brought the nations of the Earth closer to the extent that books movies and television programs released or aired far away in the world are just a click of the mouse away However such cultural products still have to be translated in order to be enjoyed by a wider audience In international relations diplomacies work very much on the basis of what is said and written meaning that official documents and political charts need to be correctly and precisely translated Hi tech devices such as tablets and smartphones have their software translated into an increasing number of languages in order to be accessible to a larger number of people The challenging issues that arise for translation studies from these socio cultural changes in Western Europe and all over the world are tackled in this volume according to two intertwined viewpoints From a strictly linguistic perspective typological differences between genetically unrelated languages challenge linguists in gaining an overall understanding of what language really is how can linguistic categories be they verbal nominal or pertaining to other domains of the grammar be defined How are they shaped in syntax From the point of view of anthropological linguistics on the other hand the cross linguistic differences that come to the fore illustrate that translating as well as language itself is one of the basic cognitive strategies of the human mind Conceptual Conflicts in Metaphors and Figurative Language Michele Prandi, 2017-07-06 This innovative volume provides a comprehensive integrated account of the study of conceptual figures demonstrating the ways in which figures and in particular conflictual figures encapsulate linguistic expression in the fullest sense and in turn how insights gleaned from their study can contribute to the wider body of linguistic research With a specific focus on metaphor and metonymy the book offers a unified and systematic typology of linguistic figures drawing on a number of different approaches including both traditional and emerging frameworks within cognitive linguistics as well as syntactic theory while also providing an exhaustive look at the unique features of a variety of conceptual figures including metaphor metonymy oxymoron and synecdoche In its aim of reconciling historically opposed theoretical approaches to the study of conflictual figures while also incorporating a thorough account of its distinctive varieties this volume will be essential reading for researchers and scholars in cognitive linguistics theoretical linguistics philosophy of language and literary studies

The Languages of World Literature Achim Höltzer, 2024-03-04 This volume opens the series of papers presented at the Vienna Congress of AILC ICLA 2016 beginning with eight keynotes Thirty four further papers are dedicated to the central theme of the conference the linguistic side of world literature under different focal points The volume further contains five roundtables the papers of a workshop of the UNESCO memory of the worlds programme a presentation of the avldigital de platform as well as several bibliographically enriched overviews of the special lexicography of comparative literature up to date versions of the ICLA publications and an example of multiple translations of a famous modern classic
