Sense Of Sexuality:

A Sense of Sexuality Evelyn Eaton Whitehead, James D. Whitehead, 1989 The overarching objective of this book is that the reader will recover the sense of sexuality as a gift which implies risk taking to achieve freedom The authors call for a more incarnational attitude toward sexuality a spirituality that is more comfortable with the flesh Beyond Common Sense: Sexuality And Gender In Contemporary Japan Wim Lunsing, 2015-12-22 First published in 2001 This volume is based on the author's visit to Japan in Summer 1986 on his findings about some of the questions he was asked whilst there He was 25 and these questions centred around asking if he was married or had a girlfriend when in his homeland of the Netherlands he openly identified as gay This research is an investigation of how gay and lesbian people women's and men's liberationists singles and other people such as transsexuals transvestites and hermaphrodites whose ideas feelings or lifestyles are at variance with Japanese constructions of marriage and inherently the construction of life live in Japan Libido Alphonso Lingis, 1985 Alphonso Lingis's engaging book studies the phenomenological and postphenomenological theories of sexuality of six contemporary French philosophers Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Emmanuel Levinas Jean Fran ois Lyotard Gilles Deleuze and F lix Guattari After centuries of philosophical silence on the matter these writers during the last forty years have undertaken the first extended exploration of human sexuality in Western philosophical literature Lingis presents the arguments developed by the six philosophers critically assesses them and offers his own explanation of how the libidinal body can be characterized what the libidinal drive is and what alterity commands in the erotic imperative Raising Adults Terry Allen Sutherland, 2016-08-26 Raising Adults is the name of a series of books written by Terry Sutherland an average parent with an unusual idea about parenting Preparing for Eighteen is just the first installment of at least ten books and possibly many more Terry will present a lecture series about these concepts The motivation of raising children to be adults by the time they're eighteen is the very survival of the entire human race If that doesn't make this parenting book sound overly dramatic your life is wildly exciting This first book is arranged around three pillars individuality humanity and virtues It is structured within eighteen chapters that discuss the various kinds of things that are found in adults who have high integrity and sound character It discusses the qualities of adults who are capable and ready to take over their own lives and contribute significantly to humanity starting at only eighteen years old The book is not scholarly but anecdotal The content is the perspectives and experiences of Terry Sutherland and his wife Pam as they raise their own children to be adults by eighteen There are specific questions and sincere attempts to provide at least one valid answer to each of them There are some serious life events discussed that create an emotional roller coaster the reader will not forget By the end of this book the readers will understand what it means to have children and the responsibility of parents Anyone with kids will want to raise them with purpose so they take over their lives by the age of eighteen When children become adults they begin to either improve or drain the world and the human race With the information in his book Terry's readers can raise their children to be adults who add value to the human race Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media. Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention. The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities, sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent. They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide through the quickly expanding literature. This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein. Scholars working in Africa, the U.S. and Europe reflect on issues of representation, health and biopolitics, same sex relationships and identity, transactional economies of sex, religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency. This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective The Sexual Life of Our Time in Its Relations to Modern Civilization Iwan Bloch, 1909 Men and Masculinity: The Basics Nigel Edley, 2017-05-12 Men and Masculinity: The Basics is an accessible introduction to the academic study of masculinity which outlines the key ideas and most pressing issues concerning the field today. Providing readers with a framework for understanding these issues, it explores the ways that masculinity has been understood in the Social Sciences and Humanities to date. Addressing theories which view masculinity as being in a permanent state of flux and crisis, it explores such problem areas as the male body, men and work, men and fatherhood, male sexuality, male violence. With a glossary of key terms, case studies reflecting the most important studies in the field of masculinity research and suggestions for further study, Men and Masculinity: The Basics is an essential read for anyone approaching the study of masculinity for the first time Undoing Gender Judith Butler, 2004-10-22 Undoing Gender constitutes Judith Butler's recent reflections on gender and sexuality, focusing on new kinship, psychoanalysis and the incest taboo, transgender, intersex, diagnostic categories, social violence and the tasks of social transformation. In terms that draw from feminist and queer theory, Butler considers the norms that govern and fail to govern gender and sexuality as they relate to the constraints on recognizable personhood. The book constitutes a reconsideration of her earlier view on gender performativity from Gender Trouble. In this work, the critique of gender norms is clearly situated within the framework of human persistence and survival. And to do one's gender in certain ways sometimes implies undoing dominant notions of personhood. She writes about the New Gender Politics that has emerged in recent years, a combination of movements concerned with transgender, transsexuality, intersex and their complex relations to feminist and queer theory Women's Space Virginia Chieffo Raguin, Sarah Stanbury, 2006-01-01 This interdisciplinary collection addresses the location of women and their bequests within the single most important public and social space in pre-Reformation Europe: the Roman Catholic Church. This innovative focus brings attention to gender and space as experienced in the medieval parish as well as in monastic and cathedral space Through provocative handling of historical content and theory the contributors explore strategies of exclusion and of inclusion and note patterns of later writers who neglect or rewrite records of female presence Essays on the York religious cycle the chronicle of the monastery at Ely and The Book of Margery Kempe explore how medieval writers used texts as fictive spaces on which to graft responses to the gendered uses of real church buildings These text based essays are juxtaposed with tightly focused archival research in art history and history on Florentine patronage and English parish seating as well as with more broadly synthetic studies on access of women to shrines and on gendered left right placement in ritual art
