Harry Coverdale's Courtship, and all that came of it Frank E. Smedley, 1855 Harry Coverdale's Courtship, and All That Came of It Frank E. Smedley, 2022-05-29 In Harry Coverdale's Courtship and All That Came of It Frank E. Smedley presents a captivating narrative that explores the intricacies of romantic relationships within the social context of 19th century England Through witty dialogue and rich character development Smedley employs a blend of humor and drama to depict the trials of young love societal expectations and the whims of fate The novel's literary style reflects the currents of the Victorian era engaging readers with its intricate plot and moral reflections while commenting on the tensions between individual desires and societal norms Frank E. Smedley an English author and journalist was deeply influenced by the social mores and expectations of his time His experiences as a writer for various magazines and newspapers granted him keen insight into the dynamics of courtship and relationships in Victorian society Smedley's keen observations and personal understanding of love's complexities informed his storytelling allowing him to craft a narrative that resonates with authenticity and charm This novel is a must read for fans of Victorian literature and romantic fiction providing an insightful glimpse into the past while exploring timeless themes of love ambition and personal growth Readers will find themselves enchanted by Smedley's engaging prose and memorable characters making this work an invaluable addition to any literary collection Flying Magazine, 1936-05 The Story of Spedegue's Dropper Arthur Conan Doyle, 2024-01-01 A short story about a young man with a radical approach to the game of cricket from the creator of Sherlock Holmes While walking in the forest veteran cricket player Walter Scougall comes upon a young schoolteacher named Spedegue practicing an unusual bowling delivery When Scougall attempts to have the man repeat his actions in public it yields entertaining results Originally published in the Strand Magazine in 1928 The Story of Spedegue's Dropper is inspired by a bizarre experience Doyle had with cricket when he was a young man The Story of Spedague's Dropper (Fantasy and Horror Classics) Arthur Conan Doyle, 2014-12-03 Sir Arthur Conan Doyle the creator of detective Sherlock Holmes is the father of crime fiction This intriguing short story first published in the Strand Magazine in 1928 was based on a bizarre cricketing experience Doyle underwent as a young man Many of the finest English sport stories particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork One of a Kind Ashley Mallett, 2010 From the moment he first stepped onto a test pitch cricket fans around the world were dazzled by Doug Walters red blooded strokes his immaculate timing and his great enjoyment of the game But they also loved him because he refused to be a star He drank he smoked he loved a punt The boy from Dungog was one of us In One of a Kind the ma Body-Line? Harold Larwood, 2018-10-01 Author's Preface I should like to state at the beginning of my book that what is stated in it on controversial matters is my own firm opinion except where in a few cases the views of other people are published and their names given I wish to make it clear that though there were and are sharp differences of opinion on the subject of Fast Leg Theory bowling between myself and some Australians there was always an atmosphere of complete cordiality between the teams on both sides Although we differ seriously over my Fast Leg Theory bowling I have done my best in the following pages not to disturb that atmosphere Until now my side of the matter has not been heard I have refused many tempting offers to break silence As a fast bowler and a hitter by nature I have written strongly because I cannot express myself otherwise I hope very much indeed that in doing so though I was one of the aggrieved parties in Australia I have given nobody half the offence from which I suffered so often on the last tour A belief exists that some of the things I have written about are not yet to be discussed Obviously I differ from that view I do so because I feel that in a matter of such vital interest to cricketers as the possible admission by legislation of such a far reaching principle as that bowlers may not bowl as they like no cricketer can keep silent I believe I have only written here what very many cricketers are saying But I have written supported by first hand knowledge For the many imperfections of style and language in my first book I beg the indulgence of my reader Yours Sincerely H Larwood

A Life's Mosaic Phyllis Ntantala, 1993-01-01 Like Trotsky I did not leave home with the proverbial one and six in my pocket I come from a family of landed gentry and could have chosen the path of comfort and safety for even in apartheid South Africa there is still that path for those who will collaborate But I chose the path of struggle and uncertainty from the Preface Born into the small social elite of black South Africa Phyllis Ntantala did not face the grinding poverty so familiar to other South African blacks Instead her struggle was that of a creative articulate woman seeking fulfillment and justice in a land that tried to deny her both The widow of Xhosa writer and historian A C Jordan and mother of African National Congress leader Z Pallo Jordan she and her family experienced a period of tremendous change in South Africa and also in the United States where they moved during the 1960s She discovers similarities in the two countries including the arrogance of power Anchored in history and culture A Life's Mosaic sharply reveals the world and the people of South Africa As the story of a political exile it represents the dislocations that have caused universal suffering in the second half of the twentieth century Phyllis Ntantala discusses the cruelty of racism the cynicism of political solutions and the hopes of those who live in both a world of exile and a world of dreams
