Philosophy of Law F. U. Okafor, 1992 This is a first attempt at the philosophical articulation and projection of the Igbo concept of law and the role of law in the traditional environment In the Igbo traditional setting the rules of law are uncoded
The author who teaches philosophy of law and logic at the University of Nigeria defines the law of a given community as the body of rules recognised as binding by its members On this concept of law he has based his attempt to elucidate the philosophical underpinning of those rules recognised in Igbo traditional legal system as law Unless the philosophical foundation is understood the traditional law machinery for enforcement and legislative and judicial processes may appear incomprehensible The first part gives a descriptive insight into the moral religious socio political and legal background of the Igbo The second part is devoted to the fundamental questions concerning the concept of law the various types of laws the reciprocal influence between law and Igbo religion and the end of laws Finally the author examines the nature of right in Igbo traditional thought and locates the philosophical background      The Liberty Bell ,1984      The Philosopher's Index
