Sense Of The Sacramental Movement And Measure In Art And Music Place And Time:

The Sense of the Sacramental David Brown,1995-10      The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown,2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts      Theology, Music and Time Jeremy Begbie,2000-07-24 Demonstrates the unique and important role that music plays in theology      Faith and Place Mark R. Wynn,2009-05-07 Faith and Place takes knowledge of place as a basis for thinking about the relationship between religious belief and our embodied life Recent epistemology of religion has appealed to various secular analogues for religious belief especially analogues drawn from sense perception and scientific theory construction These approaches tend to overlook the close connection between religious belief and our moral aesthetic and otherwise engaged relationship to the material world By taking knowledge of place as a starting point for religious epistemology Mark Wynn aims to throw into clearer focus the embodied action orienting perception structuring and affect infused character of religious understanding This innovative study understands the religious significance of a site in terms of i its capacity to stand for some encompassing truth about human life ii its conservation of historical meanings where these meanings make a practical claim upon those located at the place at later times and iii its directing of the believer s attention to a sacred meaning through enacted appropriation of the site Wynn proposes that the notion of God functions like the notion of a genius loci where the relevant locus is the sum of material reality He argues that knowledge of God consists in part in a storied and sensuous appreciation of the significance of particular places      Sense and Spirituality James McCullough,2015-06-02 There is growing interest in the relationship between the arts and Christian faith Much has been written about the arts and theology and the place of the arts in church life Not as much has been written however about how the arts might actually advance spiritual formation in terms of the cumulative effect of religious experience and intentional practices This book provides a modest step forward in that conversation a conversation between theological aesthetics and practical theology Understanding aesthetics as the realm of sense perception and spiritual formation as growing capacities to participate in God s purposes James McCullough suggests how these dynamics can mutually enhance each other with the arts as an effective catalyst for this relationship McCullough proposes an analysis of artistic communication and explores exciting examples from music poetry and painting which render theoretical proposals in concrete terms This book will engage both those new to the arts and those already deeply familiar with them      James Baldwin and the Short Story Benedict Ushedo,2018-03-21 This book examines the range of issues that echo in James Baldwin s short stories It articulates and defends the claim that the stories in the collection Going to Meet the Man are driven by the autobiographical memory of the author To support this line of thought and the related proposition that the stories feed into themes relevant to self knowledge vicarious suffering love and forgiveness their effectiveness as transformative and revelatory texts is highlighted By drawing on contemporary studies and challenging the view that short stories are no more than miniature pieces merely echoing major works of their authors this book demonstrates that the short story genre can be profoundly forceful and effective in the articulation of complex human issues This study shows also that the humanistic import of the Baldwin stories is amplified by their ability to accumulate moral tension as they elicit the participation of the reader in an imaginative quest for a better world Table Manners Simon Reynolds,2014-02-10 There is a growing if not urgent need for those being trained for ordained and lay ministry to be provided with a more solid grounding in liturgical principles and Simon Reynolds seeks to address this by demonstrating how good liturgical leadership can be the foundation from which all other theological historical pastoral and missiological issues arise Body and Sacred Place in

Medieval Europe, 1100-1389 Dawn Marie Hayes,2004-11-23 Body and Sacred Place in Medieval Europe investigates the medieval understanding of sacred place arguing for the centrality of bodies and bodily metaphors to the establishment function use and power of medieval churches Questioning the traditional division of sacred and profane jurisdictions this book identifies the need to consider non devotional uses of churches in the Middle Ages Dawn Marie Hayes examines idealized visions of medieval sacred places in contrast with the mundane and profane uses of these buildings She argues that by the later Middle Ages as loyalties were torn by emerging political economic and social groups the Church suffered a loss of security that was reflected in the uses of sacred spaces which became more restricted as identities shifted and Europeans ordered the ambiguity of the medieval world Judaism and the Visual Image Melissa Raphael,2009-02-19 The widespread assumption that Jewish religious tradition is mediated through words not pictures has left Jewish art with no significant role to play in Jewish theology and ethics Judaism and the Visual Image argues for a Jewish theology of image that among other things helps us re read the creation story in Genesis 1 and to question why images of Jewish women as religious subjects appear to be doubly suppressed by the Second Commandment when images of observant male Jews have become legitimate even iconic representations of Jewish holiness Raphael further suggests that devout beholding of images of the Holocaust is a corrective to post Holocaust theologies of divine absence from suffering that are infused by a sub theological aesthetic of the sublime Raphael concludes by proposing that the relationship between God and Israel composes itself into a unitary dance or moving image by which each generation participates in a processive revelation that is itself the ultimate work of Jewish art

God in a Single Vision David Brown,2016-05-26 In the ancient conversation between Western philosophy and Christian theology powerful contemporary voices are arguing for monologue rather than dialogue Instead of these two disciplines learning from and mutually informing each other both philosophers and theologians are increasingly disconnected from and thus unable to hear what the other is saying especially in Anglo American scholarship Some Christian philosophers are now found claiming methodological authority over doctrine while some Christian theologians even deny that philosophy has its own integrity as a separate discipline Against these trends David Brown has argued over the past thirty years that philosophy and theology are both necessary in order to grapple with the reality of divine mystery and Christian faith Neither discipline can be reduced to the other and each has its own contribution to make for a full understanding of what Brown describes as a single vision of God In this volume Brown addresses some key topics in philosophical theology including the created order experience and revelation incarnation and redemption and heaven and our communal destiny Combining analytic clarity doctrinal substance and historical depth this volume exemplifies Brown s project of truly integrating philosophy and theology It thus provides an ideal introduction to this vital conversation for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as a connected argument of interest to specialists in both disciplines Spiritus Loci Bert Daelemans, S.J.,2015-01-08 In Spiritus Loci Bert Daelemans who graduated as an architect and a theologian provides an interdisciplinary method for the theological assessment of church architecture Rather than a theory this method is based on case studies of contemporary buildings 1995 2015 which are often criticized for lacking theological depth In a threefold method the author brings to light the ways in which architecture can be theology or theotopy by focusing on topoi places rather than logoi words Churches reveal our relationship with God by engaging our body mind and community This method proves relevant not only for the way we perceive these buildings but also for the way we use them especially in our prophetic engagement for a better world

Genig, 2015 In failing to take the sacramentality of the word of God seriously the preaching of the church has suffered negative consequences particularly failing to bring about divine participation with Jesus corporeal humanity in his living word In order to recover this sacramental reality this volume argues that one should consider the annunciation to Mary as the paradigm of the corporeal Christ taking up residence in the flesh of his hearer and delivering the fullness of the Godhead      The Liturgies of Quakerism Pink Dandelion, 2017-07-05 The Liturgies of Quakerism explores the nature of liturgy within a form of worship based in silence Tracing the original seventeenth century Quakers understanding of the liturgy of silence and what for them replaced the outward forms used in other parts of Christianity this book explains how early Quaker understandings of time history and apocalyptic led to an inward liturgical form The practices and understanding of twenty first century Liberal Quakers are explored showing that these contemporary Quakers maintain the same kind of liturgical form as their ancestors and yet understand it in a very different way Breaking new ground in the study of Quaker liturgy this book contrasts the two periods and looks at some of the consequences for the study of liturgy in general and Quakerism in particular It also explores evangelical Quaker understandings of liturgy      Sacred Power, Sacred Space Jeanne Halgren Kilde, 2008 The author's main concern in this book is the dynamic character of Christianity and how church buildings shape and influence the religion She argues that a primary function of church buildings is to represent and reify three different types of power divine power personal empowerment and social power      Exchanges of Grace Natalie K.
